GERMAN EYE ON ENGLAND

Fearful That the Matabele Campaign Is a Pretext.

BOERS DO RIGHT TO ARM

Berlin Press Comments Are Not Reassuring to Those Who Argue That Anglo-German Feeling Is Friendly.

Berlin, April 19.—Next to dueling, the leading cause of popular excitement in the preparation which England is making for action against the Transvaal.

All of the Austrian and Italian influences in the councils of the cabinet which have been thrown on the side of England will become paralyzed if events shall confirm the suspicion entertained by Germany that Great Britain intends to coerce the Boers.

BOERS' ACTION APPROVED

The Voedsche Zetting approves the action of the Boers in arming themselves to protect their independence and predicts another Majuba Hill disaster to England.

The Boers are not only manly in the task of conducting two wars at the same time, one in the South and the other against the Boers.

HOSTILE TO AMERICA

Although the report that President Cleveland has offered the friendly services of the United States in settling the Cuban troubles is not confirmed, there is much discussion of the rumor.

The North German Gazette, in an intensely hostile criticism, thereon, writes upon the assumption that the report is true, tells Spain to decline positively to admit that the President of the United States has any right to interfere in the Cuban matter, or rather to tell the American government to mind its own business.

The Voedsche Zetting says: "If the United States government gives effect to the resolutions passed by the two houses of Congress, recognizing the Cubans as belligerents, Spain must tolerate the act."

"She cannot go to war with the United States, but America cannot expect any

BY THE PAPAL ABLEGATE

Immense Through Witnesses the Impressive Ceremony at St. Patrick's Church—Archbishop Ireland's Eloquent Argument for Divorce of Church and State.

The brilliant and impressive function of an Episcopal consecration was held yesterday morning and afternoon in the beautiful sanctuary of St. Patrick's Church, in the presence of an immense assemblage of citizens, and a large number of prelates, priests, and eminent senators of the Catholic church of America.

COLORED PEOPLE HIS DUPES

William Webster Under Arrest for a Clever Swindle.

He Is Said to Be the Man Who Has Worked the Furniture Game All Over the City.

William Webster, colored, was arrested early yesterday morning by Police Officer Van Horn and held at the Second precinct station on the charge of securing money under false pretenses.

The particular fraud for which Webster was taken into custody is that of pretending to sell pianos, carpets and furniture to colored people by obtaining a small amount of cash as first payment and then telling the purchaser that the articles would be delivered in a few hours.

He carried a small book of printed receipts, and on a payment of a few dollars would give them a receipt for the amount, stating that the goods would be delivered.

Mrs. Booth-Tucker at Los Angeles

Los Angeles, Cal., April 19.—The arrival of Mrs. Booth-Tucker, the new commander in chief of the Salvation Army, was signified by the greatest rally the army has ever held in southern California.

ENTERING THE CHURCH

The components of this beautiful picture were increased and intensified many times when the procession, moving slowly down the aisles to the strains of the organ and a largely reinforced choir, assumed its place within and around the sanctuary.

CEREMONY OF CONSECRATION

The ceremonies of the consecration were performed in the central sanctuary and in the chapel of the Virgin, in the latter of which the new bishop conducted the services pertaining to his position.
