

Lansburgh & Bro

BED SPREADS AT 1-2 PRICE.

There are ever so many merchants who at the expiration of their selling season will gather together the samples of all their different men on the road and close them out to one of their best customers at a fraction of their real value, be they the most staple goods, and here is where we often come in, as the manufacturer generally likes to close them out to Retail Houses who have been good customers of theirs. It's the old saying proven: "One good turn deserves another." Such an opportunity again came to us this week in the shape of real good White Bed Spreads—SHERMAN, CECIL & CO. That good, reliable house had several hundred of these—offered them to our firm for ONE-HALF their value. These are here now, and you can share our good fortune—as it was, we really only bought them for you. OUR good luck is always YOURS.

Every one of these Spreads are of English manufacture, genuine Marseilles, and run in sizes from the smallest Crib Quilt to the very Largest manufactured.

The lowest price begins at 50c and is worth $1.25. The larger ones in the same proportion. Among them will be found a very few Exposition patterns with high colors, most perfect designs of which less than 100 have been imported to this country.

A rare chance. Lansburgh & Bro. 420, 422, 424, 426 7th St.

S. Kann, Sons & Co.,

8th & Market Space.

25

Inch—extra weight and quality Black Satin Duchesse, worth $1.50, to-day,

89c

Best value ever sold.

S. Kann, Sons & Co.,

8th and Market Space.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WARNER. 470-472 Broadway north-west, near 6th street. Business men's lunch, 12 to 2 o'clock, 25c; table d'hôte dinner, 4 to 10 p.m., 50c. - 6-25-95

Feel Badly To-day? We ask this repeatedly, because persons generally exhausted, nervous, have no appetite and can't work, begin at once taking the most reliable strengthening medicine, which is Brown's Iron Bitters. Benefit comes from the very first dose.

Brown's Iron Bitters. IT CURES DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUSNESS, HEADACHE, PALENESS, LOSS OF APPETITE, AND ALL THE OTHERS WHICH ARE THE RESULT OF A WEAK BLOOD.

Get only the genuine—it has crossed red lines on the wrapper. BROWN CHEMICAL CO. BALTIMORE, MD.

WE BE DUCHESSE TO-DAY

Everything Is Ready for the Marlborough Wedding.

SIGNED THE SETTLEMENTS

By the Terms Miss Vanderbilt's Dowry Is $5,000,000—Fifteen Hundred Guests Have Been Bidden to St. Thomas' Church—Unique Features of the Wedding.

New York, Nov. 5.—William K. Vanderbilt, his daughter, Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, and the Duke of Marlborough, met at the home of Mrs. Vanderbilt, at 24 East Seventy-second street this morning, and signed the papers affecting the marriage settlements.

Mrs. Vanderbilt was not present. Mr. Vanderbilt drove to the home with his lawyer, J. Henry Anderson. A few minutes later the duke arrived with his solicitor, Edward Manning. An hour and a half was going over the terms and finally the papers were signed by Miss Vanderbilt, her father, and her prospective husband. It was subsequently learned on good authority that by the terms of the settlement Miss Vanderbilt gets a dowry of $5,000,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay this evening entertained the duke and his prospective bride at dinner. Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt will become the Duchess of Marlborough at noon to-morrow. The marriage will be celebrated in St. Thomas' Church in the presence of 1,500 invited guests. The wedding will, without doubt, surpass in elaboration of details any previous wedding ever solemnized in this city.

HANDLING THE CROWDS. The high rank in England of the young bridegroom and the great wealth of the bride's family, have caused their nuptials to attract a vast deal of attention. It is consequently expected that a great crowd of curious persons will be attracted to the scene of the ceremony, and every possible precaution has been taken to prevent disorder, such as marked the wedding of the Earl of Craven and Miss Bradley-Martin.

A large force of police will be on hand to keep Fifth avenue and the adjoining streets clear, and to hold the crowd back from the church entrances. No person will be allowed in the church except those who have tickets.

The doors will be opened at 10 o'clock. At that time a concert of vocal and instrumental music will begin under the conduct of George William Warren.

MAIDS AND USHERS. The bridesmaids will be Miss Winthrop, daughter of Mr. Buchanan Winthrop; Miss Evelyn Burdick, daughter of Mr. T. T. Toynbee; Miss Morton, eldest daughter of Gov. Morton; Miss Eliza Bronson, daughter of Mr. Frederic Bronson; Miss Daisy Post, daughter of Mr. William Post; Miss Katharine Duer, daughter of Mr. William Duer, and a granddaughter of the famous wit, William R. Traverser. Miss May Good, daughter of Mr. Ogden Good, and Miss Laura Jay, a daughter of Col. William Jay.

The ushers whom the duke has chosen to assist him at the wedding are very well known in New York society, and have often assisted at famous weddings. They are: Marlborough Club, at which club the Duke of Marlborough has been a frequent visitor since his arrival in this country. They are Messrs. F. Brockhous, cutting, Richard T. Wilson, J. Reynolds, Ronalds, Herbert D. Hobbs and Hamilton Wilkes Cary. The Duke of Marlborough's best man will be his cousin, the Hon. Ivor Churchill Guest, the eldest son of Lord Wimborne. His mother is the oldest sister of the late Duke of Marlborough. Young Guest is a fine looking man, of tall and commanding presence and just about the age of the duke.

THE WEDDING BREAKFAST. Immediately after the wedding ceremony and the signing of the marriage register, the bridal party will be driven to Mrs. Vanderbilt's residence, No. 24 East Seventy-second street, where, after a brief reception and congratulations to the duke and duchess, the wedding breakfast will be served. The guests for this breakfast will be limited to one hundred people, among whom will be members of the diplomatic corps, the officiating clergy and bishops, the members of the bridal party and the members of their immediate families. The guests will be seated at small tables in the large dining-room and the adjacent hall. The table for the bridal party will, of course, be the center of attraction, and will undoubtedly be placed at the south end of the dining-room. This table will be long and oval in shape, and its floral decorations will consist of orchids, lilies and other flowers appropriate to such an occasion, while the table service will be of gold. No formality will be observed in seating the guests at the other tables, of which there will be ten.

The wedding cake boxes are covered with white moire, and on them will appear, under the ducal coronet, the monogram, "C. M." Consuelo-Marlboroughs. After the wedding breakfast the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough will leave at once for the Vanderbilt country place, Idle Hour, at Oakdale, L. I.

MARLBOROUGH WILL GO SOUTH.

Rooms Engaged for the Duke at Richmond's swan Hotel. (Special to The Times.) Richmond, Va., Nov. 5.—A suite of rooms has been engaged at the Jefferson Hotel of Richmond, where the duke and duchess will shortly visit Richmond. The object of the duke's visit has not been announced, but it is supposed he will spend several days in Richmond sight-seeing and while away his time before returning with his wealthy bride to England.

Gloves

Men's Pique Gloves. You can try them on. We warrant them—they will not split or give out at the seams, though our price is only 95c.

Louvre Glove Co., 919 7th St. N. W.

UNDERTAKERS. J. WILLIAM LEE, UNDERTAKER. 77 Pennsylvania Avenue Northwest. First-class service. Phone 250. 17-4-95

DIED. MEERER—Departed this life at his residence, 297 Third street southeast, November 5, at 7 a. m., Alois Newton Meeker, for twenty-one years the affectionate husband of Estler Meeker. In the seventeenth year of his age.

Solice of funeral hereafter. NALLEY—Beloved daughter of Edward J. and Elizabeth Nalley, aged three years, ten months, on November 5, 1895. Funeral from residence, 115 Sixteenth street northeast. Private.

Little Myrtle, the only darling—Pride of all the hearts at home. But she sneezed and called her darling Myrtle, do come home.

Dr. A. H. Howard and his daughter, Miss Ida, will leave to-day for a visit of several weeks to relatives in Worcester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Deane, of Vermont avenue, have returned from an extended trip that included Niagara Falls, the At-

PARIS MOBILITY ALL THERE

Reado-Foras Religious Marriage Made a Notable Event.

It Occurred in the Church of St. Philippe du Roule After the Civil Ceremony.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The religious ceremony of the marriage of Marie Delphine, daughter of Gen. J. Meredith Road, formerly United States Minister to Greece, to Count Max Foras, took place to-day in the Church of St. Philippe du Roule.

This was the first occasion for the re-assembling of the fashionable population of Paris at the beginning of the season. The church was crowded, the entire diplomatic corps and all of the titled and talented world of Paris being in attendance.

Among those present were the Princess Brovian, Hon. Samuel de Morse, United States consul general, and Mrs. de Morse; Henry Vignaud, first secretary of the United States embassy; Lieut. Commander Rodgers, naval attaché to the United States embassy, and Mrs. Kellogg; Gen. Winstow and wife, Mrs. Cecilia Wentworth, Mr. Paul Harriet and wife, Mr. John Muro and wife, Mr. Austin Lee and wife, and Mr. Vanberg and wife.

Among the other guests in the church were noticed Prince Roland Bonaparte, M. Delannais, French minister, and M. Belyannis, Count Housay, member of the Academy; Count and Countess Montcaulin, M. Ayer, and Mr. and Mrs. Miss Halsted.

Abbe de Giberques gave the nuptial benediction from the altar. The nave of the church was crowded with flowers and floral decorations. The service was full choral and orchestral. The bride wore an ivory satin dress trimmed with Venice point lace—a family heirloom—and the bridesmaids were all in pale pink and yellow, trimmed with silver and brown fur.

The Countess Laura Foras, Countess Alix Foras, Princess Helene Bratovan and Mlle. Demestre. The bride's maid, Miss Cecile Vellez, in a black costume, trimmed with Venice lace. The bride's sister, Mrs. Spencer, wore dark blue velvet with a rocco Louis XV. gilet. Her bridesmaid, Mrs. de la Roche, wore a dress of black and white.

After the ceremony about 800 guests, the cream of Paris society, attended a reception given by Mrs. Road at her residence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Duff, No. 2917 G street northwest, have as guests Mrs. Bergen and Mrs. Charles Edmonson, of Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor are visiting New York for a short stay.

Gen. Nelson A. Miles, Mrs. Miles, their son and daughter, are at their handsome home, No. 1327 G street northwest. Mrs. Miles is a woman of handsome presence and brilliant mental attainments, and will doubtless lead the gay army set in its many social entertainments this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar I. Booren have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Florence Virginia, to Dr. Frank Leach, son of Dr. George V. Leach, of the Baltimore conference.

The ceremony will take place at Hamline M. E. Church, Wednesday, November 29, at noon. The bride will wear a white dress home to friends after December 1, at No. 1715 Fourteenth street northwest.

The marriage of Miss Manie Boykin, of Clinton, N. C., and Mr. William W. Wolf, of York Pa., occurred at Gateway Baptist Church Tuesday, Rev. Dr. Greene officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Wolf will return from a wedding trip will make their home in this city.

Mr. A. L. Barber, accompanied by his son and daughter, sailed for the West Indies on their steam yacht Sapphire. Mrs. Barber will return to this city in a few days to arrange Belmont for the winter, but owing to the family being in mourning they will not entertain a great deal during the season.

Maj. George W. Davis, Eleventh Infantry, president of the board of publication, is leaving for duty to visit Spain battlefield and Atlanta.

Mrs. Rumbold, daughter of Gen. Stanley, of the Soldiers' Home, and who has with her children, spent the summer at the latter place, leaves shortly for Fort Barrancas, Fla., to join her husband, Miss Ida Keith will accompany her, to remain all winter.

Miss Temple Perry, daughter of Capt. S. J. Perry, is the guest of friends at Paoli, Kas.

The Ladies' Aid Society gave an oyster supper last night for the benefit of Fletcher M. E. Church, corner of Fourth street and New York avenue northwest. The entertainment took place in the auditorium of the church and will be repeated tonight.

The tables were prettily arranged and reflected great credit upon the generous members of the church who had the supper in charge. Among those interested were: Mrs. Elmer Allport, president of the Ladies' Aid Society of Fletcher M. E. Church; Mrs. William Reed, Mrs. J. Allen, Mrs. E. Fowler, Mrs. Charlotte Moore, Mrs. J. Blessing, Mrs. Philip Milton, Misses Mary Webb, Mary, Marjory, Celia Reed and Annie and Nellie Allport.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Donaldson celebrated the anniversary of their marriage last night by holding an informal reception from 6 to 10 at their friends at their home, 1235 Eighth street northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson were assisted in receiving their guests by their daughters, Misses Mary and Katie Donaldson, and Mrs. William Webb and their cousin, Miss Mary Stewart, of Fairfax C. H. Va. The members of the family were Mr. George J. Donaldson and family, Mr. William Donaldson and family, Mr. Isaac Donaldson and family and Mr. William Lebb.

Among the many friends who called to offer their congratulations were: Mrs. Breckin, Miss Alice Plant, Miss Amanda Columbus, Mrs. Kate Scott and daughters, Mr. B. Keith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kahler, Mrs. J. L. Brown and many others.

Mr. Patenotre, who, by the way, is looking remarkably well after his summer on the other side, has returned with his business—the great fair that will be held in Paris during the first year of the new century. This exposition will be the middle of April and last until the first of November, and preparations for it have already been in evidence—and millions of our good American dollars will be in evidence. Who ever travels in Europe, never has his money's worth in culture and enjoyment.

For Wise Men.

Take a lesson from the ladies and learn what real bargains are.

Here is one—Men's Derby Ribbed Underwear, in tan and blue, 50 per cent wool, shirts silk faced, pearl buttons, finished seams, drawers, tape seams, sateen faced. Sold elsewhere for $1. Our price 50c per garment.

BON MARCHE.

314-316 Seventh St. N. W.

lanta exposition, and St. Augustine, Fla.

Miss Henrietta O'Neill, of Richmond, has been the recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Harrison, of Massachusetts avenue northwest.

Mr. John Harlow and Mr. Frank B. Atchison are about to leave the city for a two weeks' trip through Southern Maryland in search of November game.

Mr. H. C. McDonald has returned from Atlanta after spending a brief period with his family at his home, so Congress Heights, will go to Montreal, where business may detain him until spring.

Miss Favorita Walker, of Pittsburgh, Pa., will spend Thanksgiving week in this city as the guest of Miss Cecelia Byng.

Miss Katie Manogue, of New Jersey avenue, will spend Thanksgiving week in lower Maryland with her aunt, Mrs. Manogue. Upon her return she will be accompanied by her cousin, Miss Jessie Manogue, who will remain in Washington through out the coming season.

Miss Estelle Claiborn, will return to Philadelphia this week to resume her duties at Rockwith College, having entirely recovered from her recent illness.

Mr. James A. Hendley, Mr. Le Roy Gough and a party of friends have just returned from a trip to the coast, where they went to attend the football game.

Miss Belle E. Garrett, of the Bladenburg road, will spend Thanksgiving week at the home of Miss Sadie L. Warren, of Capitol Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Johnston, of New Hampshire avenue, will remove shortly from their present apartment to their new home on Capitol Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Trudsdale, of Georgetown, will leave this afternoon for a brief visit to friends in southern Georgia.

Miss E. B. Rawles, daughter of Maj. J. B. Rawles, of Washington Barracks, has gone to Omaha to attend the wedding and to be the maid of honor of her friend, Miss Edith M. Rawles, who will marry Mr. Gray Parke, of Decatur, Ill., on the 27th of this month.

MOODY CHOIR REHEARSAL.

Big Attendance and Excellent Music at Last Night's Meeting.

The monthly rehearsal of the Moody Choir took place last evening in the parlors of the First Baptist church, corner of Sixteenth and G streets northwest.

About 400 members were present, and under the direction of Prof. Percy S. Foster, assisted by Mrs. Grace Dufour and Miss Elizabeth M. Shum, with the Misses Welmer, Parker, Kibbey, Marcan, and Siam.

Decorations—Medalones Fordham, Bradley, Spencer, Shastana, Funk, Morrison, Jones, and the Misses Horton, Luby, Harris, and Melner.

Mrs. Annus A. Peck will have charge of Burdick Corps' meeting. All the members of the corps are invited to attend these gatherings.

PRINCE OF CANNIAL ISLANDS. Young Men Who Will Possess an Income of $2,000,000 a Year.

The prince of the Eismarck Archipelago has been in the city for nearly two weeks, and left for his home yesterday on the steamer Alameda, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

Although the young man is the most interesting character in the South Seas, it is hardly to be wondered at that his identity was not learned while he was at the Palace Hotel, for there he registered under his name, which is J. M. Coe Forsyth.

While he is the prince of the Oceanic coast as many as 250,000 inhabitants are dependent on him for their food. He spent the money with generosity. When he came to leave for his home quite a crowd gathered on the Oceanic dock to see him off. Among those present were members of the family of his grandfather, who was Jonas M. Coe, for many years consul of the United States at Samoa.

The archipelago potentate will go through to Sydney on the steamer Alameda. At Sydney the prince's own schooner, the Three Cheers, will be waiting to convey him to the Eismarck Islands, spots on the ocean that his mother owns outright. The palm-covered isles are not far from New Guinea and New Hebrides. On the latter island is the real residence of Coe Forsyth, but he is on the other islands much of his time.

To look at the young man no one would suspect that he is Crown Prince of the Cannial Islands and likely to be recognized as the only authority on the death of his mother. There is only a trace of native blood in his veins and his whole appearance is that of a stolid gentleman, more accustomed to European universities than to the wilderness of jungle islands under the equator. It is true, though, that on the Eismarck Archipelago are to be found about the only cannibals in this world that the missionaries have allowed to go unconverted. While these natives eat each other, they only indulge in this diet when the different tribes are at war.

There are five groups of islands in the principality to which Coe Forsyth is now returning. While most of the islands are small, the number of them is so great that the aggregate amount of land owned by the young man's mother is 151,000 acres. She has been offered a half million dollars for her possessions, and has scornfully refused it, as it is believed that the pro-is this great Cloak and Coat sale of ours—newest styles—elegant qualities—and prices at figures that were never known before.

The Wonder of Washington

$5, $6, $7 and $8 Coats and Capes, $3.98.

4 and 6-button effects, in 29, 28 and 30-inch lengths—plain, revers and fancy collars—black, blue, browns—plush fur and jet trimmed—also— $3.98

$15 to $18 value, $10.98.

Astrakhans, Bouclies, Whorumbo Beavers, Kerseys, etc., in ladies' and gents' styles— $10.98

Other styles and qualities too numerous to mention at unheard-of prices.

KING'S PALACE

812 and 814 7th St. N. W. 715 Market Space.

FESTIVAL OF THE HOLIDAYS

Relief Corps Ladies Hard at Work Laying Plans.

Unique and Patriotic Features Promised for the Big Affair—List of the Committees.

The various corps of the Department of the Potomac, Woman's Relief Corps, are preparing for the festival of American holidays, to be given in Willard Hall, from November 25 to 30, inclusive.

The room will be elaborately decorated and loaded in with goods representing the holidays, are displayed, will be an interesting feature of the occasion. The first day and evening will be in charge of Potomac and Farragut Corps. This will be George Washington day, and, of course, Martha and Mary, with numerous guests, will be there.

The costumes of ladies and gentlemen in the hotels and of those serving tea, will be patterned after those of a hundred years ago.

A genuine Martha Washington tea party will be held. A fine program is being prepared, consisting of solos, choruses, duets and quartets, while numerous recitations by some of Washington's best talent will be rendered.

The Potomac ladies always bring in something patriotic, and a flag drill, using the manual of arms, will be given, in which twelve young ladies are to take part. The recitation on the life of George Washington, and of course, Martha and Mary, with numerous guests, will be there.

Dancing will be indulged in from 9 until 11 o'clock. From the way tickets are being sold and the manner in which the women work, the whole affair will be a success, and the relief funds for the winter will be greatly increased.

The following are the committees for the first night's entertainment: Committee for George Washington's day, November 25—Orr arrangements—Mestman, Kalstrom, Pratt, Chambers, Maxwell, Lobb, with the Misses Shroy and Burgess.

Decorations—Medalones, Nichols, Kibbey, Dykes, Lavin, Mundell, Burdick, Beebe, Layton, Bonell, Birke, Koch, McCathran, Fuller, Horton, Woods, Bevin, Picking, Livingston, Morrison, Noers, Bowman, Specht, Krieger, Washington, Misses J. and M. Parker and Miss Jones.

Confectionery—Medalones, Ripley, Andrews, Thompson, Morrison, Shum, with the Misses Welmer, Parker, Kibbey, Marcan, and Siam.

Decorations—Medalones Fordham, Bradley, Spencer, Shastana, Funk, Morrison, Jones, and the Misses Horton, Luby, Harris, and Melner.

Mrs. Annus A. Peck will have charge of Burdick Corps' meeting. All the members of the corps are invited to attend these gatherings.

PRINCE OF CANNIAL ISLANDS. Young Men Who Will Possess an Income of $2,000,000 a Year.

The prince of the Eismarck Archipelago has been in the city for nearly two weeks, and left for his home yesterday on the steamer Alameda, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

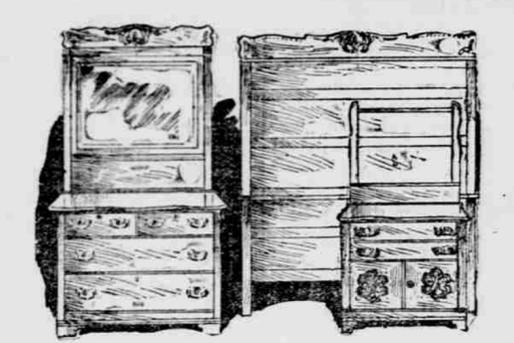

Although the young man is the most interesting character in the South Seas, it is hardly to be wondered at that his identity was not learned while he was at the Palace Hotel, for there he registered under his name, which is J. M. Coe Forsyth.

While he is the prince of the Oceanic coast as many as 250,000 inhabitants are dependent on him for their food. He spent the money with generosity. When he came to leave for his home quite a crowd gathered on the Oceanic dock to see him off. Among those present were members of the family of his grandfather, who was Jonas M. Coe, for many years consul of the United States at Samoa.

The archipelago potentate will go through to Sydney on the steamer Alameda. At Sydney the prince's own schooner, the Three Cheers, will be waiting to convey him to the Eismarck Islands, spots on the ocean that his mother owns outright. The palm-covered isles are not far from New Guinea and New Hebrides. On the latter island is the real residence of Coe Forsyth, but he is on the other islands much of his time.

To look at the young man no one would suspect that he is Crown Prince of the Cannial Islands and likely to be recognized as the only authority on the death of his mother. There is only a trace of native blood in his veins and his whole appearance is that of a stolid gentleman, more accustomed to European universities than to the wilderness of jungle islands under the equator. It is true, though, that on the Eismarck Archipelago are to be found about the only cannibals in this world that the missionaries have allowed to go unconverted. While these natives eat each other, they only indulge in this diet when the different tribes are at war.

EMRICH BEEF CO. SLAUGHTERING HOGS ALL DAY, 7 1-2 CENTS PER lb. EMRICH BEEF CO. Main Market, 1308-1312 32d st. n.w. Telephone, 347. Branch Markets—1715 14th st. n.w.; 2005 11th st. n.w.; 8th and M sts. n.w.; 307 9th st. n.w.; 21st and G sts. n.w.; 215 Indiana ave. n.w.; 245 and 1 st. n.w.; 4th and 10th sts. n.w.; 10th and 2d sts. n.w.; 12th and N. Y. ave. n.w.

This handsome Bed-room Suite, well-made, well-finished—bed, dresser, washstand, three chairs and oak table, 40-lb. hair mattress, excellent woven-wire spring—never sold anywhere at less than $38.50. Our price only $27.50.

Other splendid suits, in superior qualities, in curly birch, mahogany, bird's eye maple, quartered oak, etc.

We have also a fine line of odd dressers, in mahogany, curly birch, maple, white enamel, etc., which are very suitable to go with iron beds.

Furniture and Carpet Co.

THE JULIUS LANSBURGH

BUTTERINE

Better than the best Butter—that's our claim for our brands of Butterine. You may be prejudiced—probably you are—but prejudice vanishes before cold facts and good butter. Butterine is healthier than butter—never turns rancid. Butterine—our Butterine—is exceptionally clean and pure—

ALDENY CREAMERY is the best—it's the pound.

WILKINS & CO. Square Marble and Center Market.

PRINCE OF CANNIAL ISLANDS.

Young Men Who Will Possess an Income of $2,000,000 a Year.

The prince of the Eismarck Archipelago has been in the city for nearly two weeks, and left for his home yesterday on the steamer Alameda, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

Although the young man is the most interesting character in the South Seas, it is hardly to be wondered at that his identity was not learned while he was at the Palace Hotel, for there he registered under his name, which is J. M. Coe Forsyth.

While he is the prince of the Oceanic coast as many as 250,000 inhabitants are dependent on him for their food. He spent the money with generosity. When he came to leave for his home quite a crowd gathered on the Oceanic dock to see him off. Among those present were members of the family of his grandfather, who was Jonas M. Coe, for many years consul of the United States at Samoa.

The archipelago potentate will go through to Sydney on the steamer Alameda. At Sydney the prince's own schooner, the Three Cheers, will be waiting to convey him to the Eismarck Islands, spots on the ocean that his mother owns outright. The palm-covered isles are not far from New Guinea and New Hebrides. On the latter island is the real residence of Coe Forsyth, but he is on the other islands much of his time.

To look at the young man no one would suspect that he is Crown Prince of the Cannial Islands and likely to be recognized as the only authority on the death of his mother. There is only a trace of native blood in his veins and his whole appearance is that of a stolid gentleman, more accustomed to European universities than to the wilderness of jungle islands under the equator. It is true, though, that on the Eismarck Archipelago are to be found about the only cannibals in this world that the missionaries have allowed to go unconverted. While these natives eat each other, they only indulge in this diet when the different tribes are at war.

There are five groups of islands in the principality to which Coe Forsyth is now returning. While most of the islands are small, the number of them is so great that the aggregate amount of land owned by the young man's mother is 151,000 acres. She has been offered a half million dollars for her possessions, and has scornfully refused it, as it is believed that the pro-

Just Dropped. Little drops of nickel. In the slot machine. Makes the owner fatter. And the dropper leaner. Boston Courier.

Eisenmann's, 806 Seventh St. N. W. 1924-1926 Pa. Ave.