Langdon Lodge Entertains Many Visitors.

Last Monday evening the officers of the grand lodge paid their annual visit to Langdon Lodge, No. 26, the home lodge of Grand Master Frank E. Rapp. The lodge and grand master were honored by having present Grand Secretary William A. Jones and Grand Marshal George Horisburg, of the jurisdiction of Maryland, and fourteen visitors representing ten other States. The reports of the grand secretary and grand treasurer showed that the lodge during the present year has greatly improved both in membership and finances, and that the lodge will soon own its lodge building free of indebtedness. In honor of the grand master the lodge, through Past Grand Milton S. Fall, presented Mrs. Rapp with a handsome cut glass fruit dish, and in memory of the times in the past when the lodge was struggling to increase and keep warm on winter nights, the committee presented the grand master for the use of the lodge the old wood stove refinished and bearing a plate showing the action of the lodge, all inclosed in an oak and glass case. The address of the evening was delivered by William A. Jones, past grand master and grand secretary of Maryland. Past Grand Master John H. Wood, who is the recognized father of the lodge, it having been instituted during his term of grand master, also made a splendid address. The session closed with the serving of refreshments.

Masonic Relief Requested for War Sufferers.

Masons of the District of Columbia are urged to contribute generously toward funds being raised for the relief of European war sufferers in an appeal issued by T. John Newton, grand master of the Grand Lodge, F. A. A. M.

The appeal says in part: "At present we have among the warring nations of Europe many thousands of Masonic brethren—Masons who are actually bearing arms. It is not only the losses in our fraternity, ranks of husbands, fathers and sons which we must face, but those who are left—their aged parents, their wives and children—many, alas! already become widows and orphans, for whom we must help provide. Even wider and deeper than this is the loss in the heavier bereavement, the greater penury, the more acute suffering found among the poor of each conflicting nation—those vast and needy communities whose burdens all generous Masons always carry upon their hearts.

"We Masons are fellow-soldiers in God's army of peace. Our constant prayer must be for peace. God is love, and the way to peace is through a life that refuses to countenance hate and bloodshed."

Grotto Entertains "Ladies and Kiddies."

The "ladies' and kiddies'" night entertainment of Kallipolis Grotto, No. 15, M. O. V. P. E. R., held Wednesday night at National Rifles Armory, will long be remembered by the several hundred prophets, their wives and children who attended. The entertainmnt was peculiarly adapted to both children and grown-ups. The "kiddies" were made glad the minute they entered the hall by having a box of candy handed them, and the "mamas" were equally pleased to receive a handsome bouquet of roses. The prophets were presented with a souvenir tumbler bearing the Grotto emblem. The stage was beautifully decorated with Christmas trees and green foliage. Many beautifully colored electric lights blazed a welcome and the decorations about the hall were representative of the Grotto and the Christmas season.

The idea of a "ladies' and kiddies'" Grotto entertainment was conceived by Monarch P. R. Pullman several months ago. He called to his aid Past Monarch John H. Shreve, whom he appointed chairman, and explained his plan. Subcommittees were appointed and the result was one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held by the Grotto.

The evening's entertainment was as follows: Overture, Kallipolis Orchestra, Jacque Heidenheimer, director; address of welcome, Monarch P. R. Pullman; medley, Kallipolis Glee Club, Charles A. Stevens, director; bugle calls, Master Rudolph Albrecht, the youngest of the Minute Men; solo, Master Charles E. Hutchinson; solo, Miss Leona Callan; whistling solo, David Wolf; duet, "The Recipe of Love," Miss Edithe Shreve and Master Bernard Ruppert; comic song, "When Grown-Up Ladies Act Like Little Babies," Kirk C. Miller; duet, Misses Mary and Dorris Eaton; dialect specialty, I. S. Goldsmith; female impersonation, Wilbur E. Fookes; solo, Miss Margaret Parker; toe dance specialty, Miss Edithe Shreve; solo, "A Fool There Was," Master Bernard Ruppert; solo, Carl Mulvehill; solo, Master Samuel Emmons; Schnitzel Bank, Fred Kramer and Kallipolis Glee Club; concert, Kallipolis Military Band, Prof. Julius Kamper, director; Samuel F. Shreve, president.

After refreshments were served the floor was cleared and the "little ones" amused themselves in fun and games, assisted by Prophets Fred Isell, H. S. Simmons, John W. Shadwell and W. C. Pratt, costumed as clowns.

The full committee having the affair in charge consisted of Past Monarch John H. Shreve, chairman; E. W. Gibbey, vice chairman; George H. Emmons, secretary; Charles Keifer, treasurer; Monarch P. R. Pullman and Past Monarchs Edward S. Schmid, J. W. Collins and R. B. Dickey, and O. A. C. Oehmler, reception; C. P. Boss, tickets; F. H. Kramer, flowers; Dr. Frederick Yates, medical; Samuel F. Shreve and Julius Kamper, music; Jacque Heidenheimer, orchestra; P. W. Nicholson and M. Hanlein, decorations; Jack Shulman, souvenirs; Theodore Picard, refreshments, and Charles A. Stevens, floor.

RAW MILK AND CREAM

are of all single causes the most prolific for the production of diseases.

Ill health or lack of cleanliness among dairy hands, stable dirt, soiled utensils, impure rinsing water, together with the warmth and dust of the stable, are the principal causes of contamination, and, as milk is the best-known medium for breeding germs, these rapidly multiply into many millions.

Tuberculosis, scarlet fever, diphtheria, septic sore throat, and notably typhoid and other intestinal diseases, are often caused by raw milk and cream, and no amount of inspection can be relied upon to prevent milk contamination at all times.

The only reliable means for preventing milk infections is pasteurization, and this simple treatment does not change the character of the milk nor affect its nutritive value or its digestibility.

We can home-pasteurize milk by bringing it to near boiling, then cool, and keep cold and covered until used.

Even entirely healthy adults who would ordinarily not be affected by impure food if they continue drinking impure milk and cream long enough will eventually vitiate their blood and undermine their natural resistance and become subject to attacks of sickness, the underlying cause of which is usually not suspected.

But children, sick people, and all who are in a rundown condition should in particular never drink raw milk or raw cream, nor eat ice cream made of them.

The Health Officer of the District of Columbia will furnish free information as to the average grade of safety of the milk and cream, raw or pasteurized, sold by any milk dealer in this city.
