HORTON SPARRING BILL

Will Prove a Great Boon to the Sport in New York.

Legitimate Boxing Exhibitions Will Be Greatly Benefited by the Passage of the Measure as It Now Stands.

New York, April 28.—Lovers of boxing are pleased to learn that Governor Morgan has signed the Horton anti-sparring bill, which will do away with sparring contests in any place but regularly organized athletic clubs.

There is no doubt in the minds of lovers of the sport that the bill, as it stands, will benefit legitimate boxing exhibitions to a great extent. Heretofore a sparring exhibition would advertise certain bouts, and after the sports had paid the price of admission, they would, nine times out of ten, announce that, owing to so and so falling to show up, the club would have to put on an substitute bout.

The text of the bill is: Section 455 of the penal code is hereby amended to read as follows: Prize fighting and sparring exhibitions, adding therein, etc.—A person who, within this State, engages in, instigates, aids, encourages or does any act to further a contest, or fight, without weapons, between two or more persons, or a fight commonly called a ring or prize fight, either within or without the State, or who engages in a public or private sparring exhibition, with or without gloves, within the State, at which an admission fee is charged or received, either directly or indirectly, or who sends or publishes a challenge or accepts of a challenge for such contest, exhibition or fight, or carries or delivers such a challenge or acceptance, or trains or assists any person in training or preparing for such a contest, exhibition or fight, is guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, however, that sparring exhibitions with gloves of not less than five ounces in weight may be given in any building incorporated athletic association in a building leased by it for athletic purposes only for at least a year, or in a building owned and occupied by such association. This act shall take effect September 1, 1936.

Among the boxers. James Kennard of Leighton has been matched to fight to a finish with Joe Skidmore of Philadelphia for a $200 purse.

Billy Dacey, who is in Schenectady, would like to arrange a limited-round contest with Jack Everhardt before any club offering a reasonable purse.

Joe Mullins of South Boston, who defeated Mike Murphy in an eight-round contest at the New York A. C. on Saturday night, has been secured to meet Joe Flaherty of Lowell in a fifteen-round contest at a boxing show in the Empire Theater at Holyoke, Mass., on next Thursday night. They will meet at 145 pounds.

Tom Kelly, the "Boboken Cyclone," wants to get on a match with Charley Johnson.

Mike Fleming, champion 110-pound boxer of Massachusetts, is open to fight any man of his weight in Philadelphia before any prominent club.

Johnny Glynn, the Wilmington boxer, writes the Philadelphia Record that in his training for his match with Jack Lynch, he has run eight to ten miles, punched the bag for an hour and boxed six or eight rounds with friends. He is feeling good and will be down to weight. If he wins Glynn hopes to be matched with Casper Leon. The contest takes place next Monday night at Mosley's Hall, Wilmington, under the auspices of the Empire Social Club.

Goroum Wants to Wrestle. Alexander Goroum of the W. A. C. is out with a challenge to wrestle any 150 pound man in the District. An challenger will be received at the W. A. C., 6021 street northeast.

Connor is not a back number by any means.

Griffin is still in it with the best of the outfielders.

Donny Lyons seems to be playing in his old athletic form.

Louisville is not the only city that does not stand by the club when the team is losing. The attendance at New York shows a daily decrease.

Only eight National League clubs are scheduled to play today.

Hallman still keeps up his batting. To date he has an average of over .500.

Cross is rapidly improving in his new position, and he promises to play short as well as he did third base last year.

A Chicago newspaper canvassed the Windy City and found that the popular opinion prevailed among the fans of your Uncle Amos's being the Boston and Philadelphia would have it out for the pennant at the finish of the season.

The Baltimore Sun this morning says: "Umpire Tom Hunt is very popular in Washington and he promises to play short as well as he did third base last year."

New York, April 28.—President Freedman will not consent to the proposed deal for Rusie in exchange for McMahon and Hemming, of Baltimore. The Baltimore club proposed the exchange, which was not considered for a moment by the local officials.

"I will not consent to a trade, sale, exchange or any transaction whereby Rusie leaves the employ of the New York club. He will play ball with this club or not at all. He will not be traded to St. Louis for Reichenstein and Schmitt to boot, nor will he be exchanged. If Hanlon offers the entire Baltimore team for him, Rusie will play ball for New York at my terms, or quit the business."

NEW YORK AGAIN SHAKEN UP.

Pfeffer to Be Released and Gleason to Go Back to Second Base. New York, April 28.—Fred Pfeffer will probably be released by the New York club. After his work in yesterday's game was appraised to the majority of spectators that he could not play his old game, and that for the best interests of the team Gleason should be restored to the guardianship of second base.

In today's game with Boston the infield will receive another shake-up. Harry Davis will come back to cover first base, where he will remain. Gleason will cover second base, where he is much more at home than on third, and Connaughton will play shortstop. The latter will be supplanted by Fuller, however, as soon as "Short" is released. The outfield will remain as it is, and the pitching will be done by Clarke, Meekin and one other in regular turn. Bowen will try his hand against the Bostonians today.

LAST YEAR FOR NICHOLS.

Boston's Star Pitcher to Leave the Diamond at the End of the Season. Boston, April 28.—It may be that Pitcher Charley Nichols is getting in his bluff early, but certainly he is giving the Boston directors fair consideration with the pay he has been getting. He knows he is worth more money than the arbitrary limit set on the work of the ball players for his services, and now he proposes to play the limit himself.

In other words, he announces that at the close of the season he will quit baseball and go into business. It is no new move. He has contemplated it for some time. Boston without Nichols, would be all at sea.

Two seasons ago Nichols was promised some $200 if he pitched extra games. He pitched all required of him, but the next season the directors shut down on the scheme. This made Nichols feel sore.

Manager Seale has written home advising President Tilden to secure Philadelphia's financial support. Capt. Duffy thinks this player is a second Bertie, and would like him.

Breitenstein for Rusie. St. Louis, April 28.—President Von der Brugg has approved of the proposed trade of Rusie for Breitenstein that he would consider it under certain conditions. These conditions are probably for a cash consideration. Von der Brugg thinks that Rusie would fill the place in the hearts of the "fans" that Breitenstein occupies, and with cash to boot he would be just so much in. The exchange would not be at all popular here, and it is pretty certain that Freedman would not put up anything on the outside for the St. Louis twirler.

Giants Want a Wilmington Twirler. Wilmington, April 28.—The New York League team has offered $2,500 to Manager Long of the Wilmington team for Jerry Nops, the young left-handed pitcher, but Mr. Long refuses to let him go to them for less than $5,000. Nops will be the great strength of Wilmington for the league this season. He is not yet twenty-one years old and has been pitching professional ball for over a year.

BASEBALL NOTES.

The season is yet young.

Jordan, the crack pitcher of the Hazleton, Pa., threw his arm out yesterday in an exhibition game.

McGarr has apparently dropped out of the game. He was undoubtedly continue as a bench warmer as long as Delehanty's young brother is playing the game he has been for Cleveland.

Connor is not a back number by any means.

Griffin is still in it with the best of the outfielders.

Donny Lyons seems to be playing in his old athletic form.

Louisville is not the only city that does not stand by the club when the team is losing. The attendance at New York shows a daily decrease.

Only eight National League clubs are scheduled to play today.

Hallman still keeps up his batting. To date he has an average of over .500.

Cross is rapidly improving in his new position, and he promises to play short as well as he did third base last year.

LEAGUE REMARKED: "Had Koefe or any other umpire than Hurst given that decision the crowd would have booed and hissed him, but Hurst is so popular that not a word was said."

FITZ DOES SOME TALKING

Dan Stuart Meets the Champion in Baltimore.

REFUSED TO SIGN ARTICLES

Lanky Bob Still Insists That Corbett Must Meet Some Strong Young Pugilist Before He Will Even Consider the Proposition of Making a Match With Him.

Baltimore, April 28.—Mr. Daniel A. Stuart, who brought off the fight between Fitzsimmons and Maher, arrived in Baltimore last night, bringing the articles of agreement for a fight between James J. Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons. The contract had been signed by William A. Brady for Corbett.

The paper was submitted to Fitzsimmons and his manager, Martin Julian, in a parlor at the Carrollton Hotel late last night.

Mr. Julian said: "I want first to announce that Mr. Stuart has kept every promise made to us, and that what I shall say cannot in any way reflect upon him."

"To Mr. Stuart I repeat the determination which we have already reached. We shall not sign these articles of agreement until Corbett shall have met and defeated one strong, healthy, young pugilist, thus demonstrating his fitness to meet Fitzsimmons, the present holder of the championship title."

WHOM CORBETT MUST MEET. "He must meet Maher, Slavin, Hall, Chojnski, 'Denyer Ed' Smith or Goddard or any man of equal youth, health and stamina, to show that he can withstand the battle which Fitzsimmons believes himself able to give."

"We ask that he meet one man, whereas he insisted that Fitzsimmons should meet four or five. Fitzsimmons chased Corbett for three years about the country asking for a meeting."

He, Fitzsimmons put in, "Yes, five years."

Julian responded: "Well, we'll say three years that there may be no mistake. Now, to show that we do not want to avoid a fight or to lock up in a trunk the title which Fitzsimmons has won, let us make clear our position."

"Fitzsimmons will make a match with any white man living. He will give anybody a chance to earn the championship title except Corbett, and will meet Corbett just as soon as Corbett shall have met and defeated one of the men we have named, or any other man of similar powers, all fake fights and lay-downs barred, of course."

Mr. Stuart here put in: "But suppose Corbett refuses?"

Julian answered: "Then, Fitzsimmons will never meet him."

SUFFERED MUCH AT CORBETT'S HANDS. Fitzsimmons here interjected: "Don't say 'never.' I shall put at him surely some time. He is the man I have long been after, but I have suffered so much at his hands and he has made such hard conditions that I glory in a position where I can make conditions which he must fulfill."

Fitzsimmons was interviewed before the meeting at the Carrollton Hotel, and said: "I am thirty-four years of age, but I do not intend to keep him guessing. I think I could lick him today, but I want to give him a dose of the bad medicine he gave me."

"That belt he gave to Peter Maher was the original. It was a duplicate, and in my future fights I don't want any belts and I don't care who gives them."

In the conversation at the Carrollton both Julian and Fitzsimmons asserted that the attachments laid upon Fitzsimmons' feet were due to Corbett and Brady, who used legal methods to put off the previous match, and Mr. Stuart was called upon to corroborate statements that Fitzsimmons had authorized a match with Corbett, with any conditions for a fight with Corbett. Fitz agreed to stop Corbett in a limited number of rounds.

YALE AND PENNSYLVANIA Reconciliation Between the Two Colleges Practically Assured. A Friendly Feeling Is Being Fostered and They May Meet on the Football Field This Year.

The athletic relations between Yale and University of Pennsylvania are seemingly becoming more friendly every day, and from present indications it is not at all improbable that a resumption of athletic contests between these two universities will be an event of the near future. The first evidences of a return of friendly feelings between these two colleges were evinced by Pennsylvania when she advocated the admission of Yale into the quad-partite race. Following closely on this, Chairman Townsend of Pennsylvania's baseball committee, announced that he had scheduled a game of baseball between the Yale law school team and the "rarsity" freshman team, to be played on Franklin Field. This was another straw that indicated the direction in which the wind was blowing. Shortly after this announcement an effort was made to arrange for a freshman boat race between the Blue and the Red, which was not successful. However, ever-advice emanating from New Haven at that time stated that "there is universal regret expressed at Yale that the willingness of Pennsylvania to arrange a freshman contest with Yale was not known earlier. The feeling of Yale for the University of Pennsylvania has grown very friendly this spring, owing to the assurances given Yale of support if the blue would enter the four-corned race."</
