

MINIMUM OF $5 ASKED BY POLICE

Union Charges Privates Are Slighted in Proposed Wage Increase.

Washington police will demand a minimum wage of $5 a day, at a meeting of the newly formed Policemen's Union Friday evening.

The union is protesting against the provisions of the wage increase bill submitted yesterday to the House District Committee by Commissioner Louis Brownlow.

It is charged that the increase proposed for privates is inadequate, while those asked for major, assistant superintendents and officers are exorbitant.

Provisions of Bill. The bill provides for the following: Increase the salary of the major and superintendent of police from $400 to $600.

Increase the salary of assistant superintendents from $350 to $500. Increase salary of inspectors from $200 to $250.

Increase salary of captains from $200 to $250. Increase salary of lieutenants from $100 to $150.

Increase salary of sergeants from $100 to $150. Increase salary of privates of Class I from $120 to $150.

Increase salary of privates of Class II from $100 to $140. Increase salary of privates of Class III from $100 to $120.

Expect A. F. of L. Aid. It is expected that the American Federation of Labor will back the union in its fight for the $5 a day minimum wage.

The bill as drafted was submitted to the House committee yesterday, and Representative Carl E. Mapez promised to bring it before the House today if an agreement could be reached with the Senate committee.

Unless the measure can be brought to the attention of the House this week, it will have to wait until after the September recess.

Several members of the House yesterday objected to the bill coming before the House until some action had been taken on the proposed investigation of the Washington police department.

BUREAU OF ENGRAVING AND PRINTING NEWS

The friends of Edward F. Genoe, superintendent in the printing division, will regret to learn of his hurried trip to Philadelphia on account of the death of his father. The elder Mr. Genoe died last Saturday.

Talk about second childhood! Saw Larry Chick, of Section 4, trying out his children's toys the other evening on Kenyon street hill. First he made the boy's tricycle, and later, standing on the rear axle of his little girl's tricycle.

David Davis, foreman of the dry sex, is taking a few days' leave.

HERRICK SEEKS THE PRESIDENCY

Boom Started for Former Ambassador by California Paper.

Myron T. Herrick really is a candidate for the Republican nomination for the Presidency. Otherwise the Sacramento, California, Union would not say so. That is the way Republican politicians yesterday looked upon an editorial printed in the Sacramento paper.

Emphasis was given the editorial by the fact that former Ambassador Herrick recently finished the deal by which the Sacramento paper was taken over. It was rumored at first that the Union had been bought by Herbert Hoover for some of his former associates, but the development that Herrick financed the deal and that the paper now springs his name for the Presidency causes Republicans to believe that the paper is the private property of the Ohioan.

Naturally the following editorial has caused Senator Harding, also of Ohio, who is an aspirant for the Presidency, to do a lot of thinking: "From a source which we regard as highly reliable the Union has learned that Myron T. Herrick, former governor of Ohio, and former Ambassador to France, is being quietly groomed for the Republican Presidential nomination."

"Herrick is a standpater, but unlike the average member of that peculiar diminishing group, he is amenable to change and must be reckoned with as a power among the farmers. He was appointed to the rural life commission by President Roosevelt, and since that time has devoted much of his time and ability to the solution of agricultural problems. His brief record as American Ambassador to France made him many friends, and his war-time work added to his prestige. If the Republicans are determined to nominate a standpater they might do much worse than select Herrick."
