

CAPITAL WILL BE SUFFRAGE CENTER

Women Will Have Offices Here From Which Campaign Will Be Conducted.

General affairs connected with the conduct of woman suffrage campaigns in different States of the Union will hereafter be conducted from suffrage headquarters here. This decision was reached today. Leaders of the movement have felt the necessity for uniting all different organizations interested in women's suffrage and the Congressional committee of the National American Woman Suffrage Association was sent here last fall to organize this work. The carrying out of the present delayed permanent organization along this line, although it served to bring the need of closer co-operation to the attention of suffrage leaders, members of the Congressional committee declared today. Since March 3 a complete reorganization of the women's suffrage organizations here has been made. Many new committees have been named and heads have been selected for many of the old committees. Headquarters at 143 F street, northeast, is a busy place now in preparation for the big mass meeting to be held in the Columbia Theater April 12. It is expected that the meeting will follow the "historical advance on the Capitol."

Co-operation with the work of the national council of women will be secured through attendance at the annual meeting of that organization to be held here April 12-13, of regular delegates from the different woman suffrage organizations of the country. Miss Florence Eberhardt, president of the State Equal Suffrage Association of the District of Columbia and originator of the inaugural suffrage parade, has been named by Dr. Anna Shaw, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, a delegate to the National Council of Women here.

For the mass meeting here April 12, Dr. Anna Shaw and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the International Suffrage Alliance, have been chosen to speak. It has now been decided definitely to hold the meeting at 10 o'clock at the Columbia Theater and to have the delegates march to the Capitol to present their petitions to the Congressmen of their several districts.

Hundreds of protests against the alleged inefficiency of the police during the parade March 3, continue to be received at suffrage headquarters. Among those just received are protests from the Kansas Equal Suffrage Association, Topeka, Mrs. Lucy B. Johnson, president; the Woman's Suffrage Association of Dayton and Montgomery County, Ohio, Mrs. Dorris C. Stevens, field secretary; the Nebraska Woman Suffrage Association, Mrs. Viola M. Harlan, executive secretary; the Iowa Equal Suffrage Association, Des Moines, Iowa, Ruby J. Eckerson, State secretary, and the Rhineland Equal Suffrage League, Rhineland, Wis., Mrs. C. P. Crosby, president.

These letters all describe the manner in which the crowd acted during the progress of the parade and take the form of resolutions of protest against the action of the police in failing to provide "adequate protection."

SUBURB CHURCHES PLAN FOR EASTER

Services Will Be Elaborate in Anacostia in Honor of Saviour's Resurrection—Special Music and Sermons Are Prepared for Festal Day.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU. ANACOSTIA, D. C., MARCH 22.

Churches in Anacostia have announced their programs for Easter Sunday. In the Catholic and Episcopal churches the ceremonies will be elaborate, but in all sermons on the resurrection will be preached, and the choirs will sing appropriate anthems. The principal mass in St. Teresa's Church will be sung at 10:30 o'clock. Preceding it, J. Taylor Branson will render a violin solo. Mass in St. Mary's will be sung by the junior choir. At the offertory "Regina Coeli" will be sung, the soloists being Miss Bernice Knott and George Ferguson. As the recessional, "Unfold, Ye Portals," by Gounod, will be rendered. Miss Addie Wathen will direct, with Miss Mabel Brauman as organist. In Emmanuel P. E. Church, at 11 o'clock, the full choir will take part; there will be holy communion, and the Rev. Willard G. Davenport will preach on the resurrection of the Saviour. Arthur L. Simpson will direct the music with Mrs. Simpson as the organist. The professional number will be "Welcome, Happy Morn," Sullivan, followed by "Christ, Our Passover," Crochet; the Deum, Dressler, with Misses Marion King and Maud Harding as soloists; "Alleluia, the Strife Is Over," Palestrina; communion service, Merbecke; offertory, "Awake, Thou That Sleepest," Maker; recessional, "He Is Risen," Neander. In the evening there will be sung at the offertory, "Welcome, Happy Morn," Brackett.

The Rev. Dr. J. W. Wightman, of Washington, will preach in the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, his subject to be "The Resurrection." Edward T. Davis will lead the choir in a program of Easter music. The numbers include "Christ Is Risen," Friedlander; "The Resurrection," Gounod; "The Resurrection," Danks, choir. In the evening the church will celebrate the centennial of the birth of David Livingstone, explorer and missionary. The Rev. George M. Cummings will preach. The choir will sing "Savior, When Night Involves the Skies," Shelly.

The Rev. Samuel W. Grafflin will conduct special services morning and evening in the Methodist Episcopal church. Daniel C. Smithson will direct a choir of twenty-one voices in Easter music. In the morning at 11 o'clock they will render "The Lord of Life Is Risen," Watson, and "Now Is Christ Risen," Clare. In the evening the musical features will be "O, Tell Us Where Is He?" Miles, in which Harold King will be the soloist.

and "Awake, Thou That Sleepest," Miles, with Ralph Williamson as soloist. In the Congress Heights Methodist Episcopal Church the principal service will be at 11 o'clock, when the Rev. Merriam Earl, the pastor, will preach on "Lessons of the Easter-tide." In the evening the Sunday school will have charge of the service. There will be Easter music for each service.

The Rev. Charles F. Sontag will officiate in the Easter Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church, Congress Heights, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, and the vested choir, under the direction of Milton J. Fillius, will render a program of both sacred and secular music to the festival to be celebrated.

Confirmation services last night in Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church were attended by Episcopalians from this section in large numbers. According to the annual practice, the bishop of Washington conferred the rite and then made an address to the class and to the people present.

Thirty-two persons were confirmed, twenty of whom were boys and girls, the others being adults. Henry W. Tippet, who went to Parkersburg, W. Va., to represent Old Glory Camp, No. 2, Woodmen of the World, of the District, at the annual convention of the supreme body of the order in the States of West Virginia, Maryland and Delaware and the District of Columbia, has returned. The District secured three officers in the new head camp, which was organized following the withdrawal of Virginia from the jurisdiction. R. F. Williams and William Schoneberger, both of Washington, were named as head managers, and Mr. Tippet was elected as head sentry. W. G. Stott, also of Washington, was chosen as the legislative committee. The members of the order held a street parade in Parkersburg while the convention was in progress.

Electa Chapter, No. 2, Order of the Eastern Star, will receive an official visit Tuesday evening next from Miss Grace E. Wilkins, the grand worthy matron, and Kenton N. Harper, the grand worthy patron, of the order. Members of Electa Chapter have arranged to present a comedy for the entertainment of the grand officers and the guests. It will be called "The Young Doctor Divine."

SLATE NAMED BY "WHITE RIBBONERS"

District C. E. Union Indorses P. S. Foster and L. M. Thayer for Excise Board.

Lewis M. Thayer, prominent in business interests in the city, was chosen today for second place on the Christian Endeavor Union slate for Excise Commissioner, following a conference with the executive board of the Anti-Saloon League.

A list of candidates for District Commissioner to which the Christian Endeavor Union will be opposed is being made up for presentation to the President. Two names most prominent on the list are Cuno H. Rudolph, the present Commissioner, and Charles W. Durr, prominently mentioned for a place on the District Commission. Both of these men are opposed because of their alleged failure to support the Jockey bill, or for alleged laxness in matters relating to the strict enforcement of the excise laws.

Percy S. Foster was nominated for Commissioner by the executive board of the Christian Endeavor Union at a meeting last night. A. E. Shoemaker, attorney for the Anti-Saloon League, was nominated as one of the temporary candidates for the excise board, and Myron J. Jones, director of the educational department of the Y. M. C. A., was suggested for a place, but he declined. A committee, composed of Rexford L. Holmes, Horace M. Gillman and Ell C. Trumbower, head of the citizenship department of the Christian Endeavor Union, was then appointed to take charge of the matter.

Mr. Holmes said today that the candidates chosen by the Christian Endeavor Union were being selected with a view to placing the organization on record in its attitude toward the liquor traffic here and the carrying out of the excise law. Mr. Foster, who is a prominent member of the Immanuel Baptist Church, is superintendent of the Sunday school, and has been associated with Christian Endeavor work for many years. He is regarded by the church as a logical candidate to oppose those who are declared to be in "sympathy with the liquor interests." He was intended originally as a candidate for the excise board, but it was thought he would make a better Commissioner.

A Campaign To Be Waged. Twelve speakers will be selected by the Christian Endeavor Union to speak in different churches in support of the Christian Endeavor candidates. Practically every church in the city will be asked to take up the matter, and ministers will be requested to point out to their congregations the benefits which will come from the choice of the Christian Endeavor candidates.

Shortest Line, Quickest Time. French Lick Springs, "St. Louis Limited," Baltimore & Ohio leaves Washington, Union Station, daily 4:10 P. M., arrives Springs 1:10 P. M. Through sleeper to Mitchell, Ind. Parlor car beyond. Double daily service returning. Ticket Office, 14th St. and N. Y. Ave., 619 Penna. Ave., and Union Station.—Adv't.

Organizations also will be asked to take up the work for the "white ribbon" candidates. Among these are the Epworth League, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which has about 1,500 members in the city, and the Baptist Young People's Union, with a membership of approximately 500. The Christian Endeavor Union of the District has a membership of about 5,000.

The work will not be confined to the churches, however, but will be carried on among the business men of the District. The matter will be taken up at the weekly prayer meetings. It also will be brought before the various civic bodies at their meetings, and a committee for the Christian Endeavor, headed by President R. L. Holmes, will canvass the city to see that the "white ribbon" candidates are well known, and that the object of their nomination is thoroughly understood.

That there has been a marked improvement in conditions in the Center Market during the past three years and that still further improvement is necessary is the statement made in the report of the Housekeepers' Alliance through the committee on civic problems and sanitation. The organization proposes to make monthly reports hereafter and will ask that all foods which can not be washed before being eaten shall be protected from flies, and that the market be screened, as is a similar institution in Kansas City. The report is signed by Miss Georgia Robertson, chairman; Mrs. Harvey Wiley, Mrs. William T. Sampson, Mrs. Richard Wainwright, Dr. Louise Ross and Dr. Lillian Le Kites.

The supervision of sanitary conditions in the market comes about through action of the woman's welfare department of the National Civic Association, which appointed a committee to inspect the market and the carrying out of the recommendations of this committee, tending to promote sanitation and public comfort in the markets are touched on in the report of the Housekeepers' Alliance just issued. The work of supervision was turned over the Housekeepers' Alliance as being more nearly within the scope of that organization and more easily handled by it.

NAVY WRITERS MAKE PRESS AGENTS SAD

Recruiting Advertisements Paint Glorious Pictures of Men and Life on Warships.

You remember the old-style, antique, diamond-fronted type of theatrical press agent, who could conjure a "gorgeous galaxy of beauty" out of hardened old chorus veterans and a "resplendent scenic invention" out of a few faded strops of canvas? You do? That press agent, over whose neglected grave Truth weeps not in mourning, has little or nothing on the United States Navy of today. When the navy goes out gunning for recruits, it puts a magnificent imagination and an absolutely awe-inspiring optimism on the job. It employs literary talent of a unique order.

To read of the life of Jolly Jack Tar aboard a Dreadnaught is to read a tale that fairly makes the blood thrill with the joy of adventure and of a glorious, care-free life that would make Captain Kidd and Jack Silver green with envy. That is as the publicity bureau of the United States navy recruiting service paints it.

That $16 Seems Small. To the average man the $16.00 per month sailor on board one of Uncle Sam's warships has a tough job. It has never been thought idyllic, ideal, or exactly fitted for the young blood craving adventure. But hearken to this blissful word-painting from the navy circulars which are being spread broadcast over the country in the effort to stimulate enlistments: "Would you enjoy meeting the men who drive our great Dreadnaughts through the seven seas; men who can shoot with a ninety-ton gun as accurately as you would with a twenty-two caliber rifle, probably more so; men who put an 800-pound shot through a moving target miles away? "Would you like to talk to men who from long travel and experience are really citizens of the whole world; men who talk of Manila and London, Suz and Panama, as you talk of the suburbs of your own town? More Things To See. "Would you like to associate with spirited, athletic young men who love open-air life, football, boxing and other sports? Men who love the salt tang of the sea, whose days are filled with new sights and new experiences, who have traveled and know foreign countries, other climes? "Men who are like this and do things like this are navy men. You would like to talk with these men and know them well, wouldn't you? Why? Because their life has been an interesting one; their experience has made them interesting. How much finer it is to be one of them. "Meet a navy man, talk with him, and when he tells you that he has a job for life you will be surprised, and after you have talked with him you will know what an exceptional opportunity for promotion, etc., the navy offers to a man who is worth while. "Your opportunity to know more of these men, to join them, to become one of them, is here. Talk it over with your parents and use the enclosed blank. If you or your parents wish to write me, use the enclosed envelope, which requires no postage stamp. Unless your parents object, fill out the blank with the first pen or pencil you can get hold of. If they do object, ask them to send for the booklet themselves."

Bar to Honor Memory Of Judge Thompson

Arrangements for a memorial service in honor of Assistant Attorney General John Q. Thompson have been completed by the Bar Association of the Court of Claims, and will be held in the court room on Monday morning at 11 o'clock. Resolutions recently adopted by the association will be presented, and addresses will be made by members of the bar who were close friends of Judge Thompson.

Mr. Renter: ASK YOURSELF—

- why you should live in another man's house and pay rent when you might as well be paying it to yourself.
- why you should deprive your family and yourself of the pride and satisfaction of living in your own home when all you need is a little money and a little nerve to make the start.
- if you shouldn't make a sacrifice of a few valueless luxuries, which are forgotten tomorrow, in order to provide a home for yourself and loved ones.
