THE LIBERAL CAUSE IN MINNESOTA.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

ST. PAUL, July 13.—Three hundred and forty Republicans of Minneapolis have signed and published a call for a meeting on Wednesday next to form a Greeley club. This list embraces many leading Republicans—among them Joel Bassett, Anton Grethen, Hugh W. Green, G. W. Stickney, partner of N. W. D. Washburn, one of the Washburn family; Daniel Bassett, Judge Henning and J. G. O. Morrison, United States Deputy Collector. Besides these, there are many others of high standing and influence. The friends of Greeley and Brown are much elated over this important move in what has been the stronghold of Grantism.

GRANT'S MONEY CAMPAIGN.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 13.—Private information of a reliable character, is received here, that Grant's money campaign is to be partly made on the following basis: The public depositories are to be increased, and large balances are to be left with them, to be treated as money in the Federal Treasury: rates of interest from two and a half to four per cent to be paid by banks, to be determined by the local rate and demand. The interest so paid is to make good the moneys abstracted from the Federal Treasury for political purposes, and is to be returned in January next. The whole amount to be thus used for political purposes is expected to realize, in interest, over $1,500,000, and is to be used in North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana.

A number of our citizens have gone to Decatur, where a monster mass meeting of Liberals and Democrats is being held to-day. Senator Trumbull, and son, and James C. Robinson, are the principal speakers.

THE FEELING IN COLES COUNTY, ILL.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

MATTOON, Ill., July 13.—A grand Greeley and Brown ratification meeting was held here last night. Able speeches were made by Hon. W. E. Nelson, Dr. Riverson, Hon. George R. Wendling, and Hon. A. J. Hunter. The meeting was very enthusiastic. A good account will be heard from Cole's County on the 4th of November.

GENERAL HURLBUT AT ROCKFORD, ILL.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

ROCKFORD, Ill., July 13.—General S. A. Hurlbut spoke in Court House Square to-night. The feature of his speech was the declaration that his present mission in Rockford was to endeavor to call back disaffected Republicans and close up the ranks for Grant.

LIBERAL CONVENTION IN KANE COUNTY, ILL.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

AURORA, Ill., July 13.—The Liberal Republicans and Democrats of Kane County held a Convention at Geneva to-day, and appointed double sets of delegates—each delegate to cast half a vote—to the Congressional District Convention in Elgin on July 19.

LIBERAL MASS MEETING AT PAXTON, ILL.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

PAXTON, Ill., July 13.—The Liberals held a large and enthusiastic mass meeting at the Court House, this afternoon, which was addressed by Hon. Eric Johnson, of Galva, and Hon. A. W. Cavan, of Woodford County. The Convention elected delegates to the Liberal Congressional Convention which meets at Gilman, July 25, and also appointed a County Central Committee, and is now prepared for a thorough canvass. The prospects are good for a Liberal Senator and two Representatives from the Eighteenth Senatorial District.

GREELEY MEETING AT JACKSONVILLE.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., July 13.—A Greeley and Brown ratification meeting was held on the public square, in this city, to-night, and was addressed by the Hon. James M. Epler, Hon. William H. Barnes, and others, of Jacksonville, and Mr. Hinckley, of Adams. Rev. Mr. Clayton, a Liberal Republican, presided, and George W. Clark, Democrat, was Secretary.

A GERMAN CONVERT TO LIBERALISM.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DUBUQUE, July 13.—The Iowa Staats Zeitung, the Radical Republican German paper in this city, came out, to-day, with the Greeley-Brown ticket at the mast-head, advocating, in a long and able editorial, their claims to the suffrages of its readers.

GRATZ BROWN'S ILLNESS—SENATOR STOCKTON FOR GREELEY.

NEW YORK, July 13.—This morning Mr. Greeley was the guest of Assemblyman Niles, at Williamsbridge, Westchester County, at whose mansion he had a hearty reception from personal friends and supporters.

The sudden and alarming illness of Governor B. Gratz Brown, has so far yielded to prompt remedies that he was able, this morning, to walk to the house of his friend, Dr. Steele, in Great Jones street. The trouble seems to have been an attack of cholera morbus, largely superinduced by heat and breakfast on soft-shell crabs. Dr. Steel states that in the present condition of Governor Brown he would discourage any such exertion as would necessarily result from receiving the nominating Committee just now.

The members of the Democratic Committee, with the exception of Hon. J. R. Doolittle, are among those who went to Chappaqua. Mr. Doolittle took the southward train.

Senator Bayard, of Delaware, and Senator Stockton, of New Jersey, make their appearance in print to-day as Greeley converts. Senator Bayard gives his adhesion in an eloquent letter of some length, and Senator Stockton made an animated speech at Weldon, N. C., yesterday, a report of which is telegraphed here. He said he had always been a Democrat, and never scratched a Democratic ticket. He could hardly say when he had been converted, but believed it was on the cars the previous night. At the Baltimore Convention he had voted against Horace Greeley, and had written to his constituents, saying that Captains should not be the first to desert; but that the high court of appeal of the Democratic party had spoken, and was to be obeyed. It was not to be disguised that the South nominated Greeley. The Democratic Senators had told him Greeley was the right man to nominate, and they were right. The North had made nominations twice; the South had made this. He and his friends had taken back seats, and believed the South had done wisely and well, and he was prepared to go in now and work his best for the election of their candidate. [Applause.] He had not objected to Mr. Greeley for any personal reason. He believed he would certainly be elected. It was the wisdom of Providence which had inspired that unanimous nomination, and dispelled all the mists of prejudice of his and other minds. The Divine arm still guided us, and would lead us through paths of peace to the restoration of the Constitution. [Applause.]

The Evening Express says it has the authority of Mr. Greeley to assert that the story to the effect that Horace Greeley and Horatio Seymour, some time past, made a bargain whereby Governor Seymour was to support Greeley for the Presidency, and to use his influence to get Greeley nominated for the Presidency by the Democrats, is a deliberately coined lie, made out of whole cloth, and that it is equally false that any Democrat, in high place, or out of place, has ever hinted a word of expectation to Mr. Greeley, as to public office.

Deacon Richard Smith, of the Cincinnati Gazette, makes his appearance as the great American card writer in the Post to-night, to say that the report that he is not truly loyal to Grant "has not the shadow or out of it, in fact, the use that has been made of this report," says the modest Deacon, "shows that the Greeley people attach some importance to my position. As for Greeley, I regard him as the weakest candidate the opposition could have nominated. He will not, in my opinion, poll as many votes as a straight Democrat. The so-called Liberal Republicans, who adhere to Greeley, are, for the most part, corruptionists or disappointed office-seekers, who have been a load on the party. I regard Ohio and Indiana safe for Grant." As Deacon Smith complains that injustice has been done him in three despatches, please give him the benefit of his diffident correction.

A GALA DAY AT GREELEY'S HOME.

CHAPPAQUA, N. Y., July 13.—The assemblage of Democratic Committeemen and others on the farm of Horace Greeley, today, was a most social gathering or picnic. The various delegates went over his farm in the morning, and viewed all the peculiarities.

A bountiful dinner was served at 1 o'clock, after which Mr. Greeley addressed a meeting consisting of about 500 people. He said it was a social gathering, having no other purpose than congregating for pleasure. There were friends from home, from far and near, and he wished they would frequently visit him at his home.

Ex-Senator Givin made a short speech, in which he eulogized the future President, and strongly advocated a close and everlasting alliance between the Democrats and Liberal Republicans as the only means of salvation for the country.

Judge Reagan, of Texas, was the next speaker. He dwelt at length on the honesty of Mr. Greeley, and, in bitter language, denounced Grant, whom he characterized as useless, dishonest, and corrupt, and called on every man, from Maine to Texas, to rally round Mr. Greeley, who was honest, straightforward, and more than competent to govern this great country.

Three cheers were then given for Horace Greeley, the Democracy, and Liberal Republicans. Neither Mr. Doolittle nor Mr. Schell were present. The affair, from beginning to end, was exceedingly quiet. Not one-half of the members of the Baltimore Committee were present. Several prominent New Yorkers attended, with a good many Southern Democrats, who were warm in their expressions as to supporting Greeley in the coming campaign, and in promising large majorities in the Southern States.

PURCHASE OF DATA FROM THE REBEL ARCHIVES.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—It is stated that the Treasury Department on yesterday paid to Colonel John T. Pickett, formerly of the Confederate Army, $75,000 for data for the rebel archives which he held in his possession as attorney for certain parties in Canada. It is also further stated that this large sum was paid by the special order of Secretary Boutwell, who, in conjunction with other members of the Administration, is of the opinion that besides the primary effect of protecting the Treasury from the claims of bogus Southern Union men, they can also be used for political effect in the South during the pending campaign and in the interest of General Grant. These archives, or Department files, have a somewhat singular history. When the military operations in front of Richmond assumed that threatening character which finally ended in the evacuation of the city, these archives were sent to North Carolina for safe-keeping. There they fell into the hands of some irresponsible parties, who, amidst the consternation attending the downfall of the Confederacy, escaped with them to Canada, where they have been kept, and used for various speculative purposes until the present time. Whatever these papers may contain relative to Greeley's peace negotiations, and which have not yet been published, will now be doled out through the various Grant organs of the country, and whatever effect they may also have in intimidating prominent men in the South will also be fully tried.

THE DETROIT FREE PRESS FOR GREELEY AND BROWN.

DETROIT, July 13.—The Free Press, of Sunday morning, will contain the valedictory of its late political editor, and the announcement of a change in the partnership. It also pledges itself to the support of the Baltimore nominations in the following language:

"Henceforward the Free Press, in the campaign now opened, will be found, as it has been found in all previous campaigns, rendering whole hearted and faithful service in the cause of conservative principles and the Democratic faith. These principles and this faith, embodied in the platform of the Convention at Baltimore, and fitly declared therein to be essential to just government, carried into the administration of the Government, will rescue the country from Republicanism and Grantism, and bring back once more an era of honesty, economy, and Conservatism in public affairs. To this end we shall appeal to the Democracy and the people to elect the candidates whom the Liberal Republicans and the Democracy have placed before them, and thereby to put an end in this country to Radicalism, centralization, personal government, and corruption.

GRAND LIBERAL RALLY AT FORT SCOTT, KAN.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., July 13.—The Liberal Republicans of this place met to-night to ratify the nomination of the Cincinnati Convention. All parties admit that it is one of the largest and most enthusiastic political meetings ever held in the State. S. A. Manlove, a life-long Republican and a member of the Republican State Central Committee, presided over the meeting. The speakers' stand was placed in the arc of a street crossing, and was beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns. The meeting was conducted by Liberal Republicans, though the Democrats have turned out en masse, and are equally enthusiastic. There is more of a stampede going on in Kansas from the Republican party than any other State in the Union. They became satisfied that the party cannot purify itself, and they are going to join their forces with the Democrats, and forever shake off such barnacles as Subsidy Pomeroy, Sid. Clarke and Caldwell. There is no doubt that Southern Kansas will go for Greeley and Brown by a large majority. If the northern part of the State does half so well, Grant will be beaten by ten thousand majority. The people of Kansas have not forgotten the time when to read the New York Tribune was punishable with death, and all this talk about rebel and traitor don't affect them in the least. They read and think for themselves.

NATIONAL LIBERAL COMMITTEE.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The National Liberal Committee met yesterday and elected Ethan Allen permanent Chairman, who thereupon delivered an address. The following Executive Committee was appointed by the Chair: Charles G. Davis, of Massachusetts; J. P. Happ, of Vermont; S. A. Pierce, South Carolina; S. G. Burbridge, of Kentucky; H. C. Warmoth, of Louisana; M. C. Church, of West Virginia; George W. Anderson, of Maryland; James M. Scoville, of New Jersey. Ethan Allen was made Chairman of the Executive Committee, and D. R. Goodloe, W. C. and Jasper W. Johnson, Oregon, appointed Secretaries. A resolution was passed recommending a union of the Liberals with the Democrats in selecting candidates for State and Congressional officers. Carl Schurz and Governor Brown were present.

SUMNER ON GREELEY.

ST. LOUIS, July 13.—The Times to-morrow will publish the following letter from Chas. Sumner, addressed to L. U. Reavis, of this city:

"I think that, on reflection, you will not think it advisable for me to write a public letter on matters to which you call attention. Mr. Greeley and myself have been fellow laborers in many things; we were born in the same year. I honor him much. Between him and another person, who shall be nameless, I am for him earnestly."

WANTED TO SEE HORACE.

LONG BRANCH, July 13.—A great crowd assembled at one of the hotels this evening, expecting to see Horace Greeley. August Belmont, Daniel Drew, Judge Fitch, and George Frances Train were in waiting to see Mr. Greeley, but were disappointed, he having postponed his visit until next week.

WILSON AT GRANT'S COTTAGE.

LONG BRANCH, July 13.—Senators Henry Wilson and Morton arrived here this morning, as guests of Grant. Senator Wilson leaves to-night for North Carolina to participate in the State canvass. The President will leave for Washington Monday night.

MISCELLANEOUS.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 13.—The Journal of this morning publishes a letter from W. C. Depauw, in which he declines to accept the nomination for Lieutenant Governor on the Democratic ticket.

NASHVILLE, July 13.—The Liberal Republican and Democratic State Committees call a mass ratification meeting in this city on July 16. Indications are favorable to a joint Liberal Republican and Democratic electoral ticket for Tennessee, similar to that of Illinois.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Bourbon Democrats in Oregon propose to send delegates to the Louisville Convention.

The Daily News, an ultra secession Democratic paper at Los Angelos, repudiates the Baltimore nominations.

Telegraphic Brevities.

Ex-Governor Stanley, of California, died on Friday evening.

—A child answering the description of Freddie Lieb, who was stolen from Quincy, Ill., more than a year ago, has been seen with a travelling musician at Columbia, Pa.

—Lineban Pickle, a farmer residing near Yankton, Dakota, was burned to death on July 4, while intoxicated.

—J. K. and R. E. Graves, of Dubuque, have purchased a controlling interest in the First National Bank of McGregor.

—A gang of burglars, on Friday morning, went to the residence of Mr. Hayward, the Cashier of the Blackstone National Bank, at Uxbridge, Mass., and gagged the whole family. They then compelled the Bank Teller to go with them to the bank, where they obtained between $13,000 and $14,000.

—At Rochester, N. Y., on Friday, W. Elbert McLaughlin, in a state of delirium, shot and killed his step-mother, at the house of his father, a notorious place, known as the "Old Break o' Day House." The young apprentice in J. W. I. Brown's gas-fitting establishment. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict of willful murder.

The Man who Stopped His Paper.

From the Philadelphia Post.

Some of the Grant organs are distressed about the pecuniary loss of the Tribune since the nomination of Mr. Greeley, and are printing letters from disgusted people to show "how deeply the Tribune's subscribers are offended by his dishonesty, and how they propose to make their indignation felt." One of these letters is from a "prominent banker in Illinois," who thus relieves his excited mind:

"I never expected to see a man claiming to be an American, to say nothing about an honest man, attain to a lower level than Benedict Arnold, but such is the case with Greeley. Were he to withdraw to morrow, and advocate the election of Grant and Wilson up to election day, I would not, nor never will, take his paper."

This fearful threat reminds us of a story about Mr. Swain, years ago, when he was the proprietor of the Ledger. By his course in regard to some public matter he had offended a number of readers, one of whom met him on Chestnut street, and thus accosted him:

"Mr. Swain, I've stopped the Ledger."

"What is that, sir?"

"I've stopped the Ledger," was the stern reply."

"Great heavens!" said Mr. Swain, "my dear sir, that won't do. Come with me to the office. This must be looked into." And, taking the man with him, he entered the office at Third and Chestnut streets. There they found the clerks busy at their desks; then they ascended to the editorial rooms and composing rooms, where all was as usual; finally they descended to the press rooms, where the engineers were at work.

"I thought you told me you had stopped the Ledger," said Mr Swain.

"So I have," said the offended subscriber.

"I don't see the stoppage. The Ledger seems to be going on."

"Oh! I mean I say—that is, that I—ah—had stopped taking it."

"Is that all!" exclaimed Mr. Swain, "Why, my dear sir, you don't know how you alarmed me. As for your individual subscription I care very little. Good day, sir, and never make such rash assertions again."

The ridiculous position in which this man found himself is unconsciously assumed by such persons as the "prominent Illinois banker," who evidently imagines his threat will convulse the Tribune office with terror. But his subscriptions will not be missed. When the Post, because of its convictions of right and duty, declared Mr. Greeley its choice for the Presidency, a large loss of subscribers was predicted. The actual loss was, on the contrary, very small, while our circulation has been rapid and steady in every direction. Fortunately no one is compelled to take a paper he does not want, and that fact should set at rest the hearts of these greatly excited individuals.

FOREIGN.

EGYPT.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, July 13.—A disgraceful affray occurred here yesterday, between United States Consul General Butler and Wadleigh, his Secretary, on the one part, and Generals Loring and Reynolds and Major Campbell, ex-Confederate officers, in the Khedive's service, on the other part. Shots were exchanged, and Major Campbell was wounded. The affair created great excitement. There are various accounts of its origin. Butler's plea in justification of the imbroglio is that the Khedive's officers made a premeditated attempt to assassinate him. This the others indignantly deny, and assert that Butler was the aggressor.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, July 13.—Storms throughout England, yesterday, were very destructive in the middle and southern counties. In many places the young crops were prostrated and destroyed. Several people were killed by lightning.

The Echo, this afternoon, publishes a private letter, said to have been written by a person high in authority at the Vatican, stating that the Pope, on the 1st of November last (All Saints' Day), bestowed Cardinal's hats on the Archbishop of London, Archbishop of Paris, and Most Rev. Martin John Spalding, now deceased, who was then Archbishop of Baltimore.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—George W. Fitzroy and Victor B. Cropley, have been appointed Assistant Assessors for the First Missouri District.

Congress, at its last session, appropriated $250 000 to buy certain private property for the extension of the Capitol grounds; but the total valuation of the grounds and houses is stated by the appraisers to be $650,000.

FIRES.

At the Northern Indiana State Prison.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., July 13.—The west shop, two hundred feet by forty, in the Northern Indiana Prison, has just burned. The fire is supposed to have originated from sparks from a chimney lodging in the gutter and communicating with the roof. This was the largest shop of the prison, working one hundred men, and its loss will seriously impair the prosperity of the prison. The contractors occupying the building, Messrs. Ford, Johnson & Co., will lose from $30,000 to $35,000. Loss to the State about $12 000. The State has no insurance. Ford, Johnson & Co. are insured for $17,000. The Warden has called a meeting of the Board of Directors for Monday to take steps for rebuilding at once. None of the prisoners escaped, the people giving every assistance possible.

Disastrous Conflagration at Alpena, Mich.

DETROIT, July 13.—Last night's fire at Alpena was one of the most disastrous which ever visited a small town in the State. Being entirely a lumber manufacturing place, the buildings were naturally all frame, and, although the town possesses a steam fire engine, all efforts to stay the progress of the flames were unavailing until they had swept away three and a half blocks of the main business portion of the town. The most lamentable part of the disaster is the loss of life. Mrs. Westbrook, keeping a millinery store, perished in the street in front of her store, and could not be rescued. Nothing but her bones were found. George, her son, in endeavoring to save her, was so badly burned that he died to-day. The remains of two others, supposed to be man were found in the ruins to-day. A sailor named Kelly, and G. R. Westby, engineer at Barlow's mill, were badly injured. Doubts are entertained of Westby's recovery. The losses, so far as computed, foot up $180,000. Insurance about $70,000. Alpena contains over twenty mills, which are the main stay of the place. None of them were burned.

DETROIT, July 13.—A disastrous fire occurred at Alpena, Mich., last night. The following were among those burned: The Sherman House, Burrell House, Union Hotel, Huron House, Eagle Hotel, Goodrich's jewelry store, Dow & Goodnow's general store; Potter Bro., hardware; C. C. Whitney, drugs; A. Auspach, dry goods; A. L. Power & Co., groceries; Aber's furniture store; County Clerk's office; Albert Pack's residence and office, and several boarding houses and residences.

History of a Forgery at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, July 13.—Alexander H. Weir, who, in April last, presented at the Third National Bank of this city a forged check on the Chatham National Bank of New York for $2,260, and got it cashed, and who was arrested in Buffalo, a few day ago, arrived here, to-day, in custody of a detective. Young Weir, who is a son of Rev. Silas Weir, city missionary of New Brunswick, N. J., came here last March, and ingratiated himself into the confidence of one or two of our prominent clergymen and several influential citizens, who showed him considerable attention. He professed to be very pious, became a Sunday School teacher, and, apparently, took a deep interest in religious matters. Shortly afterwards he took a position as reporter on the Evening Journal of Commerce, because known among his acquaintance as an unusually exemplary young man. Facts have been developed, however, which show that he came here predetermined to accomplish this forgery, and a letter from his father to the officers of the Third National Bank says: This is not the first time he has been guilty of crime. He is liberally educated, and has been ordained as a minister. He is now in jail and, no doubt, will be convicted on his trial, as the proof against him is positive.

A Cincinnati Alderman on the Rampage.

CINCINNATI, July 13.—Josiah L. Keck, President of the Board of Aldermen, and Mr. Nevins, reporter of the Enquirer, had an encounter with fists and canes on Fourth and Vine streets to-day. Keck took offence at an article written by Nevins concerning him, which appeared in the Enquirer last Sunday morning. Meeting Nevins on the street, this afternoon, Keck took hold of his coat collar, and asked him if he wrote the article. Nevins said "Yes." An officer discovered a revolver in Nevins' right hand, and took it away from him, when Keck struck Nevins in the face. A friend of Nevins then struck Keck with a cane. Keck turned on him, got the cane, and struck a blow with it at Nevins. Two police officers, who stood by all this time, now took the parties to the station-house. This occurred in the most public place of the most public street in the city.

War Department Weather Prognostics.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Falling barometer, fresh to brisk easterly to southerly winds, increasing cloudiness, and, probably, rain will prevail on Sunday over the Northwest and extend eastward to Michigan and Indiana; clear and partly cloudy weather and easterly to southerly winds for New England and the Middle States and Ohio; easterly winds and partly cloudy weather and fears of rain, from the South Atlantic coast and Florida and Kentucky; westerly winds and pleasant weather west of Alabama.

Brutal Murder at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 13.—Last evening, while a party of boys were bathing in the river below the foot of Beal street, a private watchman named Sturgeon, employed on some flat-boats near by, went out on a roof, armed with a musket, followed by his wife, also armed with a navy revolver, and, after threatening the boys for bathing there, Sturgeon took deliberate aim at one of the boys, named Johnny Murphy, who was in the water, and fired three slugs, striking him in the head and killing him instantly. Immediately after shooting, Sturgeon jumped into a skiff and made his escape. His wife was arrested and lodged in the station house. They recently came here from St. Louis, and are represented as bad characters. Murphy was an

THE INDIAN DOCTOR

From Sorrow to Sunshine.

How rejoiced must that individual be who has been weighed down by disease of a malignant character, to find him who lifts the burden from the soul and places it upon the rock of health. About four weeks ago Mrs. Clara Milton came from her distant home in Kansas to this city, for the purpose of having a cancer removed from her breast. How solicitous must the friends of this poor woman seem as she bid them good-bye upon the day of her departure, to seek relief in a large city and among strangers. Upon her arrival here, she sought out and visited many of the principal physicians, all of which pronounced her case a hopeless one, save what respite she might gain by the use of the knife, in palliating the disease for a time. Almost the last latent spark of hope had expired in her bosom, when what should be placed in her hand but the little sheet called the "Reformatory Medical Adviser!" published by the Indian Doctor. As she perused its columns with a beating heart and excited mind, she learned that cancer could be cured, and that without the knife; she called at the Institute, and consulted in regard to her ease; she was reassured of a perfect cure. After undergoing a painless treatment of four weeks, she sought her home in peace, health, and happiness, leaving every vestige of the ugly cancer standing upon the shelf of the Doctor's studio, preserved so that all those who are similarly afflicted may have proof beyond controversy, that they may have hope, and that hope founded will not be blasted.

Another case in point falls to our lot for record: Miss Mary Semor, an only and beloved daughter, in the last stages of consumption, came from Erie, Pa., under the care of her aged father and mother; after staying less than eight weeks, she was restored to comparative health, and at present lives at 96 Mulligan-st., in this city, bidding fair to many years of life in which to bless the declining years of her aged parents.

Mrs. Sarah James, formerly a teacher in the State Normal School of Illinois, cured of scrofulous sores on arms and limbs; Joseph French, a prominent merchant of Milwaukee, Wis., cured of asthma. David Tolls, cured of inflammatory rheumatism, LaSalle, Ill. Smith Day, of Kalamazoo, Mich., cured of deafness in twenty-four hours' time. We might thus go on indefinitely enumerating cases of seeming miraculous cures, but we are fully satisfied that Dr. Fritz is doing a great and good work with his new treatment,—roots, herbs and barks,—as thousands are being cured by him.

Dr. Fritz can be consulted daily at his office, 158 South Halsted-st., from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 4 and 8 to 9 p. m.

FLOUR.

ATTRITION! ATTRITION!

The new method of reducing wheat to flour without heating, whereby all the essential properties of the grain is retained intact in the flour, making it a superior article for food, particularly for dyspeptics, persons of weak digestion, children, in fact, for all for it is NATURE'S PRODUCT, supplying NATURE'S DEMANDS more perfectly than any other food now known. While it combines every good quality of "Graham flour," "cracked, crushed, or prepared wheat," it is entirely free from the objectionable qualities pertaining to each of them. It is the "PEOPLE'S FRIEND." It strengthens the muscle of the working man. It renews the exhausted mental forces of the man who labors with his brains. It furnishes proper material for the growth of the bones and tissues in children.

These are facts, and commend themselves to the careful attention and consideration of all.
