

From LOUISVILLE To the SEA

A Soldier's Diary of the Civil War.

By LYMAN S. WIDNEY, 34th Ill.

Copyrighted, 1901, by THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE.

Aug. 25, 1864—"Monotonous" expresses the situation during the last four days, because we did not change our position...

Aug. 26—"The position assigned us, we marched down the main road, crossed Moker's Creek, and then by the left until we joined Carlin."

Aug. 27—"More than half the night had flown when we moved stealthily from our works, leaving our pickets to follow us..."

Aug. 28—"We moved three miles, and waited for our pickets to rejoin us. As soon as it was light enough we moved forward toward the Atlanta & West Point Railroad."

Aug. 29—"We spent the entire day of the 29th in destroying the railroad track, but on the morning of the 30th our corps, with the Fourth, moved toward the Macon Railroad."

Aug. 30—"We spent the entire day of the 30th in destroying the railroad track, but on the morning of the 31st our corps, with the Fourth, moved toward the Macon Railroad."

Aug. 31—"Gen. Sherman ordered Thomas to send a strong detachment to feel for the railroad near Jonesboro, Georgia."

Sept. 1—"When Hood, who remained in Atlanta with one corps, learned of the failure of the attack upon Howard's army, and that the railroad was in jeopardy..."

Sept. 2—"While pursuit of the retreating enemy was taken up by portions of the army our corps was moved into Jonesboro and given the duty of burning our own and the enemy's dwellings."

Sept. 3—"There has been considerable firing all day in the direction of Lovejoy Station, where Hood has collected his army and stubbornly resists our farther progress south."

Weak Kidneys and Bladder Trouble. Had to Pass Water Very Often Day and Night. Cured by the Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root.

DR. KILMER & CO., Binghamton, N. Y. About two years ago I had a very severe case of kidney and bladder trouble. The pain in the small of my back was so severe that I could not stand it to stay in one position more than a moment or two, and was obliged to pass water very often day and night.

A. H. Rooney. Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue, fatal results are sure to follow.
