PRINTING BUREAU BUILDING CONTRACT SOON WILL BE LET

Bids to Be Opened Wednesday—Construction Work to Be Pushed.

The Treasury Department is hopeful that the construction work on the new building for the Bureau of Engraving and Printing soon will be under way.

It is the intention of Secretary MacVeagh however, to let the contract at the earliest possible day after the bids are opened. The work of construction is to be pushed from the moment the contract can be let and the contractor can get his men started.

Fifty dollars has been subscribed by the Societa Unione E Fratellanza Italiana for the benefit of Mrs. Fortunata Milano, wife of the Italian shoemaker charged with the murder of Harry Elton Smith. At a meeting of the society this amount was contributed by the members. It will be given to her in full if she goes to Brooklyn next Sunday, as she intends to do, but if she stays on in Washington it will be given to her in installments of $5 a week.

Arguments in the Cotterill Divorce Action Continued. Arguments on the motion to dismiss the absolute divorce proceedings in the case of Charles A. Cotterill against Mrs. Henry Garland Cotterill, were continued to November 22 by Justice Wright in Equity Court No. 2 today, at the request of counsel for the defendant.

Wife of Alleged Slayer May Go to Brooklyn Next Sunday. Mrs. Milano is no longer at 206 Canal street. She is now at 126 D street southwest with the family of Angelo Maggio, a shoemaker and tailor. When seen today, Mrs. Milano said that her departure for Brooklyn next Sunday depended upon the condition of her baby. The child is sick, but if the attending physician permits, she will go to her mother's home Sunday.

Motion to Dismiss Will Be Heard November 22 By Justice Wright. Attorney E. L. Gies contends that the motion will not carry. Attorney W. Earl Ambrose made the motion to dismiss, basing his claim on the code which prohibits the "guilty" party in a divorce case from re-marrying within the District of Columbia.

ROOSEVELT MAY BE ASKED TO NAME THE NEW YORK SPEAKER

Pointed Out That Task for Taft Would Be Found Embarrassing.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Former President Roosevelt, by indirectness, probably, will be called upon to name the next speaker for the New York general assembly, which the Republicans carried in the recent elections.

Up-State Republican leaders declared today that President Taft would be called upon to name the speaker, and that he would be placed in a most embarrassing position by so doing. The Chief Executive desires a cold New York delegation to the Republican convention, and State Chairman William Barnes, Jr., of the "Old Guard," is willing to deliver it to him, it is said.
