NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Mark of the Storm.
A SCHOONER WRECKED

Progress of Mexican Railways

A Fatal Land Slide.

The Effects of the Storm.
Dispatches from various parts of the country report the overflow of streams and damage to property. The railroads have suffered severely, and on some lines travel has been entirely stopped. Part of Allegheny City, Pa., has been flooded and much property destroyed. Traffic on the railroads centering at Pittsburg has been delayed. At noon there was 25 feet of water in the Ohio river at Pittsburg, with both rivers rising. In 1832 the water rose 35 feet, the highest on record. On the Allegheny river 7,000,000 feet of lumber have been swept away. The storm has done much damage along the Atlantic coast. A portion of the bluff in front of the Atlantic Hotel, at Long Branch, was broken by the force of the waves. A heavy rain prevailed along the Hudson. The Lackawanna river has overflowed its banks and flooded the lower portions of Scranton, Pa. The water is still rising. Reports from along the Susquehanna and Delaware rivers indicate high water.

Storm on the Coast.
At Long Branch the storm has been an unprecedented one for this time of the year, and has done much damage. The greatest damage is to the ocean pier, all of the spring piling being knocked out. The boats were to begin their summer trips on Sunday. It will take over a week to repair the damage. Until the piling is replaced no boat can land. The force of the wind was so great as to blow out the windows of the Central Hotel, which is half a mile from the shore. At Point Pleasant the beach is strewn with wrecked stuff and vegetables. Crates of tomatoes, potatoes and onions are dashing ashore, and it is feared that some vessel must have struck on the bar during the gale and gone to pieces.

A Minnesota Elevator Burned.
The elevator of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad Company at Faribault, Minnesota, was burned yesterday. It contained about 5,000 bushels of wheat, mostly owned by Pratt & Robinson, who hold an insurance of $15,000.

Insanity of a Clergyman.
The Rev. Mr. Patterson, for two years of the Universalist church at Dixfield, Maine, has been removed to the insane asylum at Augusta, in a hopeless state of insanity.

The Beer Brewers' Strike.
The striking beer brewers in New York are still holding out. Twenty-five non-union brewers obtained employment yesterday at different breweries, and a collision with the union men was averted by the presence of an escort. Some of the saloon keepers threaten to buy Milwaukee beer in preference to New York beer made at breweries employing non-union men.

A Fatal Land Slide.
A freight train on the Philadelphia and Erie railroad yesterday ran into a landslide between Lockhaven and Renovo, Pa., wrecking most of the train, killing one man and injuring several others.

Cooler Weather.
There was a decided lowering of the temperature yesterday throughout the country. At Frederick, Md., the mercury vibrated between 56 and 60 degrees.

Murder in Colorado.
At Soda Springs, five miles west of Leadville, Col., one Andrews, employed at the Soda Springs Hotel, was shot and fatally wounded by Otto Ballarux, the cause being a standing quarrel.

Another Land Leuger Arrested.
Mr. Joyce, secretary of the Kilmallock (county Limerick) branch of the land league, has been arrested under the coercion act.

Church Building in England.
In 37 years the Church of England has erected 2,581 churches, and expended on church buildings $200,000,000.

A Fatal Quarrel.
Councilman Pat. Hanlon, of Fremont, Cape Breton, was shot through the head by a stranger named Bradley, Thursday night, from the effects of which he died yesterday. In company with another man they were passing down the street, somewhat under the influence of liquor, when they quarreled and exchanged shots, with the result stated.

Those Fine Dress Suits
for gentlemen at Noah Walker & Co.'s, No. 625 Pennsylvania avenue, are perfect in fit, beautiful in style, finest in material, and in prices defy competition. The reputation of this house for elegant goods and moderate prices stands unchallenged.

Accidental Death of an Ex-Senator.
Ex-Senator A. R. Elwood, of New York state, was accidentally killed yesterday by falling down a stairway of the American Hotel at Richland Springs, N. Y.

An Unusual Doubt.
In a case of assault and battery in the Police Court to-day, the defendants, two colored women, mother and daughter, so closely resembled each other that doubt existed as to which was the mother and which the daughter, and led the judge to inquire for information on the subject.

Larceny of a Revolver.
Michael Whaler was sentenced to 90 days in jail for stealing a revolver from Benjamin Shanks.

VIEWS OF THE NEW YORK PRESS.

Great Moral Ideas.
The World opens a very laudable editorial under this heading thus: "Nothing worse has ever been charged by the democrats upon the republicans than is now charged at Albany by the republicans upon each other."

On One Hand.
Upon the one hand it is alleged under oath by a republican Assemblyman that a republican Senator paid him $3,000 to vote for a republican candidate for Senator of the United States.

On the Other Hand.
On the other hand it is denied under oath by the accused republican Senator that he paid the money. By necessary implication it is charged that the accusing republican Assemblyman committed perjury. It is also charged that the accusing republican Assemblyman conspired with the republican Speaker of the Assembly to accuse a republican Senator of having paid bribes in order to defeat the election of a republican candidate for the United States Senate.

One Charge Must be True.
Now, in so far as the political morality of the republican party of the State of New York is concerned, it does not in the least matter which of these stories is true. One of them must be true. That is to say, either Bradley or Sessions must have committed perjury.

No Escape.
There is no escape from that. Moreover, if Sessions is guilty of perjury he is also guilty of bribery and of conspiracy to bribe, since nobody imagines that it was his own money he gave to Bradley. If Bradley is guilty of perjury, the presumption is almost equally strong that he conspired with Speaker Sharpe to commit perjury in order to defeat the candidacy of Mr. Depew, and incidentally to ruin Sessions.

Bradley's Story.
If Bradley's story is established, the presumption that Mr. Depew himself was a party to Sessions' crime will become very strong, though not overwhelming. On the other hand, if Bradley's story is shown to be false, the presumption will be equally strong that persons much higher and more important in the republican party than Speaker Sharpe were engaged in the conspiracy to defeat Depew by suborning Bradley to swear falsely that money had been paid him to vote for Depew.

The Necessary Conclusion.
That is to say, it is almost certain that either a republican candidate for the United States Senate and a republican State Senator conspired to commit bribery, and that the republican State Senator perjured himself rather than confess the bribery; or that a republican candidate for United States Senator and the republican Speaker of the Assembly conspired to suborn a republican Assemblyman to commit perjury. As the latest development of a party of great moral ideas this display is equally edifying, whichever theory we adopt.

The Last Great Effort.
The Tribune says to-day: Now that the last great effort of Mr. Conkling and his friends to stampede the legislature into adjournment has been made and failed, there seems to be no good reason why the deadlock should continue any longer. Mr. Depew received several votes more than half the republican strength in the legislature—a sufficient answer to the charge made against him on Thursday, and an authoritative verdict from the highest court which has cognizance of the matter.

The Way Cleared.
If all the republicans who are independent of Mr. Conkling's dictation had voted yesterday for Mr. Depew, he would have been within two or three votes of election and it is unnecessary to say that when that point in the contest is reached, the ranks of Mr. Platt's supporters will instantly furnish the needed number. There is not the slightest shadow cast upon him by the Conkling-Bradley conspiracy, and every republican member who sincerely wishes to see senators elected this year has the way clear before him to help to accomplish this result.

The Chaste Coyote and Virtuous Crab.
The Friends of the Giraffe being out of Meat began Setting Traps; one of which they baited with a Coyote, the other with a Soft-Shelled Crab. One morning early in the Coyote, with a nervous bark, rose on his Hind Legs and said his Trap was Sprung; he had been Corruptly Approached. "Me Too," said the Soft-Shelled Crab. At which the Hippopotamus suddenly turned a Hand Spring, remarking: "Oh, This is a Circus!" and all the animals round the Giraffe were Visibly Affected.

Upon Investigation, however, it turned out that the Weasel, observing that the Coyote seemed to be in an uncomfortable Position, had merely remarked to him that he Looked Hungry, but had not Approached the Trap to relieve him; while the Soft-Shelled Crab had taken Alarm at a Remark of a Man by the Name of Edwards, who said he ought never to be Fied without first being Dipped in Batter. There was Nothing in either Trap.

There being no Further Use for the Coyote or the Crab, the Giraffe was asked how they should be Disposed of. Answered then the Giraffe in one of those Rhythmic Epigrams for which he is so Famous: "Let the Crab be devilled and the Coyote be—"

So the Coyote and the Crab, having had their Usefulness as Bait exhausted, together "passed in Music out of sight."

Moral.—After Bait has been Used Once, it is never Good for Anything Afterward—not even for Bait.—N. Y. Tribune.

A Doctor's Sudden Death.
Dr. Wm. M. Slown died very suddenly about 5 o'clock this morning at his residence, 2115 C street northwest. The coroner will probably examine the remains some time to-day.

Dynamite in Liverpool

Fenians in America.

Disturbances in Southern Russia.

The Land Bill Maintained.

Suppression of the Land League.

Opposition to Bismarck.

American Fenianism.
LONDON, June 11.—"The Times" correspondent at Liverpool says: "Circumstances point strongly to the belief that these plots are hatched in America, and carried out by Americans here. It is also believed that in some instances Fenian skirmishers from New York bring explosive material with them."

The Liverpool Plot.
LONDON, June 11.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Chester reports that the police have received a communication from the government stating that Fenians in America have detailed a number of men to destroy buildings in various cities of the United Kingdom, including Chester.

McKevett, one of the Liverpool dynamite plotters, is a native of Warren Point, county Down. He has been employed as a dock laborer in Liverpool since 1870. Roberts, his comrade, is a native of Glasgow, of Irish parentage.

The Land Bill.
LONDON, June 11.—In the House of Commons yesterday Mr. Gladstone, replying to Sir John Wilmot, conservative, said there was no foundation whatever for the statement that the government intended to abandon portions of the land bill.

Suppression of the Land League.
LONDON, June 11.—The Standard's Dublin correspondent telegraphs as follows: "Pressure is being brought to bear on the Irish executive to suppress the land league by an order in council. The question is being gravely considered, owing to representations made to the authorities by magistrates, county inspectors and others. I understand the law adviser and other crown lawyers think the league is clearly an illegal organization, but the attorney-general strenuously holds out against assuming the responsibility for its suppression."

In the German Reichstag.
LONDON, June 11.—The German Reichstag yesterday rejected, by a vote of 153 to 102, the credit demanded by Prince Bismarck for the establishment of an economic council.

Prince Milan.
LONDON, June 11.—Prince Milan, of Serbia, has started from Berlin for St. Petersburg.

Americans Going to the French Races.
PARIS, June 11.—Americans are crossing the Channel in great numbers to attend the race for the Grand Prix on Sunday.

A Race Between Hanlan and Wise.
TORONTO, June 11.—A race in lapstreak boats has been arranged between Wise of Riverside, and Edward Hanlan. The race is for $1,000 a side, and is to come off in six weeks from date on the Toronto Bay. The course will be five miles in length, with a turn. A deposit of $500 a side has been made.

A Cyclone in Kansas.
A storm, accompanied by rain and hail, struck the Solomon Valley on Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. At Beloit a great deal of window-glass was broken, but the fury of the cyclone was greatest at Solomon City, where nearly all the glass was broken from the north windows and a number of houses destroyed, but no lives were lost. Four miles northwest Dennis Morgan and his sister were instantly killed and their house totally destroyed. At Bennington, on the valley road, twelve miles northwest of Solomon City, a farmer named Frothingham, his wife and hired hand were killed, and the house completely demolished. In the same vicinity three stone farm houses were blown down, but the inmates were in the cellars and escaped without serious injuries. A large number of houses and barns along the valley between Solomon City and Minneapolis, a distance of twenty miles or more, were blown down, but no further loss of life has yet been reported. Hailstones came down very thickly. Some of them were larger than walnuts, and contained the damage to window-glass is considerable. With the small end downward, and at times as it moved onward the heavy top would career over towards the east and large jets would shoot out in various directions. The display lasted about twenty minutes and the duration of the storm was about one hour. The damage to houses and crops is heavy.

Driving Violations.
Henton Denton was fined $3 in the Police Court to-day for letting a hack stand on E street northwest, near Thirteenth, in violation of the driving regulations, and Washington Young was fined for driving over the Anacostia bridge at a gait faster than a walk.

The Fasting Griscorn.
At 9 o'clock last night no change was noticeable in the condition of Griscorn, the fasting man, at Chicago. His nervous strength was still beyond the registering scale of the dynamometer.
