Regulars and Yannigans Play Extra Inning Game

Regulars Twice Come from Behind and Tie Up Contest—Johnson Stars at Bat, Getting Four Hits.

By JOHN A. DUGAN.

North Augusta, S. C., April 2.—As a farewell to "Little Old Augusta" the Nationals staged a ten-inning 6-to-6 battle at Warren Field this afternoon between the Regulars and Yannigans. It was the best workout the squad has had to date, but because of the hard grind which the athletes have been going through, the Old Fox called the affair off at the end of the tenth, although the players on each team attempted to have a decision reached.

Griff worked a quartet of his youngsters in this battle—Dumont and Craft each going five frames for the Regulars, while Yingling and Waldbauer held the firing line for the same number of innings for the youngsters. It was a nip-and-tuck affair from going to gong, with timely swatting featuring. The Yans were on two occasions out in front, but the Regulars were equal to the task each time and managed to shoot through enough runs in the final session to come out with honors even. The Cubs jumped into the lead in the opening frame when Cass beat out an infield blow and moved up a peg when Ayers looked over four wide ones. Walter Johnson then crashed to center field and June raced across the counting block; but McBride's effort was a forced double play, which killed off the chances of further scoring.

Regulars Even the Count.

In the third the regulars evened the count when Shotton tripled to right field and scored when Yingling cut loose a wild throw.

The Yannigans came right back in the next frame and grabbed off the lead. Johnson opened with a two-base whack to left field while McBride drew a pass. Garrity struck out but Uncle Nick was Johnny on the spot as he banged a single through the infield into the right territory which allowed both base runners easy romping to the plate.

Al Waldbauer allowed the veterans to forge to the front for the first time in the seventh when he started them off by passing Morgan and Lavan. Garrity forced the watch charm second sacker, at the far corner and Craft popped out, but the regulars were not to be denied as Bert Shotton smacked one on the nose to left field which tallied Lavan and Garrity, the speed merchant taking the midway sack on the throw-in. Foster grounded to Waldbauer, Richmond semi-pro in making his third hit, and Johnson fielded bleachers and Bert jumpy to the dish. The Cubs evened the matters again in the eighth after two hands were out when Johnson hit safely for the first time. He caught the Kansas Cyclone napping, but Morgan gummed the play by heaving wild to Judge and Johnson pulled up at third. McBride followed with a blow along the left field foul line, sending Walter across the pan.

The tenth session was the real lining of the game, as after the youngsters obtained a two-run lead by some timely hitting the regulars stepped in and evened things again. Waldbauer paved the way for the Cubs with a crash to center and moved along on Craft's wild heave. Cass and Ayers both popped out, but Johnson landed safely again and Waldbauer caught Walter taking second on the throw in. McBride poled one over Milan's head in the center garden and Walter easily made his scoring register. With one down in the regulars' half, Garrity hit to right. Craft forced him out at the midway station, but Shotton hit in the same direction, placing Mollie on third. Berman attempted to catch Craft off the bag and pegged to left field, both base runners scoring before the pill could be hustled into the diamond again.

Bartimas Wins Out.

In the third block of the pocket billiard match played at the Grand Central parlors between Bartimas and Dickaut, the former won out after some brilliant work by a score of 35 to 24. Dickaut made a game fight to overcome the lead of his opponent, but could not catch up in the last night of play.

On Thursday night Frank Sherman will play Prof. Wheatley, for the benefit of the Red Cross, a special match at the pocket billiard game. Frank is a past master, and he has played in all the big pocket billiard tournaments held in this country in the past few years.

This will be the most interesting exhibition of the game, as both men are artists in their line and will demonstrate their ability before the large crowd that is sure to be present to help a worthy cause. The advanced sale of tickets is assurance that it is of great interest to the fans of the cue game.

GOVERNOR EDGE HAS NAMED COMMISSION

Trenton, N. J., April 2.—Governor Edge today appointed a State boxing commission as provided by law legalizing eight round bouts. W. E. Cann, of Elizabeth; George S. Crane, of East Orange; and John Smith, of Atlantic City, were named. In making the announcement today the governor stated he had called the men to his office and impressed them with the responsibility of conducting clean sports in the State.

CORNEAU GOES INTO "Y" WORK

Charpentier's Trainer to Be Physical Director for Part of the French Army.

Paris, March 7.—Raymond Corneau, the man who taught Charpentier, the champion French boxer, how to fight, has gone in the American Y. M. C. A. service.

Corneau has a system of training all his own. He gets results—in the ring and out of it.

He is now a "Y" physical director of part of the French army. He is assigned to one of the Foyers du Soldats, the "Y" huts for the poilu. He works under Dr. G. S. Meylan, professor of physical education in Columbia University, now in Y. M. C. A. work in France.

"Charpentier," says Dr. Meylan, "wages his battles like Sullivan and Fitzsimmons used to wage theirs. He puts every ounce of his strength into them, fights with might and main, and knows absolutely nothing about the word 'quit.'"

Charpentier holds the heavy-weight championship of Europe. He won it over Bombardier Wells, the British fighter. In their first meetings in Brussels Charpentier triumphed in the fourth round. Later in London he landed victory in exactly seventy-three seconds. Three successes over Wells made him undisputed leader of Europe in the heavy-weight class.

The fact that Charpentier was then but eighteen years old and weighed seventy pounds less than his opponent made his victories the more remarkable. Corneau, as his trainer, came in for no little glory.

Charpentier's admirers thought the world's championship was easily within his reach.

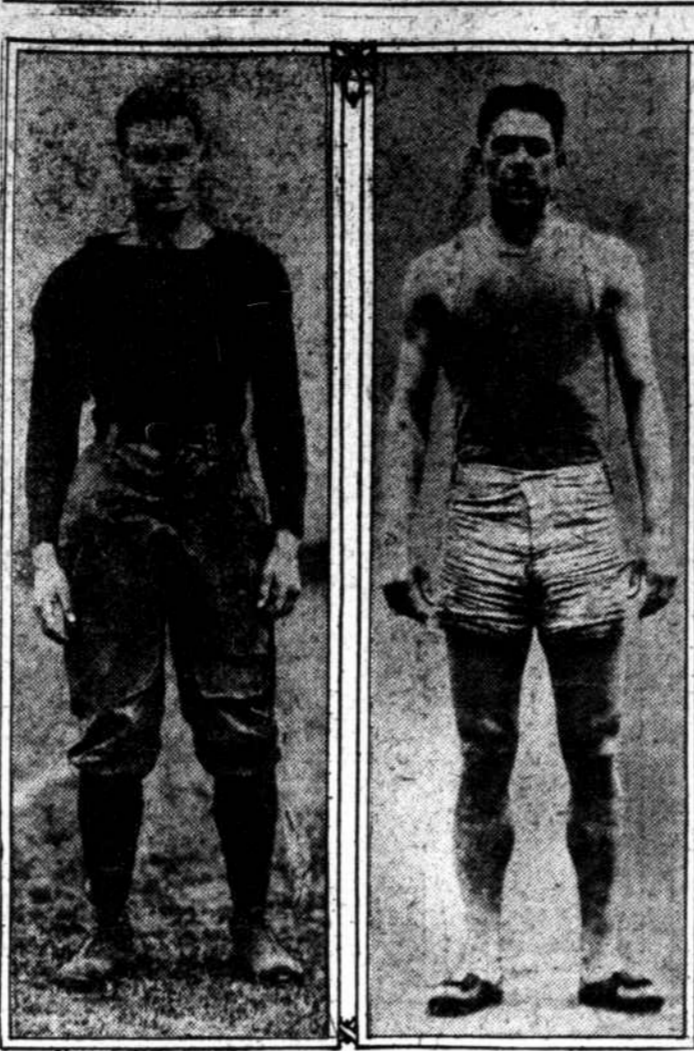

Then the war broke out. Charpentier and Corneau both went into the French army, the former with the aviation service, the latter with his regiment.

In Corneau's regiment eighty soldiers failed to come up to standard physically. Corneau suggested systematic work to develop these men. The suggestion was not adopted. Corneau was a private.

A little later Corneau had a chance with the fifteen-year-old son of a French colonel to show what his method of training could accomplish. Immediately his proposal to take hold of the eighty deficient men in his regiment was accepted and he started to work.

The upshot of it was that Corneau came into the Y. M. C. A. to devote all of his time to building up the men who need it.

"Hobey" Baker and Ted Meredith Praised by French.

Ted Meredith and "Hobey" Baker, noted American athletes, are now in the aviation service in France. Baker has won two victories in the air. Both were mentioned in a recent dispatch from the French, who show an appreciation of the work done by the American aviators. The dispatch, quoting the French paper, Petit Parisien, in part, reads as follows:

"Our American allies, who are beginning to re-enforce our numbers, are already proving their value. They are sportsmen and show much interest in the training of pilots.

"Among them let us cite the holder of the world's record for running, Ted Meredith, who is finishing his instruction somewhere in France. The famous football and hockey player, Hobey Baker, is already at the front and has two victories to his credit.

"We can have confidence in the aid brought by the American pilots. Before long 3,000 of them, perfectly trained, will take their place in the ranks of the allied army."

Cambridge, Mass., April 2.—Harvard's baseball schedules for the varsity and freshman teams were announced today. Each team has eight games. Two games each with Yale and Princeton are the only intercollegiate contests on the varsity list.

The other four games are with service teams. The season opens April 24 with Princeton at Cambridge and closes June 1 with Yale at New Haven. The schedule is as follows:

April 24, Princeton at Cambridge; May 1, Portland Naval Reserve at Cambridge; 4, Commonwealth Pier at Cambridge; 8, Camp Devens at Ayer; 11, Yale at Cambridge; 18, Newport Naval Reserve at Cambridge; 25, Princeton at Princeton; June 1, Yale at New Haven.

Mike O'Dowd Retires From Pugilistic World

Camp Dodge, Iowa, April 2.—Another ring champion has retired from the pugilistic world to devote his attention to the Huns. Mike O'Dowd, middle-weight champion, who has been stationed here for more than a month will probably do no more fighting in defense of his title until after the war. He has been assigned special duties which will not permit him to appear in the ring.

Caldwell's Promise.

Ray Caldwell seems to be fired with new ambition. He reported to Miller Huggins at Mason in fine shape and has been working with much energy ever since. Caldwell has surprised the Yankees' mite manager by promising to win thirty games this year. Of course, this feat depends on the batting and fielding ability of the New York Americans. Caldwell scored nineteen victories for the Yankees in 1915, which was his best record in the American League.

YOKELL MEETS TURNER IN WRESTLING MATCH

Mike Yokell, the Salt Lake City grappler, will make his last appearance in the East this season when he meets Joe Turner in a finish wrestling match at the Lyceum Theater Friday night. Mike owns a ranch out near Jackson Hole, Wyoming, where he spends most of his time during the summer, and where he is kept busy raising cattle. He has saved his money, earned by wrestling, and don't need to worry about the future. When Father Time overtakes him he can retire from the wrestling game and settle down on his ranch.

Mike got his start in Salt Lake City several years ago, and after making a small fortune at the grappling game staked a homestead in Wyoming, and since then has bought all the land for miles around and his ranch is one of the largest in the State. Like most other athletes, he is in the wrestling game for the money, but at the same time sticks to the game because he likes the sport. He has been right at the top of the ladder for the past ten or twelve years and has always had the support of the sport-loving public, as his reputation is in condition to put forth for he is a clean wrestler.

No matter who wins, the bout promises to be the best that has been witnessed here for a long time, as both have trained faithfully and should be in condition to put forth their best efforts. Yokell has wired Manager McGeorge that he is satisfied with the selection of Pat O'Connor as referee.

ARMY-NAVY BOXING SHOW.

Leonard, McFarland and Kilbane in Great Patriotic Tournament.

Cleveland, April 2.—A permit has been issued for a patriotic boxing show featuring Bennie Leonard, Jack McFarland and probably Johnny Kilbane, to be held here April 4 by the Cleveland Athletic Club, the proceeds to be divided between the athletic equipment funds at Camp Taylor, Louisville and the Great Lakes Naval Training Station at Chicago.

Leonard, McFarland and Kilbane will meet opponents named by the club in 6-round exhibition bouts. The show will include bouts between champions in six classes from Camp Taylor, and the title holders in the same classes from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

S. Alban's Opens Season.

St. Alban's will open its baseball season on Saturday afternoon when it is scheduled to meet the Western High school nine.

This will be the first meeting of these two teams for the year and both are looking forward to a hard fought contest.

Favorites and Contenders Divide Card at Bowie Track

Several Horses Failed to Come Up to Expectations—Three Favorites Disposed of Field.

By HIGHWAY.

Favorites and contenders divided the card pretty evenly in a good afternoon's racing provided at the Bowie race course for the second of their twelve day spring meeting yesterday.

Several horses which were heavily backed failed to come up to expectations, but in three of the events odds-on favorites easily disposed of their fields.

Another great crowd was on hand to enjoy an afternoon of unmarred sport. Train accommodations were excellent both from Washington and Baltimore and the two specials which left after the last race for Washington arrived in record time. It had been anticipated that there would be a great deal of trouble this year in providing good transportation facilities for racegoers, but officials had succeeded in smoothing out all difficulties, it is evident.

Fact that the mingling of the horses which have been racing during the winter and the ones which have trained in this vicinity is baffling turf enthusiasts in picking the winners is shown by the fact that several ponies of undisputed class are being permitted to go to the posts poorly supported in the mutuels.

Yesterday was a record in the way of scratches, there being only three on the whole card.

Onico, the star in J. M. Zimmerman's stable, fulfilled the generous expectations of those who have followed his improvement and beat a field of good ones in the smart time of 1:37 1-5, which equals the track record.

Poor showing of Miss Burgoonster and The Masquerader, two "sure things," came as a keen disappointment to many local patrons with whom these two horses are popular. Miss Burgoonster, after assuming an easy lead, quit as she came into the stretch.

An excellent card is provided for today, the third day of the meeting, and if the present good weather continues another record crowd is expected to adjourn Bowieward this afternoon. The summary:

FIRST RACE—Maiden 2-year-olds, four furlongs. Wewaka, 114 (Traylor), 4:30, 2-5; Mrs. Kate Lytlecker, 114 (Parrington), 5:30, third. Time, 2:45. Bums, A. W. W. Wermuth Girl, Loving Lady, Milda also ran.

THIRD RACE—Selling 3-year-olds, five and one-half furlongs. Onico, 103 (Rodriguez), 5:30, 2-50, 2-50; Ormsy, 102 (Morgan), 4:30, 7-10, second; The Per Tot, 99 (McAtwee), 5:30, third. Gubin, Louise W. Arrowsmith, Tolrance and Frenchy also ran.

BETWEEN BUGLINGS

By HIGHWAY.

William G. Brooke, secretary of the Prince George's Park, announced yesterday that the present Bowie meeting would continue for twelve days and not thirteen as had at first been thought. Through an error officials have been figuring on a thirteen-day rest between the Bowie and Havre de Grace meetings.

Jockey Trotter, the grand veteran of the turf, holds an untarnished record for the first two days of the meeting. He has had three mounts and won all of them; both of the 2-year-old races and on Master Karma yesterday.

Playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the Bowie Band each day is becoming an inspirational sight at the track.

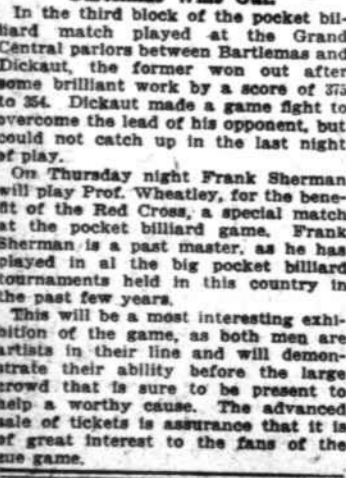

Between the first and second races yesterday a woman arose in the stands and made an impassioned plea for woman suffrage. She was applauded until the cry "they're off" was heard, after which she was promptly forgotten.

"Dick" Pendine, the popular superintendent of the track, is a busy man these days taking care of the multitudinous little details so necessary to the continuance of such successful racing as is being provided.

There were a number of distinguished guests at the track yesterday, including two Maryland Congressmen, who are ardent turf fans.

Varsity Not to Appear.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 2.—The Syracuse varsity crew will not compete in the regatta on the Severn on May 18, it was decided today. A freshman eight will row on that date, however.
