VOL. II. WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1862. NO. 278.

PROPOSALS FOR MATERIALS FOR THE NAVY.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Bureau of Construction, &c., Sept. 26, 1862.

SEALED PROPOSALS to furnish materials for the navy for the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1863, will be received at this Bureau until 12 o'clock P. M. of the 21st October next. Those proposals must be endorsed "Proposals for Materials for the Navy, Bureau of Construction," as that they may be distinguished from other business letters.

The materials and articles embraced in the classes named are particularly described in the printed schedules, copy of which will be furnished to each one desiring to offer, on application to the commandants of the respective yards, or to the navy agent nearest thereto, and those of all the yards, upon application to this Bureau. This division into classes being for the convenience of dealers in each, such portions only will be furnished as are actually required for bids. The commandant and navy agent of each station will, in addition to the schedule of classes of their own yards, have a copy of the schedules of the other yards, for examination only, from which it may be judged whether it will be desirable to make application for any of the classes of those yards.

Offers must be made for the whole of the class at any yard upon one of the printed schedules, or in strict conformity therewith, or they will not be considered. In comparing the classes, the prices stated in the column of prices will be the standard, and the aggregate of the class will be carried out according to the prices stated.

The contract will be awarded to the lowest best bidder who gives proper security for its fulfilment. The United States reserve the right to reject all the bids for any class, if deemed exorbitant.

All articles must be of the very best quality, to be delivered in the navy yard in good order, and in suitable vessels and packages, properly marked with the name of the contractor, as the case may be, at the expense and risk of the contractor, and in all respects subject to the inspection, measure, count, weight, &c., of the yard where received, and to the entire satisfaction of the commandant thereof.

Bidders are referred to the commandants of the respective yards for samples, instructions, or particular description of the articles; and, all other things being equal, preference will be given to articles of American manufacture.

Every offer, as required by the law of 10th August, 1846, must be accompanied by a written guarantee, the form of which is herewith given.

Those only whose offers may be accepted will be notified, and the contract will be awarded as soon thereafter as practicable, which they will be required to execute within ten days after its receipt at the post office or navy agency named by them.

Bonds, in the full amount will be required to sign the contract, and their responsibility certified to by a United States district judge, United States district attorney, collector, or navy agent. As additional security, twenty per centum will be withheld from the amount of the bills until the contract shall have been completed; and eighty per centum of each bill, approved in triplicate by the commandants of the respective yards, will be paid by the navy agent at the points of delivery in certificates of indebtedness or Treasury notes, at the option of the Government.

It is stipulated in the contract that if default be made by the parties of the first part in delivering all or any of the articles mentioned in any class bid for in the contract, of the quality and at the time and places above provided, then, and in that case, the contractor shall and will forfeit and pay unto the United States a sum of money not exceeding twice the amount of such class, which may be recovered from time to time, according to the act of Congress in that case provided, approved March 3, 1843.

In class No. 11 and those following, if a quantity in addition equal to the face of the contract is demanded, it is to be furnished on like terms and conditions during the fiscal year.

Which from a firm must be signed by all the members:

I, ——, of ——, in the State of ——, hereby agree to furnish and deliver in the respective navy yards all the articles named in the classes hereunto annexed, agreeably to the provisions of the schedules thereto, and in conformity with the advertisement of the Bureau of Construction, &c., of 26th September, 1862, 3. Should my offer be accepted, I request to be address ed at ——, and the contract sent to the navy agent at ——, or to ——, for signature and certificate.

The schedule which the bidder encloses must be sealed in his offer, and each of them signed by him. Opposite each article in the schedule the price must be set, the amount carried out, the aggregate added up for each class, and the amount likewise written in words. If the parties who bid do not reside near the place where the articles are to be delivered, they must name in their offer a person to whom orders on them are to be delivered.

Form of Guarantee.

The undersigned, ——, of ——, in the State of —— and ——, in the State of ——, hereby guaranty that in case the foregoing bid of ——, for any of the classes therein named be accepted, he or they will, within ten days after the receipt of the contract at the post office named, or navy agent designated, execute the contract for the same, with good and sufficient sureties; and in case said —— shall fail to enter into contract as aforesaid, we guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said —— and that which may be accepted.

To the Public.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office Indian Affairs, September 19, 1862.

From information received at this Department, deemed sufficiently reliable to warrant me in so doing, I consider it my duty to warn all persons contemplating the crossing of the Plains this fall to Utah or the Pacific coast that there is good reason to apprehend hostilities on the part of the Bannock and Shoshone or Snake Indians, as well as the Indians upon the Plains and along the Platte river.

The Indians referred to have during the past summer committed several robberies and murders. They are numerous, powerful, and warlike, and, should they generally assume a hostile attitude, are capable of rendering the emigrant routes across the Plains extremely perilous. Hence this warning.

By order of the Secretary of the Interior:
CHARLES E. MIX,
Acting Commissioner.

Information to Pension Claimants.

The Commissioner of Pensions, Mr. Barrett, has addressed the subjoined full and satisfactory letter to one of the numerous correspondents who have written to him inquiring as to the mode of establishing claims for pensions in behalf of the mothers of soldiers deceased in the military service of the United States, under the act granting pensions, approved July 14, 1862:

PENSION OFFICE, Oct. 13, 1862.

SIR: To the several questions contained in your letter of the 10th instant, concerning the pension claims of mothers of deceased officers and soldiers who have left neither widow nor minor child, I reply:

1. In no case will the dependence of the mother upon her son for support, whether wholly or in part, be taken for granted on the mere affidavit of the claimant. The allegation must be sustained by positive proof that she has actually received her support during a stated period, either wholly or in part, from the deceased soldier, on account of whose military services she presents her claim. This can be proved by the affidavits of two credible witnesses, who are not interested in the result of the application; by the production of evidence that a portion of the soldier's pay (by allotment ticket or otherwise) was regularly transmitted to the mother; by proof that he constantly paid, or contributed towards paying, her board, house rent, or other specific and necessary expenses, or by such other equivalent testimony as will clearly establish the fact in question. It is not sufficient to prove that the mother received occasional presents from the deceased.

2. If the mother has a husband living, that fact is regarded as prima facie evidence that she was not, in any degree, dependent upon her son for support. In such case, before she can be admitted on the pension roll it must be clearly proved that her husband has refused or neglected to provide for her support, (stating for how long a time,) on account of physical disability to labor, having no other source of income; or else that, having deserted her, he is beyond the reach of legal compulsion to contribute to her maintenance. The proof required in this case is that of two credible and disinterested witnesses, who must state their means of knowing the facts to which they make affidavit.

3. It is my opinion that if the mother of a deceased soldier has a husband living, who is not proved to be either unable to support her, or in such a situation that she cannot enforce her legal claim upon him for subsistence, she is not entitled to receive a pension by reason of the service and death of her son.

4. Proof of the mother's marriage to the father of the deceased soldier is regarded as indispensable, and the fact should be established by record evidence, when that can be obtained. If the marriage took place in a foreign country, a record of the baptism of any child of the parties will be accepted in place of the marriage record, if the latter cannot be obtained without great inconvenience. If neither can be obtained, on affidavit to that effect, a private record or the evidence of common reputation, shown by two credible witnesses having no interest in the result, will be received. Respectfully, yours,
JOS. H. BARRETT, Commissioner.

A Letter from Gen. Scott.

At the Democratic ratification meeting in New York, October 13, John Van Buren read the following letter addressed by Gen. Scott to Mr. Seward on the 3d of March, 1861:

WASHINGTON, March 3, 1861.

DEAR SIR: Hoping that in a day or two the new President will have happily passed through all personal dangers, and find himself installed an honored successor of the great Washington, with you as the chief of his Cabinet, I beg leave to repeat, in writing, what I have before said to you orally—this supplement to my printed "views" (dated in October last) on the highly disordered condition of our (so late) happy and glorious Union.

To meet the extraordinary exigencies of the times, it seems to me that I am guilty of no arrogance in limiting the President
