

Corns?

—just say
Blue-jay
to your druggist
Stops Pain Instantly

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in two forms—a colorless, clear liquid (one drop does it!) and in extra thin plasters. Use whichever form you prefer, plasters or the liquid—the action is the same. Safe, gentle. Made in a world-famed laboratory. Sold by all druggists.

From: Write Bauer & Black, Chicago, Dept. 13 for valuable book, "Correct Care of the Foot."

Borden's Evaporated Milk

Costs you no more,—and you can be sure of all-around nourishment and perfect safety in your most vital food.

It's pure country milk with the cream left in.

STRATON BALKS AT DEBATE WITH BRADY ON STAGE

Baptist Minister Says He Did Not Issue Challenge to Magnate.

NEW YORK, March 9.—There isn't going to be any debate Sunday between the Rev. Dr. John Rosch Straton and Theatrical Magnate William A. Brady at the Hippodrome, and those whose nature craves forensic fireworks will have to be satisfied with reading the newspaper reports of Congressional debates about bonuses and things. Brady had announced he would accept Dr. Straton's challenge to debate the question as to whether there were more ministers or actors in jail and the relative morality of church and stage generally, and named the Hippodrome as the place and Sunday afternoon as the time.

"Mr. Brady is mistaken," Dr. Straton said today. "I didn't challenge him to a debate, and anyhow I have a revival meeting at my church next Sunday afternoon, so could not take up the issue then. What I did propose to Mr. Brady was that he cooperate with me in the arrangement of special religious services and instruction for stage people, to be held in theaters on Sunday afternoons. There was no suggestion of further debate, and I think people are sick of such debates, anyhow. But I have not abandoned my idea of special services for stage people, and a little later I am going to take up the matter and arrange them."

The Rev. Dr. John Haynes Holmes, describing himself as a "passionate lover of the theater," declared in a prepared statement that conditions in the theaters today are intolerable, an unmitigated scandal and a stench in the nostrils of every decent citizen.

Of thirty-nine productions now in New York, the pastor holds nine so indecent that they should be banished on a public stage than garbage or sewerage on a public street. If such conditions continue, he warned, censorship will surely come and the blame for it will belong "on the theatrical managers who put these filthy plays on the boards for the sake of dirty money."

CONGRESSMAN MILLS GETS COMMITTEE APPOINTMENT

Congressman Ogden L. Mills, (Rep.) of New York, has been selected by the House Republican Committee on Committees to succeed A. B. Houghton as a member of the House Ways and Means Committee. Mr. Houghton has been confirmed as Ambassador to Germany.

Mills leaves the merchant marine committee and his place there is to be filled by M. J. Hogan, Republican, New York city.

Other committee assignments made by the Republican committee on committees were: Osborne, California,

Klansmen, on Errand of Mercy; Thrill Church Crowd

DOVER, Del., March 9.—With the large auditorium of the People's Christian Church filled to capacity, and the gallery half-filled, to hear the pastor, Rev. Roy C. Helfenstein, D. D., answer queries placed in the question boxes of the church dealing with the religious, social and home life of the present day, a most unusual thing happened.

Just before the singing of the last verse of the hymn preceding the discourse, there entered the church two white-robed figures, who marched up the center aisle and into the chancel and placed on the pulpit an envelope. Without uttering a word or disclosing their identity, the visitors turned face about and left the edifice, as mysteriously as they entered.

The audience was standing when the visitors appeared. At the close of the hymn Dr. Helfenstein advanced to the pulpit and took up the envelope and read the following:

"Rev. R. C. Helfenstein, D. D.—Please deliver this amount of money, $31.00, to the person whose name you will find enclosed. We understand a certain family in our town are in need and we desire as an organization to make this contribution toward their support."

"KNIGHTS, KU KLUX KLAN, Dover, Del."

The presence of the two men came as a great surprise to everyone in the audience, and no little concern was felt until the message they delivered had been read by Dr. Helfenstein.

and Murphy, Ohio, appropriations; Linberger, California, rivers and harbors; Cole, Iowa, foreign affairs; Andrew, Massachusetts, naval affairs; Ansoorge, New York, elections No. 3, and Taylor, New Jersey, elections No. 1.

GIRLS! LEMONS

WHITEN HANDS

Press the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter-pint of harmless and delightful lemon-bleach lotion to soften and whiten red, rough or chapped hands. This home-made lemon lotion is far superior to glycerin and rose water to smoothen the skin. Famous stage beauties use it to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, because it doesn't irritate.—Advertisement.

The Weak Spot in your Character

A wave of relief swept through Latimer. The woman was too weak to FIGHT him for the bread!

The executioners could not separate those Lovers, in a death grapple over one small piece of Bread.

"THE test was by hunger," said Slake. "Ten days in adjoining rooms—a glass partition between so that they could see but not encourage each other. On the tenth day the glass partition was removed and one piece of bread thrown in to them, as meat is thrown to starving animals caged together—you know the rest. It was difficult for the executioner to separate them—they had torn and entwined their way into such a deadly knot in their death grapple for that one small piece of bread—and you say that couldn't happen now! Would you make the test?"—Would YOU? And would you stand it better than Latimer did?

See ELEMENTALS—Stephen Vincent Benét's great story in April Cosmopolitan.

Without the Net!

Two men and a slim, seventeen year old girl whirling through air from trapeze to trapeze, high up against the topmost canvas of the giant circus tent. And this was the first time without the safety net. Then the girl with only ONE man! And she HATED him! All she had to do . . .

(See this story of conflicting love and hate—the best story Frank R. Adams ever wrote, in April Cosmopolitan. Now on sale.)

The Woman Who Cheated

Another Great Rita Weiman story

Lillian Russell Tells

—what the King of England whispered to her in the Royal Box at Irving's Theatre; why the Prince of Wales coaxed his grandmother to write him every week; how Chauncey Depew got into the wrong room and acted as the guest of honor at a banquet to which he was never invited. (See "How it Feels to be a Star," in April Cosmopolitan.)

George Ade tells about the Happy Man with one $1.80 Suit of Clothes!

Has a Girl who gives her love to a married man any right to happiness? Broken Barriers; Meredith Nicholson, April Cosmopolitan.

Will Irwin Tells of a Woman Who Decided All Men Were Beasts and Married One Because They Were!

THE MONTH'S BEST READING

ARNOLD BENNETT, Edwin Balmer, P. G. Wodehouse, Robert Hichens, Montague Glass, Edgar Guest, John Fleming Wilson, Mary Ashe Miller, Fred C. Kelly; all in this great magazine in addition to the other great features listed on this page. Buy it today at your newsstand. You will recognize it by Harrison Fisher's beautiful cover, "The Finishing Touch."

Use enough to get big lasting suds

Let the suds guide you.

If they die down after you put the clothes to soak you have not used enough Rinso.

Rub only the very dirtiest places

Just soaking in big lasting Rinso suds loosens the most ground-in dirt without weakening a single thread. Only the very dirtiest places need to be rubbed. For these use a little dry Rinso.

Rinso takes the place of bar soap at every step of the family wash. Use it freely. It is the only soap you need.

Rinso does the family wash as easily as Lux does fine things

America's Greatest Magazine

For April—Just Out

Cosmopolitan

NOW! AT ALL NEWSSTANDS