

HERO OF THE UNITED STATES NAVY IS BURIED AT ARLINGTON. Two pictures showing the last rites for Capt. Herbert G. Sparrow at Arlington National Cemetery yesterday afternoon. Capt. Sparrow and three radio men lost their lives when the cruiser Tacoma, in charge of Capt. Sparrow, went on the rocks just outside the harbor of Vera Cruz, Mexico. Upper photograph shows the buglers blowing "Taps," and the lower shows the funeral procession winding through the famous cemetery on the way to the grave. National Photo.

BUDDING LAWYERS OF MASSACHUSETTS CALL ON THE PRESIDENT. The Massachusetts Law Club of Georgetown University, made up of students from Massachusetts, posed with President Coolidge on the lawn of the White House yesterday. T. F. Dolan, president of the club, at the President's right; W. A. Roberts, vice president, at his left. National Photo.

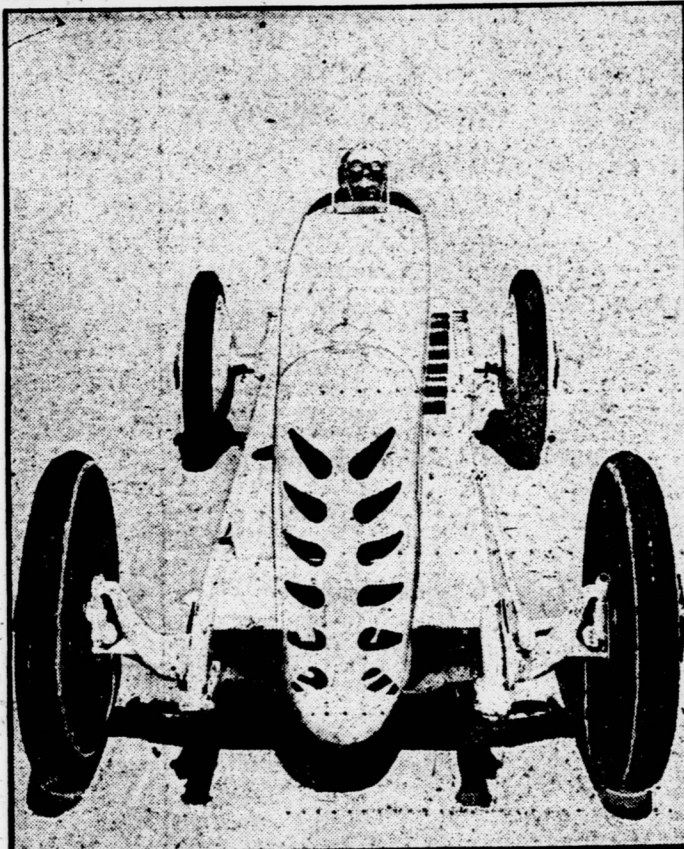

Dan Caswell's ex-wife to marry Ethel Barrymore's ex-husband. In other words, the engagement has been announced of Miss Jessie Reed, "highest paid chorus girl," and Russell Griswold Colt, millionaire arms manufacturer. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

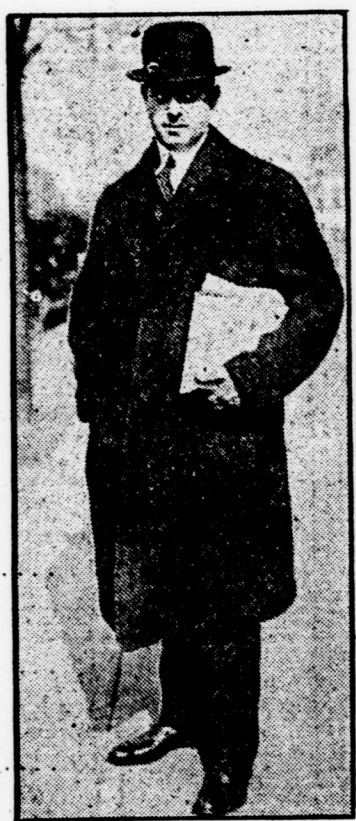

SOCIETY IN PALM BEACH FOR THE WINTER SEASON. Stephen "Laddy" Sanford, whose horse won the Grand National Steeplechase of England last year, and Miss Lisa Norris, prominent in New York society, on the sands at Palm Beach. Wide World Photo.

TWO CHAMPIONS IN NEW ORLEANS. Little Ivan Parke is now claimed to be the premier race rider in America. His work at the New Orleans tracks this winter gives other jockeys a mark to "shoot at." He is held by Jack Dempsey, champion heavyweight of the world. By United News Pictures.

THIS CAR TRAVELS THREE MILES A MINUTE. Introducing the "Wisconsin Special," with Sig Haugdahl at the wheel. The car made three miles a minute a few days ago on the beach at Cocoa, Fla. The speed of the car is a much talked-of feature of the automobile world. Wide World Photo.

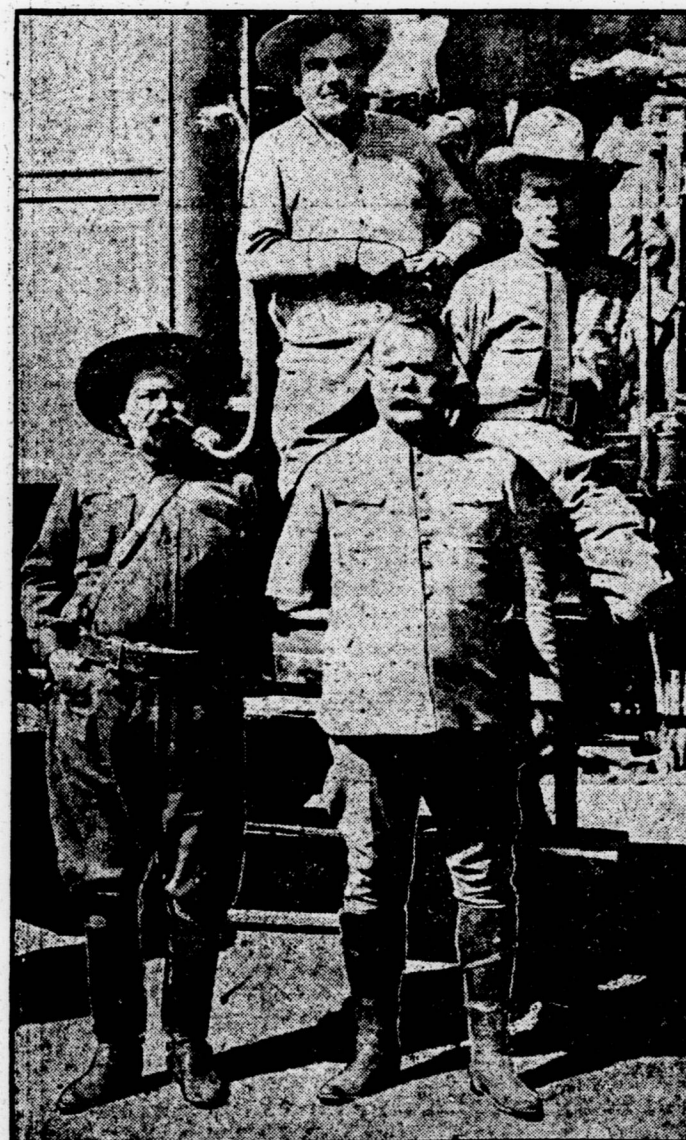

Oscar Sutor of San Francisco, attorney for the Standard Oil Company, who testified before the Senate investigating committee yesterday. National Photo.

NEW PRIME MINISTER AND HIS DAUGHTER. The latest photograph of Ramsay MacDonald, prime minister of Great Britain, and his daughter in the garden of their home, 10 Downing street, London. They are noting the record of the sun dial. Wide World Photo.

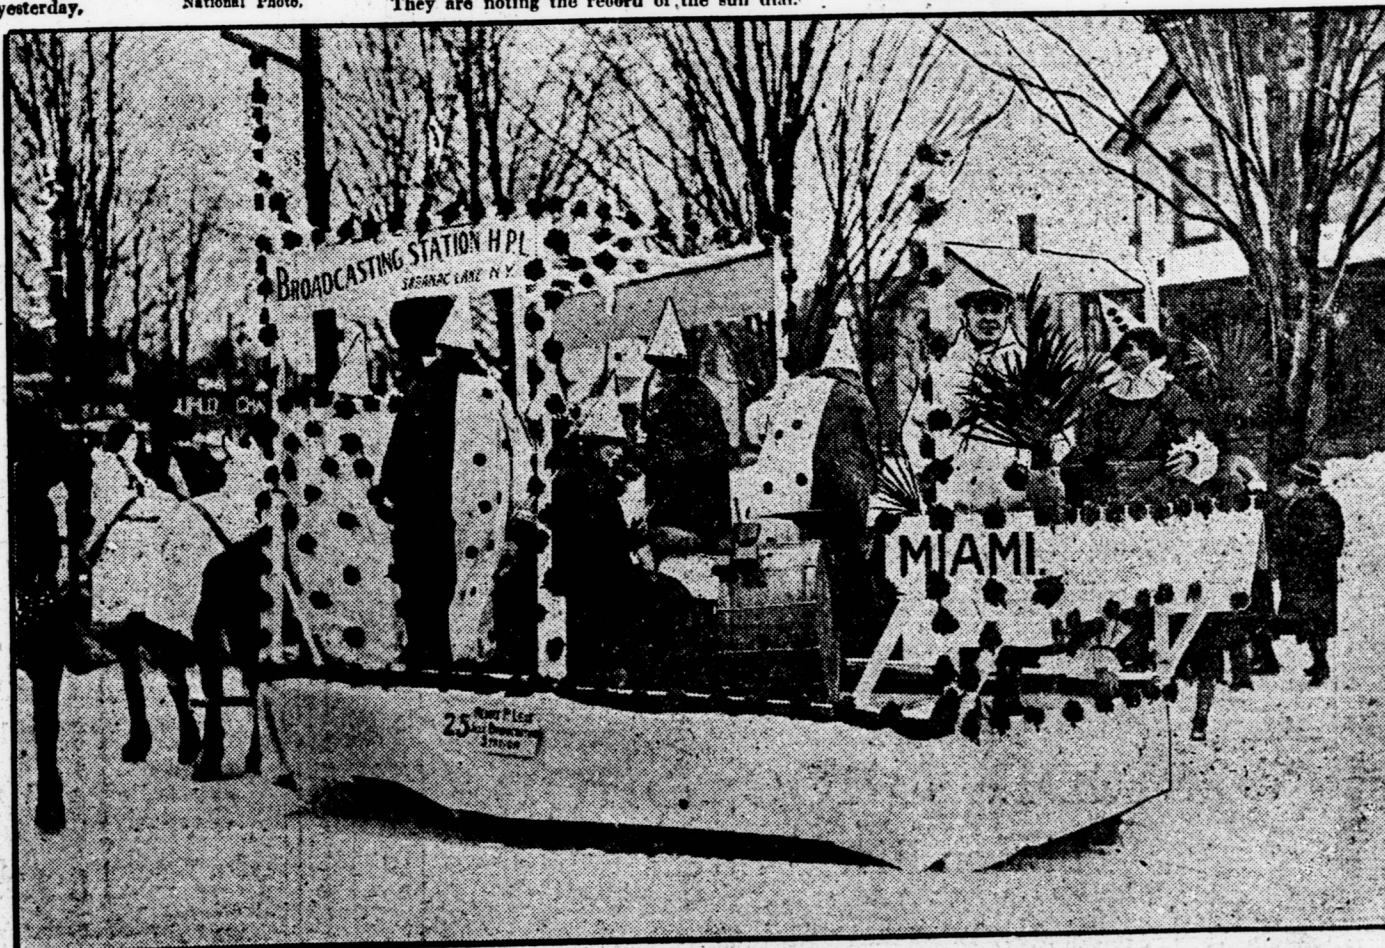

William O. Stoddard, eighty-nine years old, once a secretary to President Abraham Lincoln. Photograph taken at the home in Madison, N. J., yesterday. Stoddard was secretary to Lincoln from 1861 to 1864. Wide World Photo.

COUNCIL OF WAR IN MEXICO. President Obregon, Gen. E. Martinez, commander of troops on eastern front; Gen. Calles and Gen. Serrano, secretary of war, holding a conference when their train stopped a short distance from the battle lines in Mexico. Copyright by Kado & Herbert.

AT MIAMI, FLA.-BALL. Mrs. C. C. Lincoln, Jr., of Marion, Va., and Douglas D. Felix of Washington, photographed at recent ball at Miami. The affair was one of the big social events of the winter season in Florida. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

FROST KING IS HONORED WITH A FIVE-DAY CARNIVAL AT SARANAC. Thousands viewed the colorful parade of floats in the annual winter carnival of Saranac Lake, N. Y., recently. This particular float was used to broadcast jazz music to Miami, Fla., where loungers in bathing suits enjoyed the concert. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.