RUSSIAN STUDENTS SWEAR VENGEANCE AND ARE ARRESTED

Police Attracted by Revolutionary Songs of Plotters.

NEW PRECAUTIONS TAKEN

Apprehension of More Disorder Causes Posting of Troops in St. Petersburg.

VANDERBILT MAID LANDS IN PRISON ON FRAUD CHARGE

Police Arrest Her as She Leaves the Home of President Roosevelt's Cousin. Reaps a Harvest.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29—Charging that she was formerly a maid of Mr. Cool and that she afterward assumed a title without lawful right, a charlatan who said she was Carlota Vanderbilt was arrested by the police in two places last night and charged with false pretenses.

The woman was arrested at the home of the Cool and that she afterward assumed a title without lawful right, a charlatan who said she was Carlota Vanderbilt was arrested by the police in two places last night and charged with false pretenses.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29—Charging that she was formerly a maid of Mr. Cool and that she afterward assumed a title without lawful right, a charlatan who said she was Carlota Vanderbilt was arrested by the police in two places last night and charged with false pretenses.

The woman was arrested at the home of the Cool and that she afterward assumed a title without lawful right, a charlatan who said she was Carlota Vanderbilt was arrested by the police in two places last night and charged with false pretenses.

LOCAL FENCERS EASILY DEFEAT VISITING TEAMS

SOCIETY IN ATTENDANCE

Reception After the Victory by Count and Countess Cassini Feature.

The Washington Fencers' Club was the scene of an event of considerable interest yesterday afternoon when the visiting teams of New York and Philadelphia were defeated by the local organization.

The challenge to the visiting teams was made by Mr. Harry C. sweater, president of the Washington club, and the games were played with skill and vigor.

BRIDGE COLLAPSES: THREE MEN INJURED

Police on Trail of Bigamy Murderer

She Will Probably Be Seen Taking Down Street, Where Accident Occurred.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 30.—The death of a 32-year-old woman yesterday morning is being investigated by the police as a possible case of bigamy.

The woman, who was found dead in bed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, was identified as Miss Elizabeth Johnson. She had been living with Mr. Smith for several years and was believed to be pregnant.

POLICE ON TRAIL OF BIGAMIST MURDERER

She Will Probably Be Seen Taking Down Street, Where Accident Occurred.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 30.—The death of a 32-year-old woman yesterday morning is being investigated by the police as a possible case of bigamy.

The woman, who was found dead in bed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, was identified as Miss Elizabeth Johnson. She had been living with Mr. Smith for several years and was believed to be pregnant.