

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

"JOHNNY" dolls are the latest fad to be brought back by Americans returning from abroad. Miss Betty Allen, New York actress, says her doll is the only stage-door John she approves.

—P. & A. Photos.

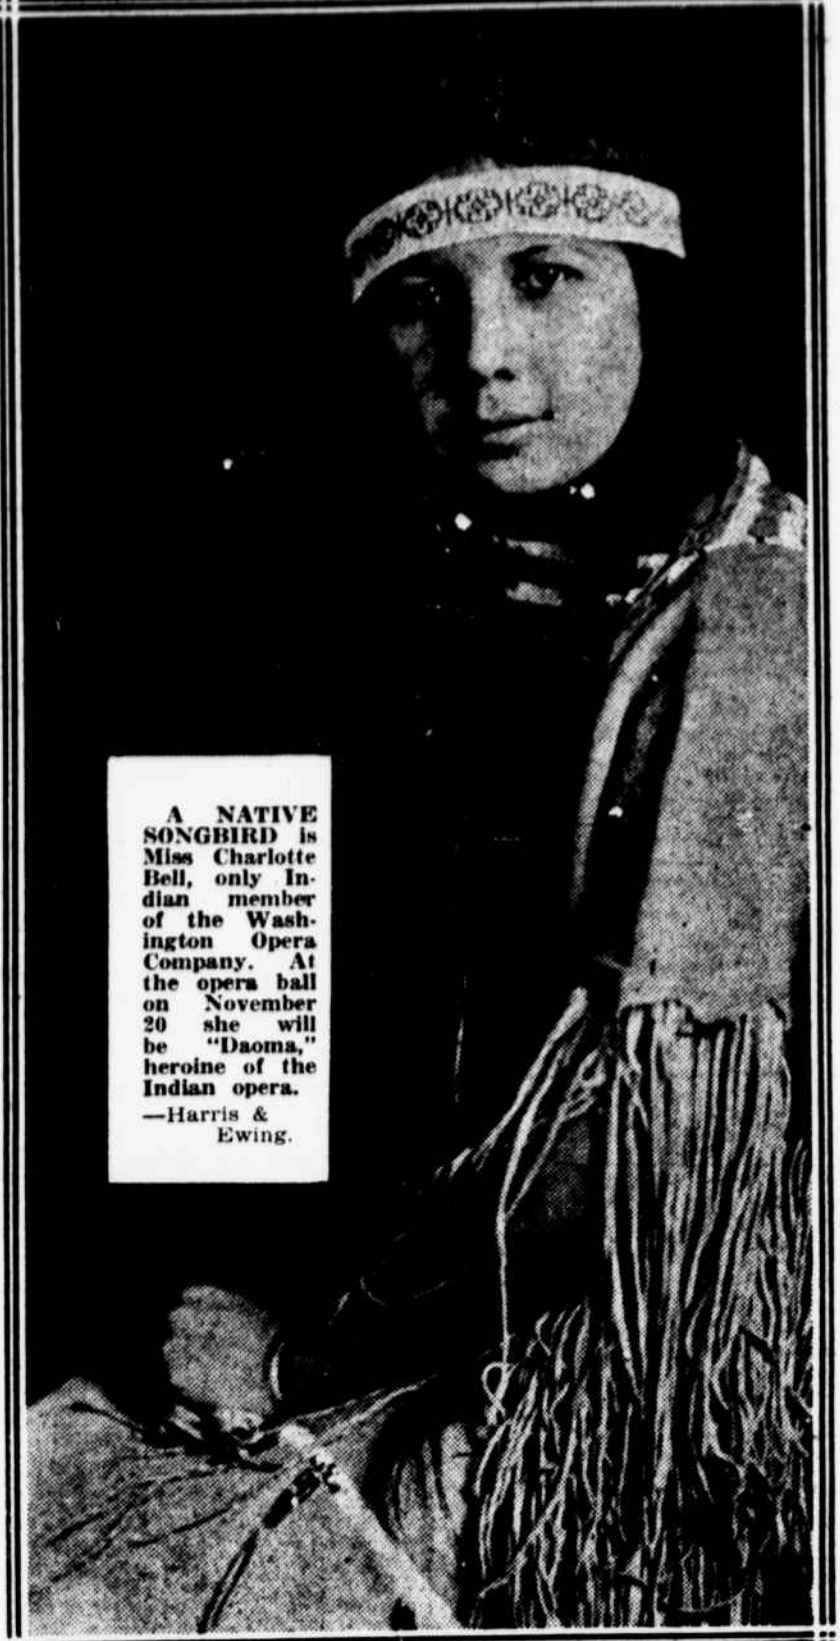

HER BLINDNESS NO HANDICAP. Thirteen-year-old Jeanette Mason of New York is the proud possessor of the gold medal awarded by Fire Commissioner Drennan for the best essay on fire prevention. The little girl won first place over thousands of more fortunate youngsters competing for the coveted prize.

—International.

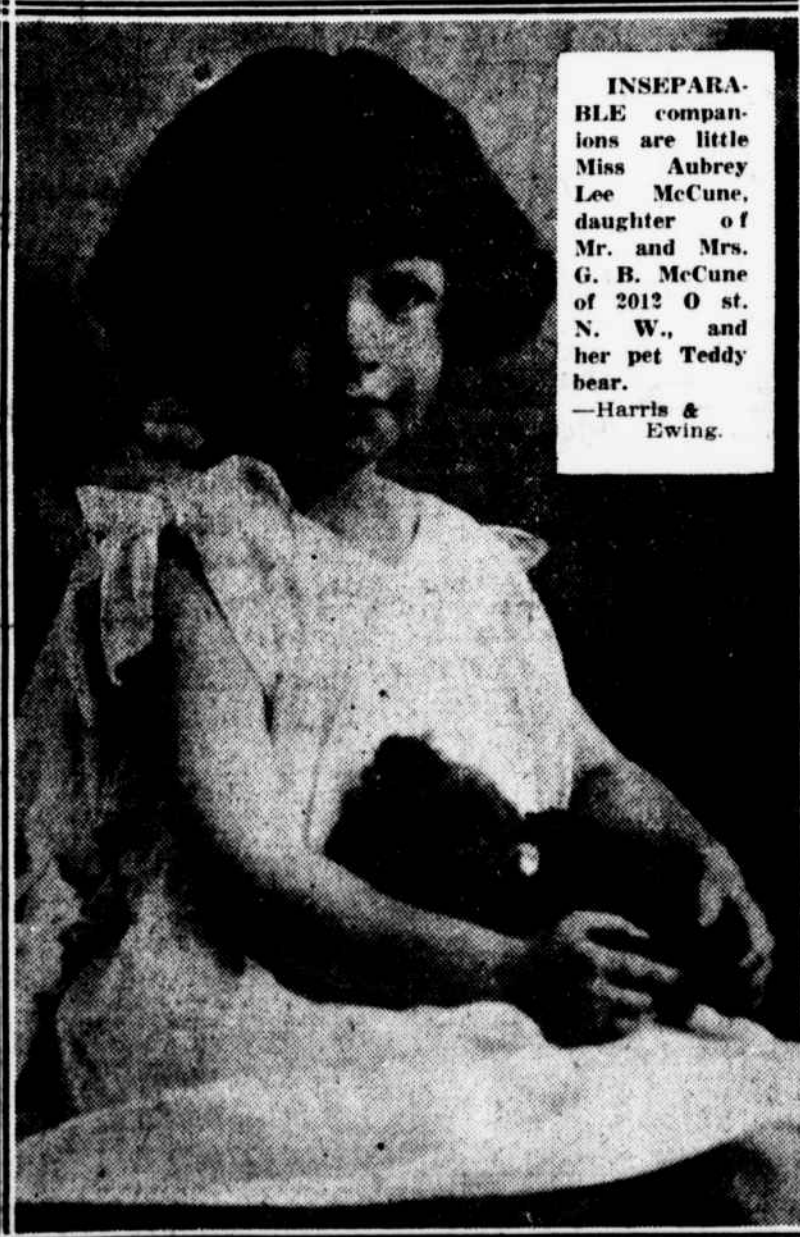

COUSIN WARREN guides the destinies of the nation in Washington and Cousin Willie the fortunes of a mop on the deck of the battleship Oklahoma, now at anchor in Los Angeles harbor. William H. Harding, age nineteen, said to be a cousin of President Harding, is a "gob" in the service of Uncle Sam.

—International.

A NATIVE SONGBIRD is Miss Charlotte Bell, only Indian member of the Washington Opera Company. At the opera ball on November 20 she will be "Daoma," heroine of the Indian opera.

—Harris & Ewing.

INSEPARABLE companions are little Miss Aubrey Lee McCune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. McCune of 2012 O st. N. W., and her pet Teddy bear.

—Harris & Ewing.

A TRUE SPORTSMAN is "Master Ben," a black and tan English setter owned by W. Frank Burrows of Washington and champion of the National Capital Field Trial Association meet held this week. The dog is four years old.

—Times Staff Photo.

KING OF THE TANBARK is gallant old "Silver Crest," winner in the jumping class at the National Horse Show in New York this week. The gray horse was ridden by Miss Becky Lanier, a famous juvenile rider.

—International.

SMOKES FOR WOMEN have involved Andrew Follock, proprietor of a newsstand at the Grace Dodge Hotel, in a row with the U. S. C. A. authorities, who are attempting to oust him for selling cigarettes to guests.

—Underwood & Underwood.

SUCCESS AND HAPPINESS have followed the fortunes of blind Charles Mathis despite his misfortune. Blind since three years of age Mathis has become a composer of note and court pianist to Queen Marie of Rumania.

—International.

ATLANTIC TO THE PACIFIC in fifteen hours is the record made by Miss Elsie M. Griesser, first woman to paddle a canoe through the Panama Canal. The canoeist is shown passing through the Culebra Cut.

—International.

WORTH HIS WEIGHT in German money is "Tiger," purchased by Mayor William Reynolds of Long Beach, N. Y., in Berlin for two million marks. The mayor intends to enroll the dog in the Long Beach police service.

—International.