CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN

I distilled in London, and put up solely in quart and pint bottles, to meet the requirements of Druggists, and those to whom Pure and Unadulterated liquor is a Necessity or a Luxury.

It is the oldest established of all the Gins (1) which have started into existence upon the basis of well-deserved and hard-earned celebrity.

It has no connection with, and is in no way like the trashy mixtures sold as "English Gin" or "Old Tom," or "London Dock," or "London Mixed," &c., &c., no matter how much "antiquity" or "respectability" is assumed by their begetters.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, says: "It is far preferable to even Pure Holland Gin, and is the article of the kind I have ever seen." So say thousands of physicians.

The New York Herald says: "We are surprised at its beneficial effects; it is a certain safe-guard to health."

The Philadelphia Ledger says: "It has no superior, if an equal, in medicinal virtues."

The New Orleans Picayune says: "There is no remedy on earth for dyspepsia equal to it."

The Boston Journal says: "As a beverage, as a preventive, or as a remedial agent, we want no other; it is our sole means."

Women of America, for you it is particularly suited. In sickness or health, it is your greatest friend.
