If the Last Days of Pompeii Were As Exciting As the Closing Days of Yuletide

It surely must have been a terrible state of affairs, and yet with all the excitement and tumult, the rushing helter-skelter crowds, we are able to master the situation. It's always the case; as the days pass, crowds become bigger. Three more shopping days before you. We are just as well prepared to fill your wants today as we were a fortnight ago. Shopping must be done. If you look upon it as an ordeal, you'll forget it when you come here and see how easily and quickly we can serve you. Make it your business that today is the day that you are going to shop, and you can easily do it with such a line of big specials as we have laid before you at random:

The Book Question.

Here's where the old, the young are very much interested. It's a haven of delight for those that like literature of facts and fiction. It's a studio where knowledge can be developed in every form. Our Book Department as you see it today is a complete store, where one can select from a tiny little picture book to a Jumbo Webster Dictionary. Let us suggest the following different kinds as very suitable presents for those that love to revel in books:

Divorce Case Aftermath.

A preliminary hearing will be given in the Police Court this morning to Charles R. and George C. Grimes, brothers, who were arrested Thursday on a charge of perjury. It is alleged that while testifying recently in a divorce case before Justice Bradley they made certain false statements.

A Word to the Ladies

To please your husbands I beligve to be the chief aim of every one of you, and if he be a smoker you could scarcely please him more than by giving him a box of good cigars for Christmas. Many of you may hesitate about making a purchase of this kind, as the uncertain quality of many of the brands can but confuse the uninitiated. My Christmas goods are selected from brands of well-known merit, and I will cheerfully assist you in making a selection that will surely please. A good cigar, packed 50 in a box, may be had for $2.25 in a box for $1. William H. Livermore, 501 H Street northwest.

"Havenner's English Fruit Cake"
