

Doctor's Revelations Of Defector Protested

A group of Washington area doctors today called for an investigation of a "possible breach of medical ethics" in connection with the revelations a psychiatrist made about a Government clerk who defected to Russia.

The petition, signed by 39 doctors, was mailed today to the Maryland Medical and Chirurgical Faculty and the American Medical Association. "We feel that the disclosure of the contents of interviews between Bernon F. Mitchell and a psychiatrist to the National Security Agency and the House Un-American Activities Committee was clearly not authorized by the patient," the doctors said.

This refers to information released about Mitchell by his psychiatrist, Dr. Clarence Schilt of 10620 Georgia avenue, Silver Spring.

Dr. Schilt told of Mitchell's sexual, religious and family problems to Government and congressional investigators. The doctor was not available for comment on the petition today.

Mitchell and his co-worker at the National Security Agency, William H. Martin, turned up in Moscow earlier this month. They were first reported missing from their jobs as code clerks last June.

Dr. Schilt said his disclosure of information did not violate the confidential nature of the doctor-patient relationship.

Asked by newsmen for comment on the doctors' petition, he said he agreed with their view of the sanctity of the doctor-patient relationship but felt Mitchell's defection constituted a criminal act.

In the petition the doctors say:

"We, the undersigned, residing in the State of Maryland and District of Columbia, believe that information given to a physician when in the doctor-patient relationship must be considered confidential and must not be disclosed except with the permission of the patient or under certain well-defined legal criminal circumstances."

The disclosures about Mitchell did not "fall under the criterion of legal criminal conduct," they stated.

In asking for an investigation, the doctors urged that "vigorous action be taken to define and protect the rights of the patient in these cases" if a breach of ethics is found.

Among the signers were Dr. Victor W. Sidel, 5523 Johnson avenue, Bethesda; Dr. Jacob R. Fishman, 4114 Wexford court, Kensington, and Dr. Eugene B. Figelson, 4909 Battery lane, Bethesda.

Last Hoxsey Cancer Clinic Stops Sales

By the Associated Press

The Government says that a Federal court order has eliminated "the last remaining major source of the worthless and discredited Hoxsey cancer treatment."

George P. Larrick, commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration, named the source as the Taylor Clinic at Dallas, Tex., operated by Dr. Harry R. Taylor.

Mr. Larrick noted that Dr. Taylor and two physicians on his staff have consented to a permanent injunction decree "which orders them to stop permanently the sale of medications comprising the Hoxsey cancer treatment."

In a separate and supplemental action, United States District Judge Joe E. Estes ordered Harry M. Hoxsey to cease participating directly or indirectly in sharing of profits of the Taylor clinic.

Mr. Larrick said Mr. Hoxsey through a lease arrangement with Dr. Taylor, had been receiving 50 per cent of the clinic profits since May 1, 1957. Before then the clinic was owned by Mr. Hoxsey and operated as the Hoxsey Cancer Clinic.

In a statement, Mr. Larrick yesterday said "thousands of cancer patients attracted by the lure of a painless cure came to the clinic from all parts of the United States and from other countries." He added:

"It is estimated that cancer patients have paid over $50 million for the worthless treatment since its inception. The injunctive decrees culminate 10 years of almost continuous litigation in the Food and Drug Administration's efforts to curb this worthless nostrum."

400 British Police Oust Two Embattled Tenants

LONDON, Sept. 22 (AP).—A task force of 400 policemen today evicted two embattled tenants from their municipally owned flats in tough St. Pancras Borough after a clash with angry crowds.

A dozen policemen and rioters were injured and 17 persons were arrested.

Stones and rotten eggs were thrown at the police. One man charged a mounted policeman with a bicycle raised above his head. The horse shied, throwing its rider, who was taken away in an ambulance.

Bailiffs who broke through the crowd of about 1,000 finally removed the tenants — Don Cook, 38, a former British Army paratrooper, and Arthur Rowe, 59, a waiter.

Mr. Cook and Mr. Rowe had been barricaded in their flats behind barbed wire entanglements since eviction notices for nonpayment of their rent fell due on August 28.

Aided by sympathetic fellow tenants, they had repeatedly repulsed bailiffs sent to remove them.

Mr. Cook and Mr. Rowe stopped paying rent as a protest against increases decreed by the Borough Council, which is controlled by Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservative Party.

The police operation today was planned with military precision. The constables arrived in trucks, buses, black maras and on foot.

Tenants, many of them in pajamas, poured out of the two apartment building and tried to form a barrier against police.

Four bailiffs fought their way to Mr. Cook's fourth floor flat, only to be met by swinging clubs and a shower of kerosene. With police assistance they fought their way inside the flat and brought Mr. Cook out. There were similar scenes at Mr. Rowe's flat.

Mr. Rowe's sympathizers booed and showered pennies down from the apartment windows, shouting at the police "Here, buy yourself some medals."

Stricken Diver Saved by Sub's Escape Hatch

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22 (AP).—The enterprising skipper of the submarine Redfish was credited today with saving a Marine demolition skindiver from an agonizing death from the bends.

Corpl. D. F. Merwing, 25, Ridgewood, N. J., arose to the surface too quickly from 60 feet after working under the USS Cook on maneuvers. Pressure at that depth forces nitrogen into the bloodstream; rising too fast causes the gas to gather in tissues.

Corpl. Merwing had convulsions, lost consciousness and had paralysis of one lung. The nearest decompression chamber was 200 miles away, at Hunters Point Shipyard south of here.

Lt. Comdr. C. H. Lowry, Jr., and the submarine Redfish answered a radio call for help. Corpl. Merwing was hustled into the sub's airlocked escape hatch and the vessel dived to 165 feet. As the sub cruised to San Francisco the pressure was gradually eased.

Navy doctors pronounced the Marine out of danger late last night, 17 hours after the unusual rescue effort began.

Truman's Man Is Rejected for Missouri Slate

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Sept. 22 (AP).—The Democratic State Committee has selected Lt. Gov. Edward V. Long as candidate for the unexpired term in the Senate, soundly drubbing a contender who bore the endorsement of former President Truman.

The committee yesterday gave Mr. Long 30 votes to 14 for Representative Charles H. Brown in choosing him as the candidate for the remainder of the term of Thomas C. Hennings who died last week.

Mr. Truman, himself, has been suggested as a possible candidate until he took himself out of the running with a strongly worded statement. Gov. James T. Blair also was considered a top contender until his surprise withdrawal.

The Republican State Committee meets today to select its candidate. Ex-Representative Dewey Short, Assistant Secretary of the Army, was reported a strong favorite.
