NEVADA'S OLD SILVER KING STARTS LIFE ANEW AT 78 YEARS OF AGE.

Undaunted by His Loss of Wealth, the Venerable Statesman Has Undertaken to "Make Another Play" in the State That Has Given Him Several Fortunes and Many Political Honors.

The story of our country's history and future, as well as our present situation, is that of a man named Senator Stewart, who is now in his 78th year. He is a man of broad-minded ideas, a man of great influence, and a man who has been a leader in many fields. His life has been one of adventure, and he has always been a fighter for what he believed in.

His first fortune was made in the silver mines of Nevada, where he spent many years working. He was a master of the silver business, and his knowledge of the trade was second to none. He made a fortune in silver, and he used it wisely.

When he returned to Nevada, he was welcomed as a hero. He was a man of great influence, and he used his influence to benefit the people of his state. He was a man of great vision, and he dreamed of a great future for Nevada.

His second fortune was made in the silver mines of Montana. He was a man of great influence, and he used his influence to benefit the people of his state. He was a man of great vision, and he dreamed of a great future for Montana.

His third fortune was made in the silver mines of Nevada, where he spent many years working. He was a master of the silver business, and his knowledge of the trade was second to none. He made a fortune in silver, and he used it wisely.

When he returned to Nevada, he was welcomed as a hero. He was a man of great influence, and he used his influence to benefit the people of his state. He was a man of great vision, and he dreamed of a great future for Nevada.

His fourth fortune was made in the silver mines of Nevada, where he spent many years working. He was a master of the silver business, and his knowledge of the trade was second to none. He made a fortune in silver, and he used it wisely.

When he returned to Nevada, he was welcomed as a hero. He was a man of great influence, and he used his influence to benefit the people of his state. He was a man of great vision, and he dreamed of a great future for Nevada.

Senator Stewart has always been a fighter for what he believed in. He has always been a man of great influence, and he has always used his influence to benefit the people of his state. He is a man of great vision, and he has always dreamed of a great future for Nevada.

Marvelous Treasures of the Romanoffs. "M

The story of the Romanoffs is one of wealth and power. They have been a family of great influence, and they have used their influence to benefit the people of their country. They have been a family of great vision, and they have dreamed of a great future for their country.

The Romanoffs have been a family of great wealth, and they have used their wealth to benefit the people of their country. They have been a family of great power, and they have used their power to benefit the people of their country. They have been a family of great vision, and they have dreamed of a great future for their country.

The Romanoffs have been a family of great wealth, and they have used their wealth to benefit the people of their country. They have been a family of great power, and they have used their power to benefit the people of their country. They have been a family of great vision, and they have dreamed of a great future for their country.

The Romanoffs have been a family of great wealth, and they have used their wealth to benefit the people of their country. They have been a family of great power, and they have used their power to benefit the people of their country. They have been a family of great vision, and they have dreamed of a great future for their country.