HIGH-BROW STRIP TEASE

Photographs by Bradley Smith

THE New York City Ballet Company has added a strip tease to its repertory this year. The ballet, a frothy, comic bit based on the eternal-triangle theme, is called "A La Francaix" (Jean Francaix is the composer). It made its debut this year with Prima Ballerina Maria Tallchief as the bewitching stripper.

1 "TENNIS, ANYONE?" André Eglevsky, Janet Reed pair off

2 INTERRUPTION. Lorelei (Tallchief) appears, not for tennis

3 BRUSH-OFF. Eglevsky drops Reed; he has other ideas

4 MARIA TALLCHIEF momentarily turns the ballet stage into a runway

5 BATHING SUIT gives her plans away ...

6 "SWIMMING, ANYONE?" Eglevsky's all set

'TIS the month before Christmas
And most everywhere,
Mothers are rushing
With no time to spare.

With presents to buy
And housework to do,
Are three meals a day
A problem for you?

Well here's a suggestion
To help save your day—
Relax and "Eat Hearty"
This quick, easy way.

Eat HEARTY-with Franco-American Spaghetti!

Here's a hearty dish that helps you serve delicious and nourishing meals on busy pre-Christmas days—Franco-American Spaghetti! It tastes so good, your family will all eat hearty, too! Franco-American is spaghetti the way you like it—tender-cooked in a savory sauce of plump, juicy tomatoes and well-aged Cheddar cheese. You'll also like the way it saves you kitchen time when there are so many other things to be done. And it's thrifty, only pennies a portion! Have Franco-American Spaghetti often—now, and all through the holidays.

JUST HEAT...
AND
EAT HEARTY!
