COOL FOR THE SEASON

Among the refreshing things that are observed yesterday was a coolness with which the day was appropriated, certainly, the exclusive news contained in our 104 o'clock "Extra."

REV. C. W. DENISON

This person has sent a note containing several newspaper items, clipped from the Boston Transcript, about his arrival home, near Boston. Sometime in January last he disappeared from his post as chaplain in the army without leave. He was reported as having deserted. In a published order of the War Department his name was stricken from the rolls by order of the President. The first thing we heard of him afterwards was through an English paper, published in Bristol, that Denison had turned up in that country in the capacity of "chaplain of the relief ship George Graveland."

WHO HAVE A RIGHT TO VOTE?

It being current rumor that the Commissioners of Election intend to decide adversely to the qualification of voters whose names do not appear on the school tax list, as compiled by the assessors, the following decision of Judge Denio, and the opinion of James M. Carlisle, Esq., are given, which will enlighten the commissioners and voters on the subject.

SCHOOL TAX LIST.

1. Persons whose names are actually on the list are to be presumed rightfully there. It is not the duty of the assessors, being sworn officers, to have their duty, until the contrary appears by proof.

2. In receiving other persons as having been lawfully omitted by the assessors, the commissioners are to be satisfied that the person omitted was actually on the list at the time of the assessment, and that the omission was the result of inadvertence.

3. The affidavit of the voter himself, and of a known and credible witness, in the form prescribed by the laws, and the payment of the school tax, are to be considered sufficient proof, in my opinion, to entitle a person to vote.

APPROPRIATIONS OF THE LAST CONGRESS.

TRAVEL IS CONVENIENT AND PROPER, AND ALTHOUGH ORDERED TO BE DONE, YET IT DOES NOT, AND ALL OTHER THINGS BEING PERFORMED, THE PARTY IS ENTITLED TO VOTE.

The Court granted no formal mandamus in Mr. Wallace's special case, the decision being general, and as such to be applied by the Commissioners of Election in all similar instances. He will, therefore, under this judgment, be entitled to vote, notwithstanding the omission of his name on the list.
