

BOTH HOUSES PASS DISTRICT BILLS

Twelve Acted Upon in Senate and One in House.

LOCAL CALENDAR IS CLEARED

Measures before the Senate have been favorably considered in previous sessions—Retail Grocers Ask a Sunday Rest Bill—Eight Hours of Labor for Women.

The calendars of both the House and Senate were swept clean of District of Columbia bills yesterday. Regarding the former body, this did not mean a great deal for it had but one District measure on its calendar. In the Senate, however, twelve District bills, reported favorably from the committee heretofore, were considered and passed, as follows:

Authorizing the approval of the District to adopt the system of designating land in force in the office of the assessor.

To receive advances of $250,000 per annum, in District of Columbia, for the purpose of maintaining and repairing the streets of the District.

STATEHOOD RESOLUTION WILL PASS HOUSE TODAY

Debate Has Been of Great Interest to Members of Congress who are Lawyers.

In the House of Representatives for the past week there has been in progress a somewhat remarkable season of debate on the resolution to ratify the constitutions of New Mexico and Arizona. With the termination of debate today and the vote on the resolution, there will come to an end what many lawyers of the House have termed a genuine legal feast. For the first time in the history of the House there has been opportunity for direct debate on the momentous question involved in "new idea" Statehood, such as now exist in Oregon, California, Washington and other communities where there is a decided change from the order of things. The initiative, referendum, and recall are strongly intertwined in the questions involved in the ratification of the constitutions of New Mexico and Arizona, and the legal minds of the House have found material for interesting discussion such as has not presented itself in the debates of years.

Although nearly two-thirds of the House members are either out of town or engaged in private business, waiting for the Ways and Means Committee to report its recommendations regarding the wool schedule, handful of those who remain in intricate points of law have been in attendance each day. From 11 o'clock each morning until nearly 11 in the evening the speaker-making has gone on steadily. In fact, there have not been over twenty representatives in the hall of the House, but these have been interested and even fascinated listeners to the proceedings.

SUICIDE RUSE FAILS TO COVER UP ELOPEMENT

Frenchman's Plot to Fool Wife Discovered by Disciples of Detective Lecoq in Police Department.

Special Cable to the Washington Herald. Quebec, Canada, May 22.—The mystery of the disappearance of Ferdinand Darabadi, a wealthy Frenchman, well known in the social life of Paris, who was believed to have been drowned in the Seine two weeks ago, was cleared up with the arrival here today of the Canadian Pacific steamship Lake Manitoba. Among the passengers, traveling under assumed names as man and wife, were M. Darabadi and Miss Helene Benoit, nineteen years old, who, before her sudden departure, a governess in the household of her traveling companion. M. Darabadi and the young woman were listed on the steamship as Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wye, and pretended to be very independent when taken from the vessel at this port by Canadian immigration officers. They persistently denied their identity until examined separately, when they acknowledged they had eloped. The tracing of the couple on the high seas was similar to the case of Dr. Crisp-

WILL REOPEN LORIMER CASE IN THE SENATE

Practically Unanimous Opinion Favors Investigation.

TWO METHODS PROPOSED

Shall the Regular or a Special Committee Act.

Both Senator Dillingham and Senator La Follette Present Resolutions for Another Inquiry—Wisconsin Senator Spends Afternoon in Discussing the Case—Speech Commands Much Attention.

At an executive session of the House yesterday, the Lorimer case was made clear to the Senate, as well as Republicans, as to whether the investigation shall be entrusted to the Privileges and Elections Committee or to a special committee, as provided for in the La Follette resolution.

TWO RESOLUTIONS PROPOSED.

The case of the junior Senator from Illinois, whose election, it is charged, resulted from bribery and corruption, was again brought to life in the Senate yesterday when Senator La Follette presented his views as to why there should be a reopening of the case and an investigation by an independent committee. The Senator did not conclude, but announced his purpose to continue his remarks today.

GERMANY INVITED TO MAKE TREATY

Knox Willing to Discuss Arbitration with All.

The German government has been formally invited by Secretary of State Knox that the United States is willing to negotiate with Germany a general arbitration treaty, submitting all future disputes to arbitration, which would be similar to the conventions now being arranged between the United States and France and the United States and Great Britain. There have, however, been no diplomatic interchanges on the subject.

CONGRESSIONAL BRIEFS.

Barrow-in-Furness, England, May 22—England's giant naval airship, the largest in the world, was successfully launched here today. The weather was fine, and a great crowd saw the official ceremonies.

Chicago, May 22—The plant of the Northwestern Can Company, at 320 Orleans street, was destroyed by fire this morning, entailing a loss of more than $100,000.

Boston, May 22—Mrs. John L. Gardner, known throughout America as "Mrs. Jack" Gardner, is so seriously ill at her world famous Fenway home today that her friends are gravely alarmed. Mrs. Gardner has been in the limelight for many years because of her spectacular financial profligacy.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 22—The Federal court here today declared the grandfather clause in the State law, virtually disfranchising negroes, to be unconstitutional. The clause, which was a Democratic measure, would have barred 80,000 negroes from the polls.

Harrisburg, Penn., May 22—Because she objected to his attentions to her daughter, Bert Newlin attacked and killed Mrs. Fred Baldwin here today.

New York, May 22—Mrs. Garone Schroeder today killed herself and her two children by illuminating gas in their home, 130 Coffey street, Brooklyn, after writing to a friend to come to the house. All were dead when found.

While riding on the hub of the front wheel of an electric delivery wagon belonging to Frazer's laundry yesterday afternoon Isiah Gordon, colored, living at 125 E street northwest, slipped and fell under the wheel, receiving injuries that necessitated his removal to the Emergency hospital. The physician says the injuries are internal and his condition is serious.

TAILORING TALKS.

By J. FRED GATCHELL, 928 Fourteenth Street (Opposite Franklin Park).

I took good care to have plenty of the very light weights among my selections in this special lot of Suitings. They'll fit into this weather nicely. Splendid patterns, fine weaves. They'll make up light as a feather; hold their shape nicely. Absolute comfort without sacrificing any of the style points.

A critical test, too, of my workmanship. Takes good tailoring to make these light weights stand up under the strain of service. But you've got my guarantee back of you always. A Gatchell Suit has to CONTINUE TO BE SATISFACTORY. I don't consider I've canceled my obligation to you at the beginning of your wearing it by any means.

These weaves that you'll make selection from belong in Suits 25 PER CENT higher in price than I offer to make them up—and I'll make them up as they should be made—so at $25 to $40 you are really SAVING TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

That will suit you all right, won't it?

It's up to you. I've got the goods ready; it only requires that you make your selection, and let me take the measure.

NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

A Poured Cement House.

Alexandria, Va., May 22—Thursday next will be clean-up day in this city, under the auspices of the Civic Improvement League. A proclamation will be issued by Acting Mayor Marbury, calling upon the citizens to respond to the call and assist the league in making the town a spotless one.

Extra carts will be employed to carry away refuse to the city's dump. Trash placed in barrels and other receptacles and left at convenient points for the drivers will be removed.

Having lost his pink slip for his laundry, Archie R. B. Onyun was compelled to report to the courts to obtain his immaculate white linen this morning. Lee Soon appeared as defendant. He little understood what Onyun told the court, although he knew he was after his laundry. The court settled the case with dispatch by directing that Lee turn over to Onyun laundry which he may identify as his property.

An unoccupied two-story frame dwelling house in Wythe street, between Washington and St. Asaph streets, was destroyed by fire this morning. The house was owned by Charles Ewald. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

A slight fire occurred shortly after 5 o'clock at the store of C. R. Yates, Fairfax and Duke streets. The damage was small.

Several shots fired on North Henry street shortly after 3 o'clock to-night attracted considerable attention. The police are investigating.

Special services will be held Thursday morning next at St. Mary's Catholic Church in observance of Ascension Thursday. Masses will be celebrated at 6 and 8:30 o'clock. Confessions will be heard Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock, which is the usual hour.

A fine of $25 was imposed in the Police Court today in the case of John Blackburn, negro, charged with assaulting Lizzie Means, negro, and also charged with destroying a quantity of furniture which is alleged he burned Saturday afternoon last.

Peter Proctor, a negro, arrested on suspicion of having broken into the residence of his uncle in Fairfax County and stolen a number of articles, was today arraigned before Justice Wright in Fairfax County, and held for the action of the grand jury.

Two youths yesterday entered the office of the lumber mill of H. K. Field & Co.

RIVAL FACTIONS MAP OUT FIGHT

Upper Marlboro, Md., May 22—The feud between the rival factions of the Democratic party in Prince George County, has reached an acute stage.

For some months following the last Congressional election, it had no fresh outbreaks, but mutterings and recriminations were made, and new alignments without number were planned.

The antagonism came to a head last Saturday in Washington City, where the two wings held separate conferences, and each mapped out its plans of battle. That the fight will be to a finish is the belief of all who are acquainted with the men and matters concerned.

The Claggett forces, twenty-one in number, met at Mader's Hotel in Washington, Saturday, and nominated a county ticket.

The anti-Claggett forces, about 20 strong, with representatives from each one of the election precincts in the county, met at Mader's Hotel at 2 o'clock p. m. on Saturday, to prepare an independent ticket.

THE AVIATOR.

I saw the aviator soar far in the windswept void, and said: "He really ought to be more usefully employed. He's apt to fall a hundred miles should pinions break or bend, and while such things amuse the crowd, they're serving no good end. Some day he'll break his swanlike neck while painting cloudland red; and if he's useless when alive, he's more so when he's dead. I have no wish to soar aloft and ride the sweeping gale; I'll keep on raising prairie hay, and sell it, bale by bale. The man who makes two bales of hay come forth where one has grown contributes to the public good and earns a half a bone." "The man who flies," my neighbor said, "will gather in more dough than you will get for all the hay from here to Jericho. And though his airship often sails above a field of wrecks, he entertains a jaded world—a world of rubber-necks. Some people think," my neighbor said, "that no one's doing good, unless he's growing bales of hay and other breakfast food; but any man who takes our thoughts away from toil and care contributes to the public good a large and handsome share."

WALT MASON.

One Way of Saving a Baby—Free to Try

The mother does not live who would not do all in her power to keep her child healthy, but often she does not know how. So when a doctor tells her to give anything else, these are only a few among thousands of women.

You can buy a fifty-cent or one-dollar bottle of any near-by druggist, for they have all sold it for a generation, but if you want to test it on your child first send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will cheerfully send you a free sample bottle.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver, and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. He will send you a free sample bottle of his remedy, and if you wish, he will send you a free sample of his medicine, and if you wish, he will send you a free sample of his medicine, and if you wish, he will send you a free sample of his medicine.

Try a scientific laxative first. Give a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the remedy that is intended for the use of children. It is mild, gentle, and non-irritating. The remedy absolutely pure and is guaranteed in every particular. Mrs. Toomey, of Emoryville, Pa., and Mrs. Fred Croma, of Alanson, Mich., never give their children anything else. These are only a few among thousands of women.
