WASHINGTON, D.C., NOVEMBER 27, 1921.

Diagram showing seating of delegates, advisers, secretaries and interpreters around the conference table.

First official photograph of the conference on limitation of armament in session, taken last Monday morning in D. A. R. Hall, showing delegates, advisers, secretaries, interpreters, stenographers and spectators.

Marshal Foch meets Miss Evangeline Booth, national commander of the Salvation Army in New York. Twenty-eight of the fifty Salvation Army workers who called on the French leader were with the armies in France.

Babe Ruth, premier batman of American base ball, explains to Gen. Jacques, Belgian army leader, how he makes his home runs. The "King of Swat" is now appearing in vaudeville.

Launching of the new United States battleship West Virginia at Newport News a week ago yesterday. If the present plan before the conference on limitation of armament goes through, this great fighting ship will be scrapped. It has already cost $15,000,000 and $10,000,000 more would be required to equip it for sea duty. Insert: Miss Alice Mann of Washington, who christened the ship.