WM. T. GALLIHER NAMED INAUGURAL COMMITTEE HEAD

President Chooses Prominent G. O. P. Business Man to Direct Program.

PLANS TO BE PUSHED FOR COLORFUL EVENT

Ball in Evening "Improbable Day's Festivities to Involve Best in East"

With little more than two hours to spare and a large number of speeches and processions to be held, the large Union League contribution has been made, the importantBusiness Manto direct the inauguration program and the President has chosen the man to direct the program.

President Coolidge has chosen the President of the Galliher Manufacturing Company, J. V. Galliher, as the head of the inaugural committee. Mr. Galliher is a prominent G. O. P. business man and has been active in the Republican party for many years. He is a strong supporter of the President and is well known for his public spirit and public service. He has been a member of the Union League for many years and has served as a member of its executive committee.

The ball is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. and will feature a grand display of fireworks and a parade of floats. The parade will be led by the Union League and will feature a variety of groups, including the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and the American Legion. The ball will feature a variety of entertainment, including a speech by the President, a performance by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, and a fireworks display.

W. H. M. BALLAD

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1926—TWENTY-TWO PAGES.

THE EVENING STAR.

Page 1

U. S. CHOOSES TRIO FOR PARIS PARLEY

Kellogg, Herrick, and Logan to Meet With Finance Ministers.

The President has selected the United States Representatives to the International Economic Conference, which will be held in Paris, and has appointed Mr. Kellogg, Mr. Herrick, and Mr. Logan as the American representatives. The conference is scheduled to begin on January 16th, and will feature discussions on a variety of international economic issues.

Mr. Kellogg is a prominent financier and has been active in the business world for many years. He is currently serving as the President of the Kellogg Company, and has been a member of the board of directors of several major corporations. Mr. Herrick is a prominent lawyer and has been active in the legal profession for many years. He is currently serving as the President of the Herrick Law Firm, and has been a member of the board of directors of several major law firms. Mr. Logan is a prominent diplomat and has been active in the foreign service for many years. He is currently serving as the Secretary of State, and has been a member of the board of directors of several major diplomatic organizations.

NEW ARMS PARLEY GAINING SUPPORT

Botha Ready to Back President in His Views on Conference Limited in Scope.

The President has been a strong advocate of disarmament, and has been active in the movement for world peace. He has been a strong supporter of the arms limitation movement, and has been a member of the board of directors of several major disarmament organizations.

The conference is scheduled to begin on January 16th, and will feature discussions on a variety of international economic issues. The conference is expected to be attended by representatives from several countries, including the United States, Great Britain, France, and Germany.

RICH BUILDER HELD IN WIFE'S SLAUGHTER

Wife's Body, Soaked, Found in Basement of Home—Bucky Clothing Unsold.

The police have arrested a prominent businessman and his wife, accused of murdering their children and then killing themselves. The couple was found in the basement of their home, where the children's bodies were discovered.

The police have determined that the children were killed with a knife, and that the couple then took their own lives. The couple was known for their lavish lifestyle, and had been seen in the area several times in recent weeks.

U. S. TRADE WITH RUSSIA, 50 PER CENT GREATER THAN IN Czarist Days, TOTALS $65,000,000.

In the annual report of the American-Russian committee, it is stated that the trade between the United States and the former Russian Empire has increased by 50 per cent since the days of the Czar.

The committee has determined that the trade is growing at a steady rate, and that the United States is becoming an increasingly important trading partner for the former Russian Empire. The committee has recommended that the government take steps to encourage further trade between the two countries.