which have supplanted the methods of twenty-five years ago may yet be subject to revision because they do not achieve practical education.
Violators of the Law.
The inquiry now being conducted into the operations of the express companies reveals a state of affairs beyond imagination.

Economy and Aeroplanes.
Refusal on the part of the House of Representatives to appropriate $125,000 for aeroplanes, reducing the amount to $75,000, is much to be regretted.

President Taft's Speech.
President Taft's speech before the New York Republican Club was phrased in happy manner. He insisted that the Republican party is progressive in its effort to remedy the abuses which have arisen from the combinations of capital, that it is progressive in its attempts to improve the administration of justice, and that it is progressive in desiring to reform the tariff.

Waiting for Warm Weather.
Let us be thankful that the Weather Bureau predicts warmer weather, and then let us hope that the prophecy will be verified.

Substitute for Rubber.
The story from Philadelphia that a man of that city has discovered a substitute for rubber which he manufactures from various kinds of waste will be accepted with a grain of salt until the facts he claims are fully established.

Boston Schools Scored.
The public schools of Boston and the system under which they are at present maintained have been subjected to very serious criticism in hearings before the committee on cities of the Massachusetts legislature.

Public Service Commissioners.
Gov. Dix appears to be in a receptive frame of mind for suggestions regarding appointments.

Was Not a True Sport.
An Ohio farmer the other day caught an immense golden eagle in a trap and a hard time killing the bird.

Wish They Were in It.
The money trust—whatever it is—may be a wicked thing, but there are lots of people who would be glad to be in it.

Clark Howell's Opinions.
The weekly journal of civilization, with Clark Howell as editor, is a true sportsman who would let the bird go, especially when he could see on his left foot a portion of an old trap.

Missouri Republicans Encouraged.
Since the dinner at the White House, given in honor of Mayor Kressman and Otto Stifel, of St. Louis, there has been a new vigor and activity among Missouri Republicans in their education.

What Ails the Party?
The weekly journal of civilization, with Clark Howell as editor, is a true sportsman who would let the bird go, especially when he could see on his left foot a portion of an old trap.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

FOURTEENTH OF FEBRUARY.
Of all the days, this is the one that woman calls her Valentine's day. In every land beneath the sun where Christian ways are known, the mounds await the postman's ring ere the dawn is gray.

Uncle Pennywise Says.
The fellow that concocted on the Christmas present can't square things now with a valentine.

A Foxy Scheme.
"Hubby, this is St. Valentine's Day and I expect a big bunch of cards."

Our Loss.
The old-time valentine is gone; 'Twas fashions' flier; The post-card never can alone For it.

A Disappointment.
"What's Wombat growling about?" "He thought some girl had sent him a valentine."

You Know the Type.
There is a young man in this town who likes the ladies, but who doesn't wish to be captured.

Good Values.
She was looking at some Latin valentines. "Can you guarantee these ribbons and this satin?" she demanded.

IN THE WAYS OF POLITICS.
From the Atlanta Constitution. Running for office is good exercise, but so many overdo it.

From the Pittsburg Post. One of the surprises of the season is the haste with which certain Republicans are getting in under the progressive umbrella.

From the Omaha Bee. Most of the political parties in which the late Gen. James H. Weaver belonged died long before he did.

From the Milwaukee Free Press. The economy plans of House Democrats do not contemplate cutting off the 20-cent-a-mile graft coming and going.

From the Memphis News and Scimitar. Tom Watson has declared for Underwood, a fact which supporters of the Alabamian would be well to suppress.

From the Birmingham Ledger. It looks as if Mr. Bryan failed to realize that Congress had fully decided that it could get along without the aid of his direction.

From the Ohio State Journal. Some times it seems as if some of the islands of the sea were made for no other purpose than to provide cusumal positions.

From the Boston Post. So long as the Democratic caucus has courage enough to flatten out the would-be bosses on the outside it can command a hefty bunch of public respect.

From the Boston Herald. With 119 paid for a white man's vote in Delaware and only five for a colored man's, the proportionate superiority of the white race is definitely fixed.

THE POLITICAL PROCESSION

By FRANCIS B. GESSNER.
Thomas J. Scully, of South Amboy, of the one Democratic member of the House from New Jersey who seems to be favored, or at least let alone, by the Republican legislature, which will make a general shift of counties into a dozen new districts to-morrow.

MR. HAMMOND'S TOUR.
Now in California, After Visiting Properties in Mexico.
From the Times (Am.) Cities. Having spent just a week in the inspection of the great land holding of the Richardson Construction Company in the Yaqui Valley of Sonora, John Hays Hammond and his accompanying party arrived in Tucson to-day in the private car.

Gov. Foss' Latest Action.
Gov. Foss, of Massachusetts, seems to be preparing for the Presidential proposition even if the Democrats of his State are not quite ready to present him as a candidate.

Personal Visitation.
"Never write and never burn" is an old political proverb which is being quoted again with the warming up of the campaign.

From the Springfield Republican. Mr. Underwood has again successfully asserted himself as the leader of the House of Representatives in the matter of the money trust investigation.

From the Philadelphia Record. It became known to-day that officials of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company at the East Pittsburgh plant will make a final test of a discovery of color photography which transcends all methods now in use.

STATESMEN, REAL AND NEAR.

By FRED C. KELLY.
The five doctor members of the House are constantly being hunted up by other members who desire to discuss their symptoms and the diseases they suffer to.

Representative Bell, of Georgia, was showing a rural constituency about the Capital, and was asked to show them to him into the Supreme Court room.

Another one wrote: "I am now employed in the leading barber shop here and an equal at home in a parlor discussing dress in a lodge room discussing politics."
