

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Our Thirty-second Anniversary Sale

EXCEPTIONAL VALUES IN EVERY DEPARTMENT.

Following are a few of the most prominent ones:

Anniversary Special in Women's and Misses' Silk Dresses.

We have had a prominent manufacturer make us especially for this week's selling a lot of Women's and Misses' One-piece Silk Dresses that embody every desirable style feature of the season. The value presented is most unusual.

Special price, $10.75 each. Regularly $16.75 to $25.00.

Anniversary Special in Women's Spring Suits.

For these 100 suits we have been careful to select the most wanted materials—navy blue and black serges, and gray, tan, and brown mannish mixtures. These suits were designed and made to our order only for this sale, and we will be unable to obtain more, so we emphasize the necessity of early inspection.

Special price, $15.90 each. A regular $25.00 value.

Anniversary Specials in Seasonable Dress Fabrics.

$1.00 All-silk Marquiesette, 39c yard.

An All-silk Marquiesette, further beautified by a satin stripe in the weave, which makes it a fabric of unusual richness for evening gowns and separate waists. Displayed in gray, cadet blue, deift blue, lavender, cerise, reseda, and old rose.

$1.75 Wide-Wale Serge, 75c yard.

An extensive assortment of this handsome imported suiting in the serviceable shades of gray, myrtle, navy blue, and black. A special purchase for this sale enables us to offer them at a greatly lessened price.

25c Mercerized Cotton Pongee, 15c yard.

Secured from one of the leading American manufacturers at a price commensurate with the quality of the fabric, highly mercerized, and especially favored for women's suits, dresses, and children's garments. A large assortment of colorings, including light blue, pink, and blue, linen shades, red, tan, brown, green, black, navy, and others.

Anniversary Specials in Women's New Neckwear.

Women's Dainty Imitation Irish Chemises and Yokes, so deservedly popular and desirable for wear with the one-piece gown.

50c each. Regularly 75c.

Women's Embroidered Linen Collars, of especially good quality and neat design.

15c each. Regularly 25c.

Anniversary Special in New Ribbons.

Beautiful 1/2-inch Taffeta Ribbons wired edge, in all new and desirable shades. These ribbons are especially attractive for millinery and children's hair bows.

Special price, 20c yard.

4-inch Glace Taffeta Ribbons, solid colors, with thin stripes through center and satin border; a variety of new shades suitable for general use.

Special price, 39c yard.

New Washable Ribbons, plain satin ground with dainty designs and good quality, in ten-yard packages. Specially priced as follows:

No. 1—12c piece.

No. 1 1/2—15c piece.

No. 2—20c piece.

No. 3—25c piece.

Main floor—Center.

Anniversary Special in Women's Undermuslins at 50c.

Gowns, high, low V, and square neck, lace and embroidery trimmed, short skirts, trimmed with lace or embroidery.

Special price, 50c each.

Anniversary Special in New Embroideries.

Cambrie, Nainsook, and Swiss Embroidery Edgings, in new and effective patterns, some having insertions to match. The widths range from 2 to 5 inches, and the value is one of the strongest we have ever offered.

Special price, 15c yard.

Main floor—G st.

Anniversary Specials in Women's Low Shoes.

Women's White Buckskin Pumps, with Goodyear welt soles and Cuban heels. Made on a new round-toe last, with lip, and trimmed with neat bows. Sizes 2 to 7; A, B, and C widths.

$2.75 pair. Regularly $5.00.

Women's Patent Kidskin Seamless Pumps, on a neat, well fitting last, with Goodyear welt soles, Cuban heels, and trimmed with flat grosgrain ribbon bow. Sizes 2 to 7; A, B, and C widths.

$2.50 pair. Regularly $3.50.

Women's Black Buckskin Blusher Oxford Ties, with wide ribbon laces; plain toe, Goodyear welt soles and Cuban heels. A very special value.

$2.50 pair. Regularly $4.00.

Third floor—Tenth street.

Anniversary Special in Valenciennes Lace.

A very attractive assortment of Normandy Valenciennes and Point de Paris Laces, in matched sets. Some as wide as five inches, and the qualities represent values that are ordinarily obtainable at 25c and 30c yard.

Special price, 5c yard.

Main floor—G st.

Anniversary Special in Aluminum Saucepans.

Our own direct importation of the highest-quality Swiss Aluminum Saucepans, in a set of three, containing one two-pint, one three-pint, and one four-pint saucepan. These are of a heavy quality flat-grained aluminum, finely made.

$1.28 for set of 3.

1-3 to 1-2 less regular price.

Fifth floor—Eleventh st.

SOCIETY

Miss Bissell, Daughter of Former Cabinet Officer, Guest of Miss Helen Taft.

Miss Margaret Bissell, daughter of the Postmaster General during the regime of President Cleveland, arrived at the White House yesterday for a visit with Miss Taft. She and Miss Catherine Anderson, cousin of Miss Taft and also a guest at the White House, accompanied Miss Taft to the dinner given last evening by former Senator Aldrich and Mrs. Aldrich, the guests going afterward to the Pierette and Pierrot dance at the Playhouse.

Former Gov. Murphy, of New Jersey, who has been a guest at the White House for a few days, returned to New York yesterday.

Miss Harriet Anderson, niece of Mrs. Taft, who spent some weeks at the White House, is the guest of Miss Taft at the dinner given last evening by former Senator Aldrich and Mrs. Aldrich, the guests going afterward to the Pierette and Pierrot dance at the Playhouse.

Mrs. Bryce, wife of the British Ambassador, entertained at a tea yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the embassy, having as her guests a party of forty boys from Western Australia, who are touring this country.

The German Ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff went to New York yesterday to remain until Friday.

Mrs. L. Z. Letter was hostess at a luncheon yesterday, when her guests were asked to meet the President's aunt, Miss Della Torrey, who is spending a few weeks at the White House. Covers were laid for twelve. In the company were Mrs. William C. Herron, Mrs. Robert Patterson, and Mrs. J. M. Dickinson, wife of the former Secretary of War, who has recently recovered from a severe illness.

The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand entertained a small company of personal friends at dinner last night.

Mrs. Hanger, widow of the former Norwegian Minister, entertained a company of young people at dinner last night, taking her guests later to the Pierette and Pierrot dance at the Playhouse. Her guests were Miss Meyer, daughter of the Secretary of the Navy, and her house guest, Miss Harriet Anderson, niece of Mrs. Taft.

Mrs. John H. Henderson, wife of the former Senator from Missouri, entertained the members of the Congressional Club, according to her annual custom, at a tea last evening at her home, Bountiful Castle, when she was joined by many of her friends. Virginia reel, lancers, old-fashioned waltzes, schottisches, polkas, mazurkas, and valseviettes were predominant.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hollister Chapman entertained a dinner company last evening in honor of the Belgian Minister and Mrs. Havenith.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Crenshaw entertained at a beautiful dinner last evening in the red room at the New Willard Hotel. The guests were Miss Crenshaw and her house guest, Miss Virginia Silvester, of College Park, Md. The hall was most beautifully festooned with flowers, and the table was set with a string orchestra played for the dancing. Mrs. Crenshaw wore a gown of black velvet with crystal and rhinestone trimmings, and Miss Silvester wore a gown of blue satin with crystal stud and pearl trimmings.

Among the guests were Miss Lucie Hoke Smith, Miss Carrie Lee Chamberlain, Miss Overman, the Misses Amparo and Leora Rivera, the Misses de Pena, Miss Walsh, Miss Janet Ayres, Miss Pillebrown, Miss Ruth Rice, Miss Virginia Mullins, Miss Virginia Miller, Miss Howary, Miss Florence Snyder, Miss Mary Graham, Miss Amy Meyers, Miss Frances Miller, Miss Hickey, Miss Edith Grant, Miss Kenzie of Georgia, house guest of Miss Lucie Hoke Smith, Miss Frances Briscoe, Miss Galt, Mr. McCarthy, Dr. Hall, Dr. Yates, Mr. Walter Penfield, Mr. Rivero, Mr. Henry Carpenter, Dr. Allen, Mr. Richard Hyatt, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Lee Brown, Mr. Hickey, Mr. Baum, Mr. Berry, Mr. Washburn, Mr. Bentley, Mr. Carroll, Mr. Hill, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Hickey, Mr. James Lynch, Mr. Austin Lorch, Mr. Boney, Mr. Galt, Mr. Franklin, Mr. Heth, Dr. Crenshaw, Mr. Rankin, and Mr. Daly.

The Minister from the Netherlands and Mme. London returned yesterday from a visit in New York.

Col. and Mrs. Garrard entertained a company of young people at dinner last night at their quarters at Fort Myer, preceding the hop. They have as house guests Mr. McEwan Prayn, Miss Prayn, and Miss Edna Hirschprung, all of Albany, N. Y., and in addition to them the dinner guests were Lieut. Bradford, Lieut. Conley, Mr. Maurice Moore, and Mr. Dodson.

Capt. Foltz, Lieut. and Mrs. Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kitz, and several others of the Fort Myer circle, had small dinner parties preceding the dance.

The last formal hop of the season at Fort Myer took place last evening. Col. Joseph Garrard, commanding the post, and Mrs. Garrard entertained a company at dinner preceding the dance. Mrs. Wood, wife of Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff, and the wife of Col. Garrard, commanding officer at Fort Myer, received the guests, who included many from the city, both married and unmarried people.

Mrs. William Manning Irwin entertained a company of young people at dinner last night and afterward took her guests to the dance at Fort Myer.

Mrs. Linticum, wife of Representative J. Charles Linticum, of Baltimore, will be at home to-day for the last time this season. She will go to New York on Thursday to remain for some weeks, returning here in April for the spring season.

Miss Carrie Lee Chamberlain, who spent the week-end at Port Deposit, Md., has returned to Washington. She will have Miss Morgan, of Portland, Oreg., visiting her several days this week.

Miss Lucie Hoke Smith, daughter of Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, was hostess at luncheon yesterday at the New Willard. In honor of her house guest, Mrs. Annie Lee McKenna, of Atlanta, she invited to meet the guests at luncheon were Miss Katherine O'Connell, Advertisement for Borden's hair cream, featuring 'SAVE YOUR COMBINGS' and 'PATENTED STEELLESS SWITCH'.

Advertisement for Borden's hair cream, featuring 'The Hair Shop' and '704 Eleventh St. On Ground Floor'.

Miss Ruth Tribble, Miss Henry Lou Hughes, Miss Frances Finley, Miss Helen Hardy, Miss Marion King, Miss Robyn Young, Miss Elizabeth Coyne, Miss Julia Vail, Miss Elizabeth Crenshaw, Miss Ruth Rice, Miss Nancy Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Munford, Miss Amy Richardson, Miss Dorothy Brodie, of Memphis, Tenn., a guest of Miss Smith; Miss Harriet Cole and Miss Mary Hines, both of Atlanta, and Miss Beach, of Georgia. The table decorations and flower centers were all orchids. The tea was in the form of this rare over and the cakes with electric lighted candles.

The Pierrette and Pierrot dance at the Playhouse last evening was a very smart gathering, many of the guests dining at the Playhouse beforehand, and others as guests at a various dinner party. Supper was served at small tables at 1 o'clock, and a buffet supper was served later.

The Congressional Club will have Mr. Gottschalk, who will talk on "African pictures," as the guest of honor at the weekly reception at the Congressional Club, Friday afternoon, February 23, at 4 o'clock. Tea will be served at 3 o'clock.

The marriage has been announced of Mr. Marshall Carr and Lieut. Col. Herbert H. H. of the Seventh Cavalry, U. S. Army, whose engagement was announced last fall. The ceremony was performed last week in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John H. Ricketson, in Pittsburgh. Mr. John H. Ricketson gave his bride in marriage, Capt. James E. Shelby, of the Allegheny Arsenal, was best man. Rev. George B. Richardson, pastor of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony in the presence of only the relatives and a few very close friends. Col. and Mrs. H. H. Carr will make their home at 1000 Pennsylvania avenue, N. Y., where Col. Carr is stationed, being inspector general of the Eastern division of the army.

Among the notable visitors to the headquarters of the Southern Industrial Educational Association on Saturday were Mr. John C. Campbell, of the Sage Foundation, and President Hubbell, of the Lincoln Memorial School, Cumberland Gap, Tenn.

Georgia and Florida day at the official headquarters of the Southern Industrial Educational Association will be held on Monday, the 20th instant, at 2 p. m. A special exhibit of mountain crafts and cabin industries will be displayed. All Georgians and all Floridians and friends interested in the mountain work are cordially invited to come and take a cup of tea. Mrs. Lamar, wife of the late Justice Lamar, will be hostess for Georgia with the ladies of the Georgia State delegation. Mrs. G. D. Ambler, with Mrs. Duncan Fletcher, will be hostess for Florida, with the ladies of the State delegation. The Messrs. Fisher and Miss Hoke Smith will assist in pouring tea. Florida moss and Georgia pine will form the decorations.

Miss Mary E. McCann and Mrs. Maude Gouverneur leave Thursday for the Maryland-Baltimore-Atlantic City, to remain a week or ten days.

A beautiful tea was given yesterday afternoon at Trinity College, Brookland, by the older students. The young girls in the receiving line were Miss M. Burns, Miss W. Cunningham, Miss M. H. Scammon, Miss D. M. Murphy, and Miss M. E. Evans. The young students from Georgetown College assisted in the entertainment of the large company.

A silver tea will be given this afternoon from 2 to 5 by Circle No. 2 of the rectory of St. Margaret's Church at the rectory.

Mrs. William Graves Sharp, wife of Representative Sharp, of Ohio, will receive to-day from 2 to 5 for the last time this season, at 1414 Sixteenth street.

Mrs. Spear, wife of Representative Spear, will be at home to-day at the Highlands.

Mrs. Marabin C. Church will be at home informally to-day, at 1412 Massachusetts avenue.

Mrs. Samuel Fannell Fickles, of 1201 Columbia road, will be at home this afternoon from 4 to 6 for the last time this season. She will have with her Mrs. E. L. Tompkins.

Mrs. Mary Monroe Parker, a prominent club woman of Chicago, and a leading monologist and dramatic reader among women, is spending the week on the New Willard. Mrs. Parker has been in New York for a few weeks, and is on her way home. She will be considerably entertained during her stay here.

The colleagues of Representative Burleson paid a handsome tribute to Mrs. Burleson yesterday afternoon by appearing in large numbers at the Playhouse to see the presentation of her bright little one-act play, which was directed by Mrs. Burleson.

"Want Beautiful Hair? Use This Shampoo" advertisement.

"Want Beautiful Hair? Use This Shampoo" advertisement.

"Want Beautiful Hair? Use This Shampoo" advertisement.

Important Clearance Sale of Electric Portables and Imported Silk Shades

BY FAR the richest collection of Electroliers and Silk Shades offered at clearance reduction prices. These elegant shades can be used on lamps or electric portables and are appropriate for rich interior furnishings of parlor or library. Many varieties of color effects are offered at these greatly reduced prices.

Table listing various electric shades and their prices, including Dresden China Electroliers, Dresden Electric Portables, Rich Imported Silk Shades, etc.

Dulin & Martin Co., Pottery, Porcelain, China, Glass Silver, &c. 1215 F Street and 1214-18 G Street

AMUSEMENTS

Advertisement for Nat M. Wills, featuring "FOR WASHINGTON ONLY" and "EVERYBODY".

Advertisement for Belasco, featuring "TO-NIGHT AT 8:20" and "The Bohemian Girl".

Advertisement for H. M. S. Pinafore, featuring "Next Week—Senta Nov" and "ABORN OPERA COMPANY'S".

Advertisement for Columbia, featuring "To-night at 8:15" and "GEO. EVANS HONEY BOY MINSTRELS".

Advertisement for Geo. Evans Honey Boy Minstrels, featuring "ALL NEW".

Advertisement for Nox McCain, featuring "TRAVEL LECTURES DE LUXE" and "ALL AMERICA".

Advertisement for Gayety Vanity Fair, featuring "PAT WHITE" and "WILTON ACKAYE".

Advertisement for Lyceum Matinee Daily, featuring "The Girls from Missouri".

Advertisement for Lyceum Matinee Daily, featuring "The Girls from Missouri".

Advertisement for Lyceum Matinee Daily, featuring "The Girls from Missouri".

Advertisement for Lyceum Matinee Daily, featuring "The Girls from Missouri".

Advertisement for Lyceum Matinee Daily, featuring "The Girls from Missouri".

Advertisement for Lyceum Matinee Daily, featuring "The Girls from Missouri".

Advertisement for Lyceum Matinee Daily, featuring "The Girls from Missouri".

Advertisement for Lyceum Matinee Daily, featuring "The Girls from Missouri".

Advertisement for Lyceum Matinee Daily, featuring "The Girls from Missouri".

Advertisement for Lyceum Matinee Daily, featuring "The Girls from Missouri".

POSTAL CLERKS' BANQUET.

Mr. Fulkerson, as Toastmaster, Keeps Things Moving Fast.

Washington Branch, No. 51, United National Association of Post-office Clerks, held its annual banquet last night with an attendance of more than 200, at the Hotel Continental. Selections were given by the City Post-office Orchestra, songs by Charles V. McIntosh, instrumental duet by Messrs. Furber-shaw and Low, and selections by the Temple Quartet.

George L. Taft, president of the association, made the address of welcome and introduced the toastmaster, Roe Fulkerson, who made a short address on "The relation of post-office and business world" before handing his usual line of hot ones to the speakers on the program.

Among the speakers were Charles P. Grandfield, First Assistant Postmaster General; Norman Allan Merritt, postmaster; Theodore L. Wood, Chief of Postal Savings System; John G. Koons, Chief of Division of Salaries and Allowances; Louis C. Robinson, acting assistant postmaster; William H. Haycock, superintendent of city delivery, and Henry L. Johnson, superintendent of Money Order Division.

The committee having the affair in charge was composed of F. R. Roberts, chairman; G. L. Brooks, D. H. Brown, J. William Murphy, P. E. Stewart, C. B. Matthews, E. E. Church, Frank Hyman, J. H. Simmon, R. Byron Bond, William Warren, William T. Sherwood, and M. W. Stevenson.

Officers of the association are George L. Taft, president; Charles McCarty, vice president; T. L. Yessy, secretary; Daniel L. Morgan, treasurer; William M. Wagner, financial secretary; Edward W. Turner, chairman membership committee, and James Gray, chairman finance committee.

"MONEY SYSTEM FALSE"

William F. Dell Gives Address on Solution of Trust.

William Frederick Dell, president of the American Monetary Association, spoke at the College of Political Science, George Washington University, last night on the subject of "Honest money, a solution of the trust, and the world peace problem."

Mr. Dell explained the relation of currency to the governments of the world, spoke of supply and demand, and characterized the American currency system as "a false money system." The lecture was illustrated with real money, a dollar bill and a bank note being raised to a blackboard.

AWAITS SHUSTER'S ARRIVAL.

Father, Recovering in Gerfeld Hospital, Will Be Happy Soon.

The condition of William M. Shuster, of 122 G street northwest, who was taken to Gerfeld Hospital Saturday night suffering from abdominal trouble, was reported last night by his physician, Dr. Thomas Charles Martin, to be slightly improved.

Mr. Shuster is impatient to get out of the hospital, as he had planned to go to New York to-morrow to meet his son, W. Morgan Shuster, former treasurer general of the Persian empire. Mr.

AWAITS SHUSTER'S ARRIVAL.

Shuster will arrive at New York to-morrow on the liner George Washington.

Dr. Martin is rather doubtful as to whether his patient will be in condition to make the trip. While not seriously ill, it is thought to be in the patient's best interests to remain at the hospital until he has fully recovered. It is not believed by Dr. Martin that an operation will be necessary.

Pastor to Address Camp.

Rev. Randolph H. McKim, pastor of the Church of the Epiphany, will give an address to-night before Camp III, at Confederate Memorial Hall. He will discuss the question of the number of troops in the Confederate army.

Advertisement for Senator Flour, featuring an illustration of a woman and the text "A Happy Bride Is She Who Uses Senator Flour".

Advertisement for Senator Flour, featuring the text "A Happy Bride Is She Who Uses Senator Flour" and "All Bakings".