A. THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE

REVIEW OF THE ATLANTA CAMPAIGN

GENERAL ORDERS No. 151.

Washington, D.C., April 4, 1863.

OFFICERS OF THE FIFTEENTH CAVALRY

PICTURE AND SCOUTING

INCIDENTS IN THE HISTORY OF THE SIXTEENTH BRIGADE, ARMY OF THE CUMBERLAND.

GRAVIE'S BELGIAN

NOTED ORDER.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 84.

Washington, D.C., April 4, 1863.

The Commander-in-Chief has directed that General McPherson's brigade be transferred from the Army of the Cumberland to the Army of the Ohio.}

THE BAYONET HOUSE.

A Company of Soldiers, 4th Illinois Cavalry, has been organized and mustered into the service of the United States for three years. This company is composed of men from the towns of Aurora, Plano, and Sandwich, Ill., and is commanded by Captain John A. McPherson, Jr.

The men of the company are ready to serve their country,
and are well prepared for the duties of their officer. They are a fine body of soldiers, and will be a credit to the 4th Illinois Cavalry.

The company is composed of men from Aurora,
Plano, and Sandwich, Ill., and is
commanded by Captain John A. McPherson, Jr.

The men of the company are ready to serve their country,
and are well prepared for the duties of their
officer. They are a fine body of soldiers, and will be a credit to the 4th Illinois Cavalry.

The company is composed of men from Aurora,
Plano, and Sandwich, Ill., and is
commanded by Captain John A. McPherson, Jr.

The men of the company are ready to serve their country,
and are well prepared for the duties of their
officer. They are a fine body of soldiers, and will be a credit to the 4th Illinois Cavalry.