

SUPERINTENDENT AT BUFFALO EXHIBITION

Sickness Driven From Entire Family by Paine's Celery Compound.

Spring is here. Purify your blood. Take Paine's celery compound. It is the one spring remedy sought after and highly esteemed by intelligent, earnest men and women throughout the land.

FLAGS NOT AT HALF-MAST. Navy Department Exempt From Observing Mr. Harrison's Death. Considerable curiosity has been displayed recently as to the reason the flags at the Navy Yard and at the Naval Hospital, Ninth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue southeast, were not at half-mast, as were the colors over Government buildings in other parts of the city.

Dear Sirs: Being run down from overwork, physically and mentally, I tried Paine's celery compound as a remedy. It undoubtedly did me much good. My wife and some of my relatives have also been using it, and inform me they have been very greatly benefited. Sincerely yours, ALGER M. WHEELER.

No Guess Work With Dr. Shade's Patients. More Than Half of the Ill People in Washington Today Are Being Treated for the Wrong Disease, and Are, of course, Taking the Wrong Medicine.

ENGLAND'S COSTLY LESSON

Expenses of the Boer War Reach $5,000,000 Per Week.

Julian Ralph Tells How John Bull Realized That He Still Had Something to Learn About War—Organized Resistance to End Very Soon. Stretched at his ease on two big chairs in his room at the Arlington, Julian Ralph, war correspondent of the Daily Mail, has been writing a number of papers and prospects in South Africa.

Now the Englishman sits up and looks around him, with perhaps a little surprise in his eyes, and takes notice of what other people are doing. It is no little thing that he is cured of his blindness, and he can afford to pay well for it.

There is no center of resistance, except perhaps Botha, who is said to be in touch with the Kruger Government. The Kruger Government is a free lance, and it will fight for the loss of his four sons, and so are all other commanders.

Canals in Russia. Alexander Hume Ford Lectures on Inland Waterways. Alexander Hume Ford gave a highly interesting lecture before the members and friends of the National Geographic Society, at the First Congregational Church, last night.

Uncle Sam Don't Wear a Hat. A hat, but he carries the Air Cushion Truss all over the United States. He wears a white, three-sided, and comfortable, nothing else will do. It is made of the finest material, and is light, and comfortable, and is a perfect support for the back, neck, and shoulders.

OXFORD THE WINNER.

Victor in the Field Events at Queen's Club, West Kensington.

LONDON, March 28.—The annual inter-university field games between Oxford and Cambridge took place this afternoon at Queen's Club, West Kensington. C. B. Fry, of Oxford, was referee, and Gilbert Yessall, of Oxford, and Rev. H. C. Tydall, of Cambridge, acted as judges.

The English Varsity Races. Oxford a Strong Favorite on the Eve of the Contest. LONDON, March 28.—The eve of the great varsity boat races finds Oxford a strong favorite in the betting at 2 to 1 on. Since they went into training, the Oxonians have come out better. They started two pounds per man lighter than the men in the Cambridge boat, but now they are either as heavy or heavier than the Cantabs.

Events Well Contested. Indoor Meet of the Friends Athletic Association. The fifth annual indoor meet of the Friends Athletic Association took place last night at the Friends School, 2101 Massachusetts, N.W. It was a very successful meet.
