Jas. BWJWSWWSW!-

Pearls, trimmers, and Ladies' Shoes. 15c. each.大人性. Thank you.

NEW STREET, Minneapolis.

McClure's Magazine

For JUNE, 1898.

General Fitzhugh Lee.
The Personal Impressions of Spanish Rule in Cuba.
The country of the reconquest of William and Bernardo, the

BEHIND BARRIERS, and a novel of the Spanish American War.

Songs of the New Navy,

By James Barone.

Special cover of the story of John, the Black Dog and the Black Gown.
The best songs of the present

An American in Manila,

By J. E. Stevens.

Mr. Noyes was for some time in Manila and gave a

The Household of the Hundred Thousand.

By Ira Seymour.

Social life in the Army of the Union, with many incidents and stories of

How the War Began,

By Stephen B. O'Sullivan.

The history of the war beginning, the story of the first work of our

On the Flagship "New York,"

By W. H. Moore.

Exchanges with the War Office, and the story of the first work of our

The Cost of War,

By George B. Wadsworth.

A generous presentation of statistics, showing what they have cost in

Hymn: In the Time of the War and Tumults, by Henry Wadsworth.

AND OTHER ARTICLES, STORIES, AND FURNITURE.

McClure's Magazine is the only magazine of its kind that tells the story of the Army and Navy and all

1st EDITION, 400,000 COPIES.

S. S. McCLURE CO., New York.