H. Z. OSBORNE, MEMBER OF CONGRESS, DEAD

Somehow at His Home in Los Angeles, Cal., at the Age of 70.

Los Angeles, February 5—Burl Osborne, Los Angeles Democrat, died in his home in Los Angeles last night. He was 70 years old.

Mr. Osborne was born in Sumter County, Tenn., and was educated in the schools of the South. He entered the army in 1861 and was with the Union forces for 4 years. He was graduated from the College of the City of New York in 1865 and entered the law practice in New York City. He came to Los Angeles in 1882 and was customarily referred to as the city's elder statesman. In the 11th Congress he was a member of the House of Representatives, and in the 109th he was a member of the Senate. He was also a member of the American Stock Exchange and the New York Bar Association.

Mr. Osborne leaves a widow, a daughter, and a son.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

President Grover Cleveland, through his secretary, the Honorable William F. Natland, said that he was gratified by the confirmation of his nomination for the presidency of the American Bar Association. He said the nomination was a great honor to the nation.

Mrs. E. G. Cowgill, who is 75 years old, died in Los Angeles, Calif., last night.
