WASHINGTON. Currency Expanders Buttonhole Boutwell. Washburne Offered a Seat in the Cabinet. The Wheat Crop of 1872--An Increase of Five Per Cent.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—Secretary Boutwell was visited to-day by delegations of business men from all the leading Western cities, save Chicago and Cleveland, who came to urge on him the policy of expansion, and that he proceed to issue the $44,000,000 yet remaining under the Currency act, for the relief of their section of the country.

Senator Cameron was here with the delegation of Pittsburgh soldiers, who are on a tour of observation in this city. They all visited the President, and, after a brief interchange of congratulations, were conducted through the various Departments.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune. NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The Secretary of the Interior, D. D. Conway, has turned State's evidence, and publishes a precious mass of scandal involving his employer and himself. Using Strologo as a go-between, Butler pocketed in bribes no less than $21,000 in gold.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—A synopsis of the October report of the Secretary of Agriculture, indicates the comparative production of wheat, oats, and barley, and the condition of the corn crop in the various States.

NEW YORK. Tweed Eager for the Fray--His Views on the Situation. The Trial of Mayor Hall--He Conducts His Own Defence. The Election Commissioner Outrages.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune. NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Tweed says emphatically, that he now intends to fight his case through to a conclusion. He remarked to a reporter, "I am compelled, in going to trial, to bear the onus of every other man charged with the same offences. The prosecution has boasted that if they can convict me, it will be easy work with Hugh Smith, Connelly, James M. Sweeney, and others. I suppose it will if they can catch any of them."

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune. NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The Liberal and Democratic managers are in daily receipt of encouraging letters from all the Southern States, except North Carolina, New York, New Jersey, Indiana, Connecticut, and New Hampshire are claimed for Greeley with confidence.
