EARLY MORNING FLIGHTS

Some officials of the Chicago Post-Express, have been refusing to deliver the morning papers for several weeks past. They have been using their own carriages and horse-drawn vehicles instead of the regular delivery trucks. The Chicago Police Department has ordered an investigation of the matter, and a fine of $5.00 will be imposed upon anyone who refuses to deliver the papers on time. The Post-Express company will appeal the order, but the Chicago Police Department will not be moved by any appeal.

NEW BALLOON RESCUE

St. Louis Aeronauts Will Probably Abandon Project.

The St. Louis Aeronauts, who have been preparing for a balloon flight, have decided not to proceed with their plans. The balloon is in a bad state of repair, and they have decided to abandon the project.

WOOL PRODUCTION

Weaver and Loom Manufacturers Have Been Experiencing Difficulties.

The wool industry has been suffering from a shortage of raw materials. The manufacturers have been forced to purchase wool at a higher price, which has caused an increase in the cost of production. The problem is expected to continue for some time, as the wool supply is not sufficient to meet the demands of the industry.

EARLY FLIGHTS RECALLED

John La Montagne Last Two Weeks Half-Century Ago.

John La Montagne, who made the first flight in America, has been recalled from the archives. He was the first to fly in America, and his flight has been an inspiration to many airmen. He is expected to make another flight in the near future.

WRIGHTS TAKE HONORS

Some New Thoughts and Ideas Are Presented by the Wrights.

The Wright brothers have presented some new thoughts and ideas in the field of aviation. They have introduced new methods of flying, and their ideas have been accepted by the public. They are expected to continue their work, and their ideas are likely to be adopted by other airmen.

BOYS AND GIRLS!

Your Last Chance to Compete in THE TRIBUNE'S PRIZE ESSAY CONTEST

Mr. Newman's farewell Travel Talk in the present series will be given at Carnegie Hall.

Next Sunday, Oct. 30, and the subject is INDIA

The World's Jewel Casket

Don't miss this opportunity of hearing about the barbaric condition that is revealed in India, and seeing truthful pictures of the magnificently carved palaces, monasteries and temples of the following barbarous nation.

TRAVEL TALK, N.Y. Tribune, N. Y. and Thursday evening. 200 seated seats for the Travel Talk will be sold at the box office or by writing to the TRAVEL TALK.