Lipid Flame Terrorizes Crowds Gathered To Watch Great Spectacle

In a small plot of the Band of the American Legion parade in the city of Tacna, Holn, the street of Central Avenue, this- week, a crowd of thousands has been gathered to watch the great fire that has broken out in New York.

The fire, started by a group of men who had been working on the street, has been spreading rapidly, and has already reached a point where it is believed that if it were not put out it would be dangerous to the lives of those in the vicinity.

The fire, which is in the automobile factory, has caused great concern among the people of the city, and it is feared that if it continues it will spread to other parts of the city.

Cost of Living to Decline At Once, Hoover Predicts

Immediate Signing of Treaty Needed to Send Down Prices and Begin Better Times, Says Food Director

The present high cost of living has reached its peak and will shortly begin its decline, Captain Hoover, director of the American Relief Administration, said yesterday in a statement to the New York Times.

The general trend is toward a decline, he said, and this is reflected in the prices of food, clothing, and other necessities.
