Henry Knight Muir, Patent Lawyer, Dies; Was Native of D. C.
Henry Knight Muir, 74, a member of the house of representatives in the reflections that Boston is an American lawyer, died at the age of 74.
Mrs. Muir, a Washington lawyer,
Maj. W. H. Griffin, Map Engineer
A. S. Griffin, a former senior topographic engineer of the Army's Corps of Engineers, has died in a hospital in New York.
Maj. W. H. Griffin, Map Engineer
A. S. Griffin, a former senior topographic engineer of the Army's Corps of Engineers, has died in a hospital in New York.

In Memoriam
Mrs. Katherine Price, Papal Countess
Mrs. Katherine Price, a respected member of the Catholic Church, died in a hospital in Washington, D.C., after a long illness.
Mrs. Price was a member of the Catholic Church and was well known in Washington society.
Mrs. Price was a member of the Catholic Church and was well known in Washington society.
Mrs. Price was a member of the Catholic Church and was well known in Washington society.

Mrs. Arthur Mierieshaw, Harrisburg Resident
Mrs. Arthur Mierieshaw, a resident of Harrisburg, Pa., died in a hospital in the city.
Mrs. Mierieshaw was a member of the Pennsylvania State Society and was well known in Harrisburg society.

In Memoriam
Mrs. Robert H. Jones, 77, Leader in Many D. C. Fraternal Societies
Mrs. Robert H. Jones, 77, a leader in many fraternal societies in Washington, D.C., died in a hospital in the city.
Mrs. Jones was a member of the Washington, D.C., and a leader in many fraternal societies in the city.

Count de Rochefort Charges Alienation
Count de Rochefort charges alienation in suit for $20,000.