DAYTON'S LAST.—The atmosphere of Washington seems congenial to humor. Dayton, the popular baker, whose Boston crackers and milk, lemon, and wine biscuit are scarcely more crisp and fragrant than his jests, is continually hammering away on that remarkably tough theme, "hard tack." Somebody asked him the other day if he would not exercise his poetical talent now and then in writing jolly songs for the soldiers? "Certainly," said the incorrigible humorist, "and in view of the eagerness which the gallant fellows manifest for good cakes and biscuit, my first lyric shall be to the tune of "Tell me, where is Fancy Bread?"

A WORD OF ADVICE.—Those who have been doctoring for weeks and months without obtaining relief, should consult Dr. Fishblatt, whose office is at No. 421 E street, corner of Eighth street, and be radically cured. Twenty-five years experience has established Dr. Fishblatt's reputation as a physician. Recent cases cured in a few days. Charges moderate. DR. FISHBLATT,

ATTENTION, AFFLICTED!—Dr. Veliny is yet engaged in an extensive practice in this city, and we would call the attention of the poor, puny, emaciated victims of their own sins to the best sources of remedy. First, give up your present course of life at once and forever; and secondly, call on the most skilful physician, (and none are better than Dr. Veliny,) and be cured of the disease which is now undermining your constitutions and sending you to a premature grave.

CLARA SIDNAL AT WIELARD'S HALL.—To-night, this celebrated elocutionist will deliver her readings and recitations from the popular poets; and inasmuch as she does not press herself upon the public, but has been induced by the literati of this city, New York and Philadelphia, to give two readings in each of those cities, she should receive the support which is due her.
On Friday evening, by request, she will lecture on London.

GROVER'S THEATRE.—Joint Benefit of Misses Ada Parker and Emily Mestayer.—This evening is devoted to comedy, and the fact of its being but the second and positively the last comedy night of the engagement, will secure a very large attendance. Add to this the fact that the occasion is the benefit of the two favorite ladies of the combination, Misses Parker and Mestayer, and there should be an overflowing and fashionable house. The performance is "Still Waters Run Deep," and "My Aunt."

CANTERBURY.—A performance of great beauty and attraction will take place to-night at this celebrated music hall. The three fair stars, Misses Mortimer, De Faiber and Pennoyer, will appear in several new acts, and the superb "Arab Lay" will also be reproduced. The grand ballet entitled La Maja de Sevilla," in which Mons. Szollosy and the young ladies comprising the Court of Beauty appear, and the great trick pantomime, "The Golden Axe," will constitute interesting features of the entertainment.

VARIETIES.—The first of the month this standard music hall opens with grand attractions. The managers announce a bill of entertainment comprising a multiplicity of attractions. Signor Watkinsky and his learned cats in a most amusing feline concert, for to-night only. A world of merriment will be afforded by this last new humorous and singular novelty. All the company appear to-night.

BUREAU OF ORDNANCE.
NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Washington City, March 2, 1863.
This Bureau is desirous of ascertaining whether rifled cannon can be made of wrought iron of sufficient and uniform endurance and economy to warrant their being preferred to guns of cast iron only, or of cast iron strengthened with wrought iron.
Proposals will therefore be received from any manufacturers of forged iron, to furnish a finished gun or a block of metal from which the same may be finished.
The said gun, when finished, to weigh about 10,000 pounds, to be made into a gun throwing a projectile of 100 pounds, as used in cast iron rifled cannon of like weight; to be fired 1000 times, with service charges of the same weight and kind of powder as used in the Parrott 100-pounder, viz: 10 pounds of No. 7, without bursting or wearing in such a manner as to cause apprehensions of bursting.
The quality of metal, price, and other terms, are to be stated clearly in the proposal forwarded.
The Bureau reserves the right to itself of accepting or rejecting any of the proposals.
The time for receiving the proposals is limited to thirty days from date; and proposals will only be received from persons actually engaged in the fabrication of wrought iron.

LONGWORTH'S CATAWBA WINES.
SPARKLING AND STILL.
FRED. S. COZZENS,
Sole Agent,
Washington, D. C., and 73 Warren street, New York.
THESE WINES, independent of their excellent qualities as Table Wines, are also highly recommended for medicinal use. They are entirely pure, wholesome, and at the same time economical.
Among the numerous recommendations received from members of the Faculty, the following letters may be cited.
SANITARY COMMISSION,
Washington, D. C., April 2, 1862.
F. S. COZZENS, Esq.,
SIR: With some difficulty I have got from hospital surgeons sufficient data wherewith to found an estimate of the value of the "Still Catawba" wine of Mr. Longworth as an article of hospital stores.
It seems to be especially valuable as a tonic and stimulant in the stage of convalescence from acute disease. It is generally acceptable to the stomach, and its acidulous quality renders it grateful to the palate.
* * * * *
The "Sparkling Catawba" shares with other true sparkling wines the characteristic of agreeing well with the stomach.
Yours truly
J. FOSTER JENKINS.
CINCINNATI, December 17, 1861.
DEAR SIR: In answer to your note, I will say I very much prefer the Catawba wine to any other alcoholic stimulant in Typhoid fever. The acid is very acceptable to fever patients. I always dilute it with water; two or three parts of water to one of wine, and add white sugar to the taste of the patient. I have used it in many cases of consumption, and have generally found less emaciation than usual, and less disposition to diarrhœa in the last stages of the disease.
Yours respectfully,
J. F. POTTER.

PROPOSALS FOR DESIGNS, MODELS, AND PRINTING OF TREASURY NOTES.
TREASURY DEPARTMENT, March 23, 1863.
PROPOSALS are hereby invited for Designs for Treasury Notes to be issued under the act approved March 3, 1863.
Proposals will be received for the denominations of 10's, 20's, 50's, 100's, 500's, 1,000's, and 5,000's, the right being reserved by the Secretary of the Treasury to omit any of the denominations from the accepted offers, or to substitute the designs of one denomination for those of another, or to use them interchangeably, or to alter their legends.
The designs must be national in their character, and preference will be given, under equal circumstances, to such as have not been used, in whole or in part, upon any currency, bond, certificate, or other representative of value, and completed bills must all be of the uniform size of seven inches by three inches.
Proposals must be for both the obverse and reverse of the notes. The obverse must prominently present the words "TREASURY NOTE," with the following or similar legend: "Two years after date the United States will pay to bearer fifty dollars, with interest at five per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually," as follows:
On the first day of October, 1863, one dollar and fifty cents.
On the first day of April, 1864, one dollar and fifty cents.
On the first day of October, 1864, one dollar and fifty cents.
On the first day of April, 1865, one dollar and fifty cents.
The sums denoting the accrued and accruing interest must be placed near the centre of the width of the note and about two inches from its right-hand end.
Space must be allowed for the seal and for the signatures of the Treasurer and Register.
On the reverse there must be two tablets, to contain the following legends, or such others of about the same number of words as may be substituted by the Secretary:
1st. "This note will be exchanged by the Treasurer or any Assistant Treasurer or any specially designated depositary of the United States for United States notes equal in amount to its face value and interest to last date of interest payment;" or, "This note is a legal tender to the same extent as United States notes for its face value, without interest."
2d. "Every person making or engraving, or aiding to make or engrave, or passing or attempting to pass any imitation or alteration of this note; and every person having in possession a plate or impression made in imitation of it, or any paper upon which the whole or any part of the note is printed, is guilty of felony, and subject to fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding fifteen years at hard labor, or both."
Proposals will be received until the 15th day of April, 1863, and must in all cases be accompanied by models or illustrative drawings.
Proposals may be made for designs alone, or for completed dies, or for the entire work of engraving and printing. If the proposals are for the entire work the price must be separately stated for furnishing the dies, for making the plates, (including all cost for re-entering,) for printing per 1,000 impressions of four notes each, and for paper per 1,000 impressions, and a sample of the paper proposed to be used, with the name of the maker thereof, must accompany the proposals. Proposals must also state the length of time required after acceptance of a bid before deliveries will commence, and thereafter the number of thousand impressions that will be delivered daily.
If the proposals are for the entire work they must also state at which of the following post offices the impressions will be delivered, properly packed for transmission, free of any charge for package or delivery, viz: at St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago, Buffalo, New York, or Boston.
The Secretary reserves the right to accept designs only and cause the engraving to be done by other parties than those making the proposal, or to accept designs and dies and cause the transferring and printing to be done by others, or to reject a part or all of any proposal, as may be for the interest of the Government.
In all cases of accepted bids the designs and dies, together with all rolls, bed-pieces, plates, or other copies thereof must be the sole and exclusive property of the United States. Those rejected will be returned to the respective bidders.
In the selection of designs special attention will be given to security against counterfeiting and alterations.

The following interesting letter was received from the well-known and highly respectable lady and nurse of New York city, Miss SOPHRONIA BOWERS, who has been acting in that capacity for over thirty years. Her long experience should entitle her letter to consideration from every mother and every female contemplating marriage. Mrs. BOWERS is well known to many of the oldest, wealthiest and most respectable families in New York, and evidence like the following cannot be regarded otherwise than satisfactory:
FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL,
NEW YORK, February 22, 1863.
DR. DRAKE—Dear Sir: Your truly delicious and valuable Plantation Bitters were first brought to my notice by an old negro woman, (cook in the house where I was nursing at the time,) who had escaped from one of the large plantations of the South during the present unhappy war, and who, in her own peculiar way, told such wonderful stories of their strengthening powers; how her old "missus" used them, &c., that I was induced to give them a trial, and I must say, with the most gratifying results.
For the last twelvemonth I have nursed no less than nine ladies through confinement (two of them having twins.) In every case I have used your Bitters, and they have not failed, in a single instance, to produce the desired effect. They seem to strengthen and build up the most delicate constitutions as if by magic, give tone to the stomach, and create a healthy and moderate appetite, which is so important for the early recovery of the mother, as well as the health and strength of the little stranger. They stimulate not too much or too little. The abundance of anise which seems to enter into their composition is sure to strengthen the muscles, and to give an early and sufficient flow of milk to the mother, which effectually prevents ague in the breast. They are a preventive of langour, dizziness and nausea of the stomach, and in every respect are a superior tonic of real worth and merit, and one that no lady should be without, especially those about to become mothers. I am now attending a lady at this hotel who has been confined as yet but three days, still, under the soothing effects of the Plantation Bitters, she is fast recovering; heretofore she has been obliged to keep her bed for weeks. Herself and husband bid me say that they shall take every possible occasion to recommend your Bitters.
I have often used Callsaya bark and wine with some little satisfaction; but your combination of Callsaya bark, St. Croix rum, lavender flowers, and other ingredients, never fail to produce full and the most satisfactory results.
In conclusion, allow me to say that I have acted in the capacity of nurse for thirty years, and have attended hundreds of ladies, many of them of the very first families of this city, but during all my experience have never been so favorably impressed with the really good qualities of any medicine as I have been with your Bitters, and without hesitation I cheerfully recommend them to all families. You are at liberty to make such use of this letter as you may think fit.
Truly yours,
SOPHRONIA BOWERS,
Nurse.
P. S.—Do tell me what the S. T. 1860, X. means? Mrs. B. wants to know as well as myself.
N. B.—I am going to Philadelphia in a few days to nurse a lady. Can the Bitters be got there?

THIRD CHAPTER AND TWENTY-SEVENTH VERSE OF PROVERBS.
"Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine to do it."
8—T—1860—X.

The complaint is often heard from mothers that her daughter is very much out of health; that she has no appetite; that she feels languid; that her head aches; that she is growing thin and pale, and that she has no life or energy left; that she is low spirited, and perfectly incapacitated to participate in any pleasure, or to perform any mental or physical duty; and the question is often asked, What shall I do for her? What shall I give her? &c. For once, mother, give her Plantation Bitters, and our word for it, your daughter's appetite will return, her languor and her headache will disappear, new life, strength, and energy will take possession of her. The damask will again bloom upon her cheek, and the lustre in her eye will again be as bright as in her healthiest, happiest, and most joyous days.
The reports that these celebrated Bitters rely upon mineral substances for its active properties, are wholly false. For the public satisfaction, and that patients may consult their physicians, we append a list of its components. First of all come the Callsaya or Peruvian Bark.
CALISAYA BARK.—Celebrated for over two hundred years in the treatment of the Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Weakness, &c. it was introduced into Europe by the Countess, wife of the Viceroy of Peru, in 1640, and afterwards sold by the Jesuits for the enormous price of its own weight in silver, under the name of Jesuit's Powders, and was finally made public by Louis XVI, King of France. Humboldt makes especial reference to its febrifuge qualities during his South American travels.
CASCARILLA BARK.—For diarrhœa, colic and diseases of the stomach and bowels.
DANDELION.—For inflammation of the loins, and dropsical affections.
CHAMOMILE FLOWERS.—For enfeebled digestion.
LAVENDER FLOWERS.—Aromatic stimulant and tonic—highly invigorating in nervous debility.
WINTERGREEN.—For scrofula, rheumatism, &c.
ANISE.—An aromatic carminative; creating flesh, muscle, and milk; much used by mothers nursing.
Also, clove-buds, orange, carraway, coriander, snake-root, &c.

Another wonderful ingredient, of Spanish origin, imparting beauty to the complexion and brilliancy to the mind, is yet unknown to the commerce of the world, and we withhold its name for the present.
Delicate females, requiring a gentle stimulant, and clergymen, lawyers, and students, exhausted by mental labor, will find the Plantation Bitters a most beneficial tonic.
Every bottle has the fac similie of our signatures on a steel plate engraving, or it is not genuine.
Sold by all Druggists, Grocers, and Country Stores.
