

STEEL STRIKE NOT ENDED

The Amalgamated's Board Adjourns Until Today.

Opposition to Accepting the Terms Offered in Mr. Morgan's Ultimatum—A Concession to the Manufacturers Expected Eventually.

PITTSBURGH, July 30.—The big steel strike was not declared off today. After an all day session the executive board of the Amalgamated Association adjourned at 4 p. m. and it was given out that it would meet again tomorrow morning. No conference was held with the manufacturers, and the latest story is that more is contemplated.

Having read in the local papers that the manufacturers had agreed to a settlement that would be a triumph for the Amalgamated Association, the strike was adjourned today to learn that Morgan had practically issued an ultimatum, and that the acceptance of it by Shaffer would be a victory for the trust. They now realize that the strike is settled under the terms made public, the Amalgamated Association will not have won the main point on which the strike was declared, and will have lost privileges that it previously had.

It was learned today that in all probability the manufacturers are not willing to concede to the strikers the four steel hoop mills, three in Pittsburgh and one in Monaca, that were considered non-union, but demonstrated they were organized by ceasing work when Shaffer called the Amalgamated Association out. The strikers thought that it is extremely important that the strike should be settled, and that these mills will be regarded as non-union, and that the manufacturers will refuse to sign the Amalgamated scales for them.

In brief, the strikers will lose the Hamburg and Old Manhood sheet and mill, which the manufacturers once offered to them, but which the manufacturers have since decided to retain, the men in them having refused to join the strike, besides losing the four steel hoop mills which they gained from the manufacturers.

All that could be obtained from Shaffer today was the following statement: "I can say that the meeting has adjourned until tomorrow morning. There will be no statement made by me until the executive board either accepts or rejects the proposition offered. The board will continue the work tomorrow."

In the meantime the strikers are as vigilant as ever. The Amalgamated union mills of the three companies, and the companies are making repairs and are ready to make concentrated efforts to resume work at the site mills, whether the strike be settled or not. While there is spirited objection from various members of the Amalgamated Association's executive board to settling the strike on Morgan's terms, and though the members of the executive board would reluctantly accept such a termination, this does not mean that the strike will continue. Under the rules of the association the president and secretary are authorized by the executive board to shut any strike, and it is likely that Shaffer and Secretary Williams will receive the board's instructions to accept the manufacturers' terms, although the efforts will first be made to secure modifications of them.

The long distance telephone to New York was kept open, and the Amalgamated is trying to secure easier conditions from the heads of the trust. At the close of the morning the Amalgamated members of the executive board could not restrain themselves from venting their dissatisfaction at the reply that Frederick Shaffer had brought back from New York and which he had just been urging them to accept.

They would not say categorically what the terms were, but they intimated that the Amalgamated members of the executive board probably reject them. They object to the provision for a strike fund, to the work in the union mills and they do not believe the rank and file will look with favor upon the Amalgamated members of the executive board who are now working in some of the mills that are on strike.

A TIE-UP IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Const Sailors, Firemen, Dock Laborers, and Teamsters Strike.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—In accordance with a resolution adopted by the Water Front Federation late last night, the const sailors, marine engineers and firemen, dock laborers and stevedores, coal teamsters, and several minor organizations struck work today. The waterfront is at a standstill. Fourteen thousand men were added to the ranks of idle workers, making a total troubles of about 25,000.

The strikers unloaded coasting vessels arriving this morning, and permitted several to sail, but at noon the strike became officially effective and the tie-up was complete. Steamers and ships at the docks are in charge of officers and watchmen, and all freight is refused.

There were many minor troubles today, but only one serious fight occurred. Horns, Horns and William Ferguson, union teamsters, were menaced by a crowd of union sympathizers. They drew pistols and fired nine shots in the crowd. Only one shot found a mark, Peter Lynch receiving a bullet in the hip. The crowd made a rush for Horn and Ferguson, but they were rescued by the police and taken to prison, charged with assault on murder. Almost the entire police force is on duty in the lower part of the city and residence and uptown districts are without protection. There is a strong sentiment among the employers for calling on the militia to guard duty, to replace the police for ordinary duty. The situation in the interior of the State is grave, as fruit is rotting by tons owing to lack of shipping facilities.

A spirit of disorder and lawlessness is growing, and fights are becoming more serious. The Employers Association stands firm in refusing to make concessions to the unions.

CARNEGIE HANDS GO OUT.

An Unexpected Development in the Steel Trust Strike.

PITTSBURGH, July 30.—(2 a. m.)—Reports were brought downtown early this morning that the men employed in the Carnegie Twenty-ninth and Thirty-third Street mills had gone on strike at midnight. Telephone messages to Lawrenceville brought the reply that the Twenty-ninth Street plant had closed.

The strike was unexpected, and coming as it does during the consideration of peace propositions from J. Pierpont Morgan, will probably complicate matters. The Twenty-ninth Street plant adjoins the hoop combine mills of the William Clark's Sons Company, which closed two weeks ago.

This salute was answered by the harbor cannons, and at the same time, the hundreds of yachts in the harbor dressed ship, in rainbow fashion, making a most striking picture.

GENERAL WOOD'S ARRIVAL.

Transferred from the Morro Castle to the Kanawha.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Gen. Leonard Wood, Governor General of Cuba, arrived today from Havana on the Morro Castle. Dr. R. Line steamer Morro Castle and was transferred from her to the Government steam yacht Kanawha. He was able to leave the liner with only slight assistance from friends, on whose aid he had counted as he went to the health officer's steamer Governor Flower. When he left Havana he was so weak that it was necessary to carry him aboard the Morro Castle on a stretcher.

Dr. T. D. Lane, of the army, who accompanied the general, says his recuperation was rapid after sailing. It was expected that there would be a demonstration at Havana when the general left and to avoid one he was taken aboard at 5 o'clock in the morning. Even at that early hour forty persons, mostly well-known merchants and civil and military officials, gathered at the landing. One of the general's friends said that some of the Cuban people feared that the general would not return and were in much distress over the immediate destiny of the island, which they think can be properly handed over to the Cubans only by General Wood.

With General Wood were Mrs. Wood and their three children. The general will take a three weeks' cruise along the New England coast on the Kanawha. Mrs. Wood and the children will be the guests of Dr. Doty, at Quarantine, until tomorrow, the end of the five day detention period for passengers from a yellow fever port. Mrs. Wood probably will join the general aboard the Kanawha. The general said to the reporters:

"It will be eight months before the elections in Cuba will be over, and the island turned over to the people. During my illness I received daily messages, telegrams, and letters from all parts of the island expressing sympathy. I feel grateful for this manifestation on the part of the Cuban people. I left Havana everything very quiet."

THE SOCIALIST CONVENTION.

A Platform Prepared, But Not Yet Submitted to a Vote.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 30.—The Socialist Democratic convention opened this morning with denunciation of a local paper which contained reports today of an alleged split in the party by which Eugene V. Debs had been "dropped," the report saying that several delegates withdrew in disgust, but were finally prevailed upon to return to the convention. A resolution was offered to deny the paper a representative at the reporters' table, but it was finally voted down and a telegram as follows was sent to Debs:

"Be not deceived by false newspaper reports. Unity convention is harmonious and enthusiastic. The union of Socialist forces will soon be an accomplished fact. Convention sends greeting. You have our esteem and love, as you always had. Three cheers for the International Socialist movement and social revolution. United we stand."

Debs sent a telegraphic reply, saying he would not be misled by the capitalist press, as he was a Socialist.

The first resolution presented by the committee was a strong one. It favored trades unions as the economic force to carry on the class struggle and a step toward independent political action. The discussion developed a good deal of sympathy for the union and the fact that the convention was held in Indianapolis was sent back to the committee to be adopted.

A Porto Rican resolution created another acrimonious debate. It characterized Porto Rico as the "Slave of America" and declared that the military of the United States is suppressing trades unions and persecuting trades unionists. The resolution was adopted, but in a modified form.

The next resolution urged organization among negro workmen and was tabled and the committee was ordered to prepare an address to that effect.

The Committee on Platform reported last night. The report was a long one, and the committee was ordered to prepare an address to that effect.

A BRIDE'S FATAL DANCE.

Fell Dead While Attending the Wedding Festivities.

McKEESPORT, Pa., July 30.—Mrs. Anna Brudowicz, twenty-two years old, a bride of twenty-four hours, danced herself to death at her wedding reception yesterday morning to John Brudowicz, one of the leaders in the Polish settlement of McKeesport. The wedding was a most elaborate one, and a large number of wedding guests attended the festivities.

The celebration of Polish weddings usually lasts several days. This was scheduled to occupy the balance of the week. The bride and groom were to have a party every male guest to dance with the bride, which honor costs the guests a dollar. In this way several hundred dollars are usually raised to pay for the expenses of the celebration and help the newly-married pair to start housekeeping. The dance is a wild whirl about the hall in which the festivities are held, and the bride is passed from one to another until she is exhausted.

Mrs. Brudowicz had finished the ninety-fourth round of the room with many different guests when the celebration was called to supper. The bride complained of feeling ill, and almost immediately dropped over in a faint and died before medical assistance could reach her. She had been dancing for several hours. The young husband of the woman is almost insane, and is being closely watched to prevent him from committing suicide.

A NEW COLOMBIAN RISING.

General Uribe Uprised Said to Be Heading a Large Force.

THE Revolutionary Soldiers, According to Accounts from New York, Armed Through the Aid of Free Masons—Liberalism Expected to Win.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Gen. Rafael Uribe Uribe, the Colombian rebel, who slipped away from this city mysteriously a little more than a month ago, is back in Colombia and at the head of an insurrectionary force estimated to number about 100 men. This announcement, which will prove unwelcome news to the Government, will attempt to overthrow, was made last night by Dr. A. J. Restrepo, diplomatic agent of the liberal party, who was in New York and transhipped from this port as merchandise. What is, perhaps, more startling is the statement that much of the money with which these elements were equipped was contributed by Free Masons here and in Europe, who are anxious to rid Colombia of the Conservative Government, which is unalterably antagonistic to the order and to all other opponents of the Catholic Church. Dr. Restrepo said that some $250,000 was collected in this country and abroad, and with this amount at their disposal he is sanguine the Liberal party will be victorious.

General Uribe came here last January after the rebel had nearly exhausted their ammunition and their cause seemed hopeless. He agreed with the Colombian Minister at Washington, Dr. Carlos Martinez, to issue a manifesto calling on his followers to stop fighting, in return for which the Government promised amnesty to the political prisoners and to institute certain reforms, particularly equal rights at the polls to all citizens. These promises were not fulfilled, and Uribe determined to make another fight.

The general sailed here on June 15 on the Caracas under an assumed name. His departure was kept a secret, and although his movements were closely watched by detectives, it was three
