Missouri's Winches
To Join in 'Big Pull' Against Mud Thursday

Senator Taft, in the Senate, Thursday, said he would introduce a bill to establish a Nebraska winch at the mouth of the Missouri River, and would make a speech in support of the measure, in order to show that the Missouri was not a river of no value. He said the Nebraska winch would be a great asset to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state.

Teft Says Acheson's Stand
On His 'Great Mistake' Continues

The stand which the Nebraska winch makes on the question of the Missouri River was made Thursday by Senator Taft. He said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state.

Left: Neighbors visit the Acheson home in Washington, D.C., Thursday. The Neighbors are members of the committee on commerce, and are in charge of the Nebraska winch. The Nebraska winch was established in 1941 by the state of Nebraska, and is a great asset to the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state. Senator Taft, who is a member of the committee on commerce, said the Nebraska winch would be of great benefit to the state, and would be of great benefit to the people of the state.