

Princess Sava Gouiu of Rumania, who arrived in America a few days ago to arrange the details and itinerary of Queen Marie's of this country. Princess Sava Gouiu is the youngest daughter of the Queen of Rumania.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg as a deacon of a church. He was photographed when leaving the celebration of the festival of the Brandenburg Cathedral. He is garbed in a silk robe and carries a bouquet.

Uncle Sam's newest battleship, the Maryland, passing under Brooklyn bridge. The great fighting ship will receive her finishing touches at the Brooklyn navy yard, and then will go to sea.

Eleutherios Venizelos, former Greek premier, and his bride arrive in America on their honeymoon trip. They were given a rousing reception at the New York docks by practically all of the city's Greek population.

Milady's gown of a century ago shudders at present styles. The 1821 frock is worn by Miss Frances Halliday and the 1921 affair by Miss Dorothy Whitmore.

New York is conducting a unique contest in "reduction" between a squad of men and a squad of women. The women, part of them in the photograph, are banting under the direction of Dr. Royal S. Cope land, health commissioner of the city. A woman beauty specialist is directing the men in their efforts.

"Dreaming." Photograph by Miss Helen Dayton, 1725 17th street north-west, winner of The Star's weekly prize of $10 for the best amateur photograph.

Mary Garden, impresario of the Chicago Opera Company, returns from Europe to take up the season's musical work. She engaged several European singers while abroad.

President Harding receives honorary degree at Williams and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va. The degree of doctor of laws was conferred by Dr. James H. Dillard, rector of the board of visitors of the college.

Twin dancers call on President Harding at the White House. They are Misses Harriet and Sylvia Darling, who appeared in a musical production in Washington recently.