NATIONAL REPUBLICAN.

WARLIKE WIT.

Most of the secessionists say there isn't any U. S. Government. Those of them in Fort Lafayette think there is.

From Prentice.

A correspondent says that the editor of the Yeoman "scouts truth and patriotism." Yes, that editor goes upon such scouting expeditions frequently.

It seems absurd to swear a bitter secessionist not to be guilty of disloyalty. You might as well swear a mad dog not to bite.

He who heads an army for the invasion of his own State, should be beheaded.

From Vanity Fair.

Not impossible.—Another fort taken may be the Macon of us.

Good for the Western crops.—The fall of Rains in Missouri.

The real version of L. L. D. Russell's letters.—Perversion.

Hint for Magoffin.—The best expounders of peace doctrines for Kentucky—Gen. Grant's x pounders.

A prolific matron.—For the Union, Virginia claims to be the mother of Presidents. For disunion, V. F. is willing to admit that she is the mother of precedents.

Mem. for military men.—Why should the watering places furnish the most men for the army?—Because every one goes there to recruit.

English cotton paradox.—As the rebellion in America has stopped the cotton supply, how are the riots in India to raise it?

Sew-sew.—The Federal skir-machine—excellent for preliminary basting.

Don't drop the H.—The right to hang Northerners and burn negroes is claimed by the rebels, and in consideration of this fact it seems to us, that a certain standard motto or watchword which the assassinating crew have adopted ought to be varied so as to read:

Strike for your Halters and your Fires.

A Bit of Romance—A Female Disguised as a Soldier.

An apparently youthful soldier stopped at the Susquehanna hotel on Saturday evening last, to await the departure of the train for Harrisburg. He was not there long, however, before it was whispered among some of the knowing ones that the soldier was a female, which fact was revealed by a fellow passenger from Washington. Finding that he was suspected, and fearing that he might be subjected to great inconvenience from it, he had just concluded to make known to the marshal of police that he was a female, when a policeman appeared, and taking him into custody, conducted him to the Middle District station house, where the charge of being a woman was preferred against him. * * * *

The subject of this investigation, whose name is concealed for prudential reasons, is a rather good looking young lady, about nineteen years of age, near five feet in height, of good form, with dark eyes, and auburn hair. When first suspected and arrested she told several different stories, but finding it useless to conceal anything further, the following true statement of her case is given: In April last, her husband enlisted as a private in a three months' Pennsylvania regiment, of which she gives the number, now attached to Gen. Banks's column, without the knowledge or consent of his wife; finding his whereabouts she also enlisted at Harrisburg and was passed by the examining surgeon in that place. She was attached to the same regiment in which her husband was, and as the colonel of the regiment was aware of her sex, she was engaged in the capacity of messenger to that officer; she was in the battle of Manassas, and is considerably deafened in consequence of a cannon ball passing near her head; after three months' service, she was mustered out and re-enlisted for three years, with her husband.

Her first enlistment was on the 3d of May, and consequently she has been in service five months, three weeks of which were spent in Camp Curtin, near Harrisburg. Her sex was known to the following persons in the regiment: the colonel, lieutenant-colonel, surgeon, and assistant surgeon, and her husband. She says that her husband has treated her rather badly recently, and it was for this reason that she determined to return home, which was her destination when she was stopped here. To see her as she now is, enjoying the hospitality of Mr Vorshell, one would scarcely believe that such a delicate creature could have withstood for the same length of time the fatigues of a camp life, as she has. She says that until Saturday night, she had not slept upon a bed for five months. To say the least, she has braved a great deal of hardships.—Maryland News Sheet, 7th.

DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION,

Weakness or Debility, Flatulency and Nausea, Loss of Appetite, Nervousness, Liver Complaints, Bilious Fevers, and all Diseases of the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels.

AS A PREVENTIVE FOR FEVER AND AGUE, THESE BITTERS ARE NOT EQUALLED.

W. F. & A. W. GREELEY, Proprietors, Boston.

THE OBJECT of all medicine is either to prevent disease, or to assist Nature in restoring the various organs of the body to a healthful action, and that medicine is certainly the best which will perform those offices thoroughly, yet mildly, and without endangering the vital forces of the system, by whose normal condition alone health and strength can be preserved. Most of the Bitters that have heretofore been brought into popular favor, have only served the purpose of temporarily stimulating or exciting the organs into a condition resembling healthful action, without any remedial effect, and generally followed by a return of the disease, or a prostration of a nervous energy more disastrous than though Nature had been left to take its own course.

Dr. Greeley's Bitters are a preparation of the nutritive properties of the grain of the fields in combination with the active principle of many simple alteratives and bitter tonics, and it is a pleasure to the proprietors to state that its usefulness is being generally acknowledged by the largely-increasing consumption in those sections where it is best known, and by the testimony of many eminent physicians, who have not only made trial of it, but continually prescribe the Bitters in those cases for which it is recommended.

AGED PEOPLE, AND ALL WEAKLY PERSONS.

Consumptive patients, and others, whose constitutions have become impaired by time, or enfeebled by disease, and in whom the process of digestion does not replace the fat and tissues of the body as fast as they waste, will find these Bitters at once nourishing and strengthening, and happily adapted for their use. The great advantage the Bitters possess over ordinary stimulants usually prescribed in treating lung complaints and kindred diseases, is the fact that they combine many safe and certain healing properties in connection with the best known stimulant.

DELICATE LADIES

Will derive great benefit from it. No unpleasant effect will ever result from taking the Bitters, if the directions are followed. For those who suffer from nervous debility, languor, want of rest, exhaustion, and in all cases of weakness, the Bitters are not equalled.

As an agreeable stomachic, it is much admired; it sharpens the appetite, brightens the intellect, and infuses new life and vigor. No one who uses these Bitters can be subject to an attack of FEVER and AGUE, or DIARRHŒA.

Of all the ills that afflict men and women, few are so agonizing as Dyspepsia. It is a sort of combination of many diseases. Thanks to science and Dr. Greeley, a specific has now been obtained. Greeley's Bourbon Bitters take straight hold of the disease, and begin a cure. Thousands of well-attested cases of cures of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and Fever and Ague, even of the most desperate kind, are in the possession of the proprietors.

Not a few people, everywhere, complain of Weakness or Debility. This is the gentle hint of nature for a little help in the way of invigoration. The hint should not be neglected. "A stitch in time saves nine." Get a supply of Greeley's Bourbon Bitters, take them regularly, and our word for it you will feel better, live longer, be stronger, and think and act with very much more satisfaction. The Bitters are a tonic, and of a nature never before attained in any medicine. It will make the weak strong, the desponding hopeful, the sick well. For any complaint of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels, there is nothing
