

FROM THE SMOKY CITY.

McKinley Will Win in a Walk—Politics—Doings and Progress of the Race.

Pittsburg, Pa., Special—Doubtless your many readers would like to know how the Afro-Americans are getting along in the "Smoky City." First, we have four physicians, Dr. Turfley, a native and graduate of Cleveland, Ohio; Medicine College; Dr. Clinton, of Chester, S. C., a graduate of Shaw, Raleigh, N. C., Dr. J. B. Sheppard, of Howard Medical School and Dr. J. N. Brown of Winchester, Va., whose alma mater is Howard. We have one drug store owned by Jennings and Brown. It is beyond a doubt one of the best drug stores in our city, and the proprietors are seeking for larger quarters.

DR. J. B. SHEPPARD,
Of Howard Medical School.

We have four Undertaking establishments, Mr. Robert Jackson owns three with headquarters in Chicago, Ill., the fourth is owned and conducted by Mr. Daniel Edwards. There are three contractors, Messrs. Isaac Bryant, Jacob Captain and George Holmes. Three lawyers, Messrs. J. W. Holmes, A. C. Randolph and Bryan. Two printers, Messrs. J. B. E. Tyler, foreman for Messrs. Perley Bros., one of the largest job offices in the city. Mr. Tyler runs seven cylinder presses also has six composers under him. N. J. Miles has a job office of his own on Wyle avenue. We have one newspaper here, The Plowhead, it is just a few weeks old and bids fair to live along and prosperous life. Messrs. John A. Brown, Geo. Nelson and — Barnes, late of Washington, D. C., have three of the finest restaurants and bars in this city. All of these gentlemen are from Washington.

Well, Mr. Editor, Allegheny county will give the largest republican majority that was ever polled next month. Col. M. S. Quay, Governor Stone and Attorney-General Elkins are arousing a great deal of enthusiasm in this state and the "insurgents" will be buried beyond resurrection.

The silver tongued orator, statesman and scholar, Hon. John Dalzell is making the welkin ring in West Virginia while we are getting ready to send him back to Congress with the largest majority he has ever had. Just let our "Honest John" go all over the country and work for McKinley and Prosperity and when the general roll is called on November 6th next, Allegheny county will be there for John Dalzell and the whole republican ticket to the tune of 60,000 majority.

George H. Proctor is with the boys working for Billy McKinley and Prosperity. SHOOTING STICK.
