CARBOLIC ACID CAUSED DEATH

III Health Led to Alleged Suicide.

MRS. HEDGES DESPONDENT

Curves Worsh After Investigation De-

Iced Woman Fell to Her Own Life.

Neglected and deprived because of her illness, Mrs. L. E. Hedges, 75 years old, fell to her death outside of her home at the northeast corner of Second and Pythian streets, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Hedges was well known throughout the city as the wife of the late Andrew Hedges.

ADULT PSORIASIS 35 YEARS

Terrible Scaly Manner in Patched

And Bubbling—Dicing Un-Weal-

able—Got with Cutters in Thirty

Days at Cost of $4.75.

ANOTHER WONDROUS

CURE BY CUTICURA

It was affected with psoriasis at the age of 17.

MADISON STREET BLOOD LETTING

The mites were removed by blood letting and cuticura. The cure was complete and the mites were removed in ten minutes.

PROHIBITION PROVISOON

The woman was given a bottle of cuticura and told to drink it every day and take it in the same way.

MRS. HEDGES DEPRESSED.

The woman was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital, a coroner's inquest was held and the body was removed to the Buckner mortuary for an autopsy.

NOTES HARD WORKED.

The Georgetown police were busy. A woman was found dead in her room at 5:30 this morning, and the coroner was called to the scene.

MRS. SHURMAN LEAVES CITY.

A woman was found dead on the street yesterday afternoon.

TRAVEL TEAM BETTER.

The woman was found dead on the street yesterday afternoon.

PASTOR REGIONS.

The woman was found dead on the street yesterday afternoon.

BARBER SHOPS BUSY ALL OVER TOWN.

Many Complaints Are Registered With Police.

PROHIBITION PROVISOON

The woman was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital, a coroner's inquest was held and the body was removed to the Buckner mortuary for an autopsy.

Woman's Head Cut by Fall From Street Car.

Woman's head was cut by fall from street car.

Owen F. D. T. S.

Women's head was cut by fall from street car.

NIGHT TIME ADVERTISEMENT.

Women's head was cut by fall from street car.

WANTED—ACQUAINTANCE.

The woman was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital, a coroner's inquest was held and the body was removed to the Buckner mortuary for an autopsy.

MRS. HEDGES DEPRESSED.

The woman was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital, a coroner's inquest was held and the body was removed to the Buckner mortuary for an autopsy.

THE WASHINGTON TIMES MONDAY, JULY 31, 1895.

11