

ABORN WILL PUT ON POPULAR CLASSICS

"Madam Butterfly" and Verdi's "Il Trovatore" To Be Sung at National Next Week.

For the second week in Washington, the Aborn English Grand Opera Company, at the New National Theater, announces two of the charming operas which belong to that limited category known as the popular classics.

Puccini's exquisite "Madam Butterfly" will be sung Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights, and at the Wednesday matinee. The libretto for this charming work follows closely the story of the drama of the same name by David Belasco and John Luther Long, and Puccini's magnificent score perfectly matches, in its exquisite beauty and countless melodies, the story of the opera.

The famous grand opera scene in "The Amazons," as it will be produced at the Columbia Theater next week, by the Columbia Players promises to be one of the most talked of scenes presented upon the local stage in many months.

CHILDREN'S FETE IS GREAT SUCCESS

Seven Thousand Unite in Pageant of Physical Exercises at Baseball Field.

Before school this morning and again at recess excited grade school children talked and shouted of the play fete and field day which 7,000 of their number staged at the American League Ball Park yesterday afternoon.

Some Frogs. The southwest, however, was better than third by two places in two events. When it comes to leapfrogging the boys from the river side of the Mall are the best in the city.

The field day program was given without hitch, tug, jar, jerk, or strain. The lowering skies, which grew steadily more threatening throughout the afternoon, but not quite, wrecked the last number of the program, the mass dumb-bell drill by 90 eighth graders.
