NO SIDE RACES.

Iselin, However, Will Gladly Resail the Cup Series.

Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—A. J. Drexel, of this city, to-day received a letter from C. Oliver Iselin, of New York, in response to a proffer made a few days ago by Mr. Drexel and J. R. Fell of a purse of $10,000 or a cup of that value for a race between the Defender and Valkyrie on any course between Sandy Hook and Marblehead and under the rules of the New York Yacht Club.

Mr. Iselin declines to accept the proposition. Mr. Drexel declined to give out for publication the entire text of Mr. Iselin's letter, but stated that the following passage sufficiently indicates its tenor:

"Although appreciating your generous offer, our syndicate feel obliged, under existing circumstances, to decline any race with Valkyrie except America's cup races. These they have offered to resail at any place, any time, and under any conditions agreeable to Lord Dunraven."

ARGUING PRIZE FIGHT LAWS.

Judge Hurt Will Decide the Dallas Case on Thursday.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 17.—Chief Justice Hurt's court was crowded in sardine fashion again to-day to hear the arguments of the lawyers in the prize fight habeas corpus case.

Judge Hurt yesterday afternoon asked Attorney General Crane to give his views on certain cloudy features of the Texas statutes. He came in loaded with argument this morning and talked from 9 o'clock until the court adjourned at noon.

Col. W. L. Crawford speaks this afternoon. Judge Hurt may not be able to render his decision before Thursday or Friday.

FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN.

Duxbury Lowers the Trans-Continental Bicycle Record.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 17.—Merton Duxbury, who started from the city hall, Providence, April 2, to ride to San Francisco, returned at 2 o'clock this morning, having reduced the trans-continental record from fifty-nine days and eleven hours to forty-eight days and eighteen hours.

Duxbury is the first wheelman to make the journey from coast to coast and return and the only one to ever cross the great American desert, a feat attempted by Thomas Stevens several years ago.

Inability to hit Eddie Stein was the cause of the Senators' downfall yesterday afternoon. Foutz remembered the pounding his dark-haired twirler received on last Friday, and gave him a chance to redeem himself. Eddie took advantage of the opportunity and had the satisfaction of knowing that he was able to defeat the Senatorial aggregation for once. The game was slow, dull and uninteresting, and very few of the fifteen hundred spectators were sorry when it was over.

Varney Anderson started in to pitch for the locals, and the way the Bridegrooms sized up his curves was a revelation. Every man who came to the bat seemed to have no difficulty in finding his delivery, and the hits came so fast and furious that Schmelz found it necessary to replace him with Gilroy after the second inning.

TIDE WAS STEMMED.

The Washington twirler succeeded in stemming the tide and the boys from the City of Churches only succeeded in scoring three runs after he took his place in the box.

Selbach led in the batting for the home team and made two timely triples. The Brooklyns played a fast game in the field. Corcoran especially distinguished himself. will succeed in once more throwing them down.

Brown went out at first. Joyce fouled out. Abbey hit for a single and stole second. McGuire hit past second, scoring Abbey. McGuire took third on a passed ball. Selbach went out at first. One run.

Griffin hit for two bases. Shindle hit a safe one into left field, scoring Griffin. Corcoran hit past short. LaChance hit for two bases. Brown took care of Anderson's fly, Corcoran scoring on the play. Daly made a hit, scoring LaChance. Daly went out trying to steal second. Foutz closed the inning by flying out to Selbach. Four runs.

OUT AT FIRST.

Cartwright, the first man up in the second for the Senators, hit to LaChance and went out at first. Crooks hit for a single. Molesworth hit for three bases, scoring Crooks, but went out at the rubber attempting to stretch his hit for four bases. Anderson went out at first. One run.

Grim hit for a single. Stein hit for two bases, and both scored on Griffin's two-bagger. Shindle hit past short, scoring Griffin. Corcoran hit to Molesworth, who threw Shindle out at second. LaChance hit for four bases, scoring Corcoran ahead of him. Daly hit for a single. Foutz hit to Anderson, and was out at first. Five

The Senators meet the Brooklyns again to-day, and it is to be hoped that they runs.

Griffin took care of Brown's fly. Joyce went out at first. Abbey took a constitutional. McGuire went out on a fly to Griffin.

Grim went out on a fly to Abbey. Stein out, Crooks to Cartwright. Griffin hit to Molesworth, and went out at first.

Selbach hit for three bases. Corcoran made a great one-hand stop of Cartwright's grounder and threw the runner out at first. Crooks flew out to Daly. Molesworth struck out. No runs.

Shindle hit for three bases. Anderson went out, Molesworth to Cartwright. La Chance walked. Anderson went out on a fly to Selbach. Daly went out at first. One run.

HIT FOR TWO BASES.

Gilroy went out, Daly to La Chance. Brown hit for two bases. Joyce hit a safe one, scoring Brown. Abbey hit to Corcoran, who completed a double play, retiring the side with one run.

Foutz went out on a foul to Cartwright. Daly went out at first. Stein out, Crooks to Cartwright.

McGuire went out at first. Selbach hit for three bases. Cartwright went out at first, scoring Selbach. Crooks went out at first. One run.

Griffin walked. Gilroy hit Shindle, giving him a base. Corcoran hit to Crooks, who seemed to be asleep, and the runner took first. LaChance took a walk, scoring Griffin. Anderson went out at first, Shindle scoring on the play. Daly went out at first. Two runs.

McGuire went out on a fly to Griffin. Gilroy struck out. Brown went out on a fly to Shindle. No runs.

Foutz out, Gilroy to Cartwright. Daly hit for a signle. Stein went out on a fly to short. Griffin closed the inning by flying out. No runs.

Scrappy Bill hit for two bases. Abbey kicked. McGuire went out at first, Joyce scoring on the play. Selbach went out on a fly to Griffin. One run.

DIVIDED THE HONORS.

Baltimore and Boston Each Took a Game in Beantown.

Boston, Sept. 17.—The Boston and Baltimore teams battled for nearly four hours this afternoon, dividing honors at the close of the play.

The first game was close, and 8,000 people were kept in suspense until the last man was out. Both Clarkson and Sullivan were effective, but Boston would have won had it not been for an inexcusable error by Harrington and other infielders, which let in runs when the side should have been retired.

The home team found McMahon with little difficulty, and was able to bunch hits at the right time.

The second game was called at the end of Baltimore's half of the fifth. At the conclusion of the first game Manager Hanlon's admirers presented him with a perambulator and flowers. The scores:

DOMINO WAS VERY WORRIED

Waiting Tactics Made Him Erratic and He Was Beaten at the Start—Clifford Wrested Place From Sir Walter by a Superb Effort at the Finish. Time Was 2:09.

Gravesend, Sept. 17.—The fall meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey Club began under most favorable circumstances to-day. The air was soft and balmy and it was a typical September day.

The track was in perfect shape for the battle of the giants of the turf. A large crowd took advantage of the weather to see the brilliant programme run off. There was at least 7,000 persons present.

The attraction was the first special, an allowance event for all-aged horses, at a mile and a quarter. It drew together ten of the best horses, including the mighty Henry of Navarre, the flying black colt Domino, and the great but erratic Rey el Santa Anita. In addition Clifford and Sir Walter were thrown in at weights that gave them more than a fighting chance.

When three events had been disposed of the candidates for the first special appeared. After several false breaks, for which Clifford was to blame, they finally got away in good order.

SIR WALTER AS TASKMASTER.

Sir Walter at once took up the role of taskmaster. Taral pursued different tactics with Domino to-day. He endeavored to make a waiting race of it, and kept him in the rear of Clifford. They passed the grand stand the first time with Sir Walter a length and a half before Rey El Santa Anita, who was lapped to the withers by Henry of Navarre, who was clear of Clifford and Domino.

This order was maintained to the far turn. A general closing up began as they negotiated the turn, and all but Clifford moved up to Sir Walter. They swung into the home stretch, with Sir Walter a neck to the good of Rey El Santa Anita and Henry of Navarre. Domino, as usual, did not relish waiting tactics.

He was beaten before the home stretch was reached, and he gave up the struggle as soon as they were headed for home. Griffin took matters very calmly with Henry of Navarre. He gradually wore down Sir Walter's lead, and finally won with comparative ease by a length.

CLIFFORD GOT PLACE.

Clifford, who came with a superb rush in the final furlong, wrested the place from Sir Walter by a neck. Sir Walter tired badly. Rey del Santa Anita was a bad fourth, and Domino was eased up in the last half furlong. The time, 2:09, was not sensational.

The other big event on the programme to-day was the race for the Holly Handicap, of the value of $2,000, and it did not result in a triumph for the talent. It was won easily by Ben Brush, who was third in demand in the ring. Margrave, the favorite, finished second and Crescendo third. The Western contingent were heavy winners by Ben Brush's victory.
