

The Sunday Star

tv magazine

Published by
THE EVENING STAR NEWSPAPER CO.
Washington 3, D. C.
Phone LIncoln 3-5000

CONTENTS

Week of January 15-
January 21, 1961

On the Air.....	5
Week's TV Tips..	6
Week's Programs..	8-49
TV Crossword....	50
Public Affairs....	51
Sports on TV.....	51
D. C. Studios.....	52
TV Mailbag.....	53
Baltimore	54, 55
Harrisonburg, Va.	55
Movies on TV....	56, 57
Color on TV	57
Index	58, 59
Show Stoppers....	60

INCOMING, OUTGOING—In the news spotlight at ABC—James Hagerty, who last week was announced to succeed John Daly as new chief. Veteran Bill Shadel will anchor ABC's Inaugural coverage Friday.

ON THE AIR A Page Of History

That stirring and impressive moment in American history—the Inauguration of a new President and Vice President—will be brought to millions of viewers Friday and, once more, the capital city is also the capital of the electronic news world.

Mr. Brinkley will not have to look for Mr. Huntley on the monitor; Walter Cronkite will be back in the town where he got his start, and of more piquant note, perhaps, will be Bill Shadel's performance in the spot held so long on ABC by John Daly. Mr. Daly will be here—but only as a spectator.

The Inauguration of John F. Kennedy (whose large family poses no little problem to TV spotters) as President and Lyndon Johnson as Vice-President will be ABC's first coverage of a major event in years without Daly as anchorman. (Hagerty takes over January 23.)

Don't look, incidentally, for the Sinatra-produced Inaugural Gala on the Thursday night schedules. It will not be televised. What the networks (channels four, seven and nine) will cover in detail are the swearing-in ceremonies Friday, the colorful parade which follows, and (on channels 4 and 9) a late night look-in at the Inaugural Ball at the National Armory.

Bernie Harrison.