"To me he seems one of the greatest of living men, because his work is unique; the modern Moses, who leads his race and lifts it through education to even better and higher things than a land overflowing with milk and honey. History is to tell of two Washingtons—one white, the other black—both fathers of their people."—Andrew Carnegie.