

RETURNS FROM A WESTERN JAUNT.

Mr. A. H. West, a popular Buckeye, who is well and favorably known in this city, has just returned from his native heath, Xenia, Ohio, where he went to cast his vote, and to use his influence in swelling Ohio's majority for Roosevelt and Fairbanks. Xenia is the principle town in Green County, O., and is known as the city of the Tawawa Springs. These health giving waters made it a resort for the aborigines in the colonial days of American history. Mr. West is one of the home boys, and is popular with the home folks. He received many evidences of the high esteem in which he is held by his neighbors during his brief stay, and he regrets that he can not enumerate the many social functions tendered him in his honor.

The Twentieth Century Club, a crack social club of Xenia, made it very pleasant for him on the evening of November 17th, by giving an entertainment in his honor. The arrangements were in the hands of two members of the club: Mrs. Marie Williams and Mrs. Victoria Smith. They managed the entertainment to the satisfaction of all. The club is composed of the elite of Xenia's young social set, whose special object is to establish a kindergarten school.

Miss Selena C. Gaines was chosen and prepared for the work, because of her special fitness, and being prominent in the social circles of Xenia as well as an alumnus of the high school. She is a charming young lady, and a magnificent worker. The best people in the social life of Xenia are represented in this club. The officers and members are as follows:

Miss Selena C. Gaines, President; Miss Osee Towles, Vice-Pres.; Miss Mamie Gaines, Secretary; Miss M. P. Cruisman, Cor. Sec'y; Mrs. Lydia Scott, Treasurer. Members, Misses Louise Payne, Susie M. Russell, Laura V. Phelps, Carrie E. Butler, Beulah Underwood, Lilla D. Brown, Mrs. Elizabeth Hatcher, Mrs. Victoria Smith, Mrs. Marie Williams, Mrs. Ella M. Criss, Mrs. Amanda Meeks, Mrs. Florence Scott, Anna Fishback, Anna Banks, Cora Hawkins.

Mr. James N. Spurgeon, ex-secretary of the Liberian Navigation and Steamship Company was in the city last week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Pendleton. Mr. Spurgeon is a high Mason and an active Shriner, and took advantage of the Shriner's meet in this city.

The Saks $15 Business Suit

SAKS garments have been designed and fashioned to do more than merely clothe a man—to dress him with dignity and becomingness. While we have brought to bear an unusual amount of stress upon the appearance of our garments, yet we have not lost sight of the fact that the service they shall render is just as important as their appearance. Consequently we have taken unusual care in their construction, and by so doing are enabled to absolutely guarantee them.

Sack Suits in twelve distinct single and double-breasted models of Cheviot, Thibet, Cassimere or Worsted.
