

ARCHBALD TRIAL TO BE POSTPONED UNTIL LATE FALL

Senate Expected to Consent to Delay on Meeting Tomorrow.

That the impeachment trial of Judge Archbald will be postponed by the Senate when it meets again tomorrow is generally believed. It is not a certainty, because of the strenuous opposition of the House managers and some of the Democratic leaders.

HOLES IN CHEESE INCREASE VALUE

Polka Dot Effect In Swiss Delicacy Is Explained By Wilson's Experts In Gentle Art of Tracing Mysteries.

Another of the eternal mysteries is now being trailed to its lair. Another immortal problem, baffling to many generations of gastronomists and epicureans, will soon be trapped, caged, and conquered by the laboratory experts who sail under the flag of "Tama Jim" Wilson.

chemist their formation is a fascinating subject. In certain districts the dealers rely almost entirely upon the "eye" feature, and, shortly after they have reached proper development, relieve the maker of further care of the cheese.

WOMEN TEACHERS WILL BE URGED TO AID WILSON'S FUND

School Marms and Masters Are to Be Asked to Contribute to Campaign.

Charles A. Douglas and Dr. Clarence J. Owens, president and secretary of the Wilson and Marshall Democratic Association of the District of Columbia, returned to the city today from New York, where they consulted with William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee, on plans for raising subscriptions to the Democratic election fund among the school teachers of the country.
