

an excitement. "Oh, no," said I. "Because you have a right to be excited, a certain day to do all this..."

and when he was asked to shut the theatre he replied: "If I shut it I must shut the German theatre..."

President Robert A. Stone, though only twenty-one years of age, was elected to the Chicago, voting for Blaine first, last and all the time.

Campaign Meeting in Trenton. The Republican Campaign Committee met in Trenton, N. J., on Monday evening last.

Gaiety at Saratoga Springs. Saratoga Springs, July 1.—A Congress of the Saratoga Springs Amateurs in Opera...

Table with 3 columns: Total City, County Expenses, Department of Charities, Total County, Grand total.

THE REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN.

Twelfth Ward Republicans in Line. A banner raised and stirring speeches made at a meeting of the Twelfth Ward Republicans...

HE GOT THE GERMAN VOTE.

Did you get the German vote at the last election? I was asked by a friend who has been thinking of it...

WHICH THE DEMOCRATS SHOULD NOMINATE.

I read to Mr. Harrison: "Whom we Democrats should nominate for Governor of New York..."

EX-GOVERNOR STONE ON THE OUTLOOK.

Ex-Governor Stone, who was the war Governor of New York, was the National Republican Headquarters...

BLAINE POPULAR IN ILLINOIS.

Blaine popular in Illinois. An enthusiastic following for him in the great body of the people...

A RALLY IN FLUSHING.

A large and enthusiastic rally for Blaine and Logan was held in the rooms of the Republican Club of the town of Flushing, L. I., last evening...

ORGANIZING IN BROOKLYN.

The Ninth Ward Blaine and Logan Campaign Club in Brooklyn was organized last evening at a meeting of the Republican Association...

PLUMED KNIGHTS IN BERGEN COUNTY.

The Republicans of New-Bridge, which is the western end of Englewood, Bergen County, N. J., organized on Monday morning...

SPLENDID PROSPECTS IN NEW-YORK STATE.

Aspen Birdsell, of Newburgh, N. Y., who was called to the National Republican Headquarters yesterday, said to a Tribune reporter...

A CLUB OF YOUNG VOTERS.

Binghamton, July 1.—There was effected this evening the permanent organization of a Republican club in Binghamton, known as the Young Voters...

DECLINING TO BE AN ELECTOR AT-LARGE.

Albany, July 1.—The Evening Journal says it understood that the Rev. William B. Derrick, colored, of New York, had formerly of Albany, had declined to be an elector at-large on the Republican ticket...

THE RAILROAD INTERESTS.

The elevated railway agreement. Why General Barlow's conduct was certain. General Francis C. Barlow, on whose account the meetings of the elevated railway companies are to have been adjourned on Monday...

VISITORS AT NEWPORT.

Newport, R. I., July 1.—The month of June departed in a demoralized and disagreeable way, which was not appreciated by anybody...

THE FRESH-AIR WORK.

To the Editor of the Tribune. Sir: The accompanying package we send to you with our very best wishes for a successful summer's work and pleasant one for the poor...

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

Previously acknowledged: $4,007 24. Mr. Nicholas P. Bates, Longwood, N. Y., 50 00. Mr. Robert J. Bates, Huntington, N. Y., 50 00.

MISCELLANEOUS RAILROAD INTELLIGENCE.

Pittsburg, July 1.—Persons owning Allegany, Pa., 7-10 first mortgage bonds, on presenting their coupons at the Iron City National Bank today, were informed that they would have to wait two or three weeks for their money...

THE FIRE RECORD.

Flames among candies. A fire broke out last evening at 9:30 o'clock in the candy and confectionery store of E. Greenfield's, No. 44 Barclay-st., originated on the floor...

OIL FIRE IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Emporium, Penn., July 1.—Early this morning some freight was being loaded on a number of the cars at the Emporium. The catch fire broke out in the building as occupied by the firm...

GIVING JAY-VEE A CHANCE TO RACE.

Cleveland, July 1.—To-day the Cleveland Driving Park issued an offer which is designed to put an end to the talk about the merits of Jay-Ee-See and...

DR. ATKINSON'S BIG BILL.

While President Blaine, of Venezuela, was appearing in this city recently, a lady of the name of Mrs. W. J. Gordon, of New York, was willing to start his horse...

FREE THE REAL SECRET OF THE BOLL.

George William Curtis to J. A. Kitzmiller. The Independent's New York Herald editor, George William Curtis, has written to J. A. Kitzmiller...

BROOKLYN'S EXPENSES FOR NEXT YEAR.

The budget of Brooklyn expenses for 1885 has been made up by the Board of Estimate. The following is a summary compared with that of last year:

DID WHITE WRIP KEENAN?

A long and minute account of an alleged fight between Frank White and "Jack" Keenan, two well-known light-weight pugilists, appeared in yesterday's issue of the Tribune...

EDWARD WILLIS.

Edward Willis, of this city, died, after a four-month illness, at the house of his son-in-law, No. 29 West Fifty-fifth-st., yesterday. He was born in this city in 1812 and at an early age entered the hardware business...

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Washington, July 1.—For New-England, partly cloudy weather and local rains, followed by clearing weather, southwest to north-west winds, stationary temperature.

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

Table with 3 columns: Hour, Morning, Night, Bar. Shows temperature and barometric readings for various hours.

THE BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR.

Table with 2 columns: Item, 1884, 1885. Lists various city expenses and their projected changes for the next year.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Washington, July 1.—For New-England, partly cloudy weather and local rains, followed by clearing weather, southwest to north-west winds, stationary temperature.

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

Table with 3 columns: Hour, Morning, Night, Bar. Shows temperature and barometric readings for various hours.

THE BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR.

Table with 2 columns: Item, 1884, 1885. Lists various city expenses and their projected changes for the next year.

DID WHITE WRIP KEENAN?

A long and minute account of an alleged fight between Frank White and "Jack" Keenan, two well-known light-weight pugilists, appeared in yesterday's issue of the Tribune...

EDWARD WILLIS.

Edward Willis, of this city, died, after a four-month illness, at the house of his son-in-law, No. 29 West Fifty-fifth-st., yesterday. He was born in this city in 1812 and at an early age entered the hardware business...

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Washington, July 1.—For New-England, partly cloudy weather and local rains, followed by clearing weather, southwest to north-west winds, stationary temperature.

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

Table with 3 columns: Hour, Morning, Night, Bar. Shows temperature and barometric readings for various hours.

THE BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR.

Table with 2 columns: Item, 1884, 1885. Lists various city expenses and their projected changes for the next year.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Washington, July 1.—For New-England, partly cloudy weather and local rains, followed by clearing weather, southwest to north-west winds, stationary temperature.

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

Table with 3 columns: Hour, Morning, Night, Bar. Shows temperature and barometric readings for various hours.

THE BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR.

Table with 2 columns: Item, 1884, 1885. Lists various city expenses and their projected changes for the next year.

DID WHITE WRIP KEENAN?

A long and minute account of an alleged fight between Frank White and "Jack" Keenan, two well-known light-weight pugilists, appeared in yesterday's issue of the Tribune...

EDWARD WILLIS.

Edward Willis, of this city, died, after a four-month illness, at the house of his son-in-law, No. 29 West Fifty-fifth-st., yesterday. He was born in this city in 1812 and at an early age entered the hardware business...

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Washington, July 1.—For New-England, partly cloudy weather and local rains, followed by clearing weather, southwest to north-west winds, stationary temperature.

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

Table with 3 columns: Hour, Morning, Night, Bar. Shows temperature and barometric readings for various hours.

THE BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR.

Table with 2 columns: Item, 1884, 1885. Lists various city expenses and their projected changes for the next year.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Washington, July 1.—For New-England, partly cloudy weather and local rains, followed by clearing weather, southwest to north-west winds, stationary temperature.

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

Table with 3 columns: Hour, Morning, Night, Bar. Shows temperature and barometric readings for various hours.

THE BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR.

Table with 2 columns: Item, 1884, 1885. Lists various city expenses and their projected changes for the next year.

DID WHITE WRIP KEENAN?

A long and minute account of an alleged fight between Frank White and "Jack" Keenan, two well-known light-weight pugilists, appeared in yesterday's issue of the Tribune...

EDWARD WILLIS.

Edward Willis, of this city, died, after a four-month illness, at the house of his son-in-law, No. 29 West Fifty-fifth-st., yesterday. He was born in this city in 1812 and at an early age entered the hardware business...

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Washington, July 1.—For New-England, partly cloudy weather and local rains, followed by clearing weather, southwest to north-west winds, stationary temperature.

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

Table with 3 columns: Hour, Morning, Night, Bar. Shows temperature and barometric readings for various hours.

THE BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR.

Table with 2 columns: Item, 1884, 1885. Lists various city expenses and their projected changes for the next year.