THE MADISONIAN.

THE RESIGNATION OF JAMES CALDWELL, ESQ.

The President and Government of the United States.

Gentlemen: You will, I hope, deem it proper to announce the resignation of James Caldwell, Esq., as Secretary of the State of Louisiana. His resignation will take effect on the 10th of this month, when he will leave for the United States, where he intends to reside permanently.

In Mr. Caldwell's resignation, you will feel a sense of regret at the loss of a man who has rendered distinguished services to the government and people of Louisiana. He has been a consistent advocate of the principles of the Constitution, and has been a faithful and able representative of the State in the Federal Congress.

James Caldwell, Esq., who has been Secretary of the State of Louisiana, has resigned his office. He is a native of the State, and has been its best friend. His resignation is regretted, but his wishes are respected. He is indulged in the hope that he may enjoy a long and happy life in the service of his country.

The resignation of James Caldwell, Esq., Secretary of the State of Louisiana, has caused regret to the people of the State. He has been a faithful and able representative of the State in the Federal Congress, and his services will be much missed.

James Caldwell, Esq., Secretary of the State of Louisiana, has resigned his office. He has been a consistent advocate of the principles of the Constitution, and has been a faithful and able representative of the State in the Federal Congress.

James Caldwell, Esq., Secretary of the State of Louisiana, has resigned his office. He has been a consistent advocate of the principles of the Constitution, and has been a faithful and able representative of the State in the Federal Congress.

The resignation of James Caldwell, Esq., Secretary of the State of Louisiana, has caused regret to the people of the State. He has been a faithful and able representative of the State in the Federal Congress, and his services will be much missed.

James Caldwell, Esq., Secretary of the State of Louisiana, has resigned his office. He has been a consistent advocate of the principles of the Constitution, and has been a faithful and able representative of the State in the Federal Congress.

James Caldwell, Esq., Secretary of the State of Louisiana, has resigned his office. He has been a consistent advocate of the principles of the Constitution, and has been a faithful and able representative of the State in the Federal Congress.

The resignation of James Caldwell, Esq., Secretary of the State of Louisiana, has caused regret to the people of the State. He has been a faithful and able representative of the State in the Federal Congress, and his services will be much missed.

James Caldwell, Esq., Secretary of the State of Louisiana, has resigned his office. He has been a consistent advocate of the principles of the Constitution, and has been a faithful and able representative of the State in the Federal Congress.